To The Faculty:

Members of the Faculty—Teachers at whose feet we have so often sat, whose patience we have so often tried, whose best-laid plans we have often foiled by our heedlessness, yet whose labors have been impressing powerful influences on our lives—we thank you for the sacrifices you have made for us; for the life-labor that you have embodied in your teaching. We cannot repay you, and promises are empty forms. But we trust, we know, that our lives, that every one of our lives will be centers of greater influences for good for having sat at your feet. Good-bye.

MOTTO—"We can because we think we can."

—H. H. S.—

It was in the fall of 1910 that a group of sturdy youngsters trod the beaten path to the Hawarden School for the first time. Some of them were timid and cried but others went courageously on. These students went on through the grades seeking knowledge. Some found it but others failed to do so. Gradually old pupils dropped out and new ones came in. On and on they went, enjoying the full privileges of youth.

One bright autumn day they found themselves seated in the High School assembly. They performed the usual tricks of the freshmen—the most notable being the "skipping of prayer meeting." Then they chose their colors. Green and White they were. Their motto was "We can because we think we can," and their flower the White Rose.

The Freshmen and Sophomore years were passed in a studious yet happy manner. They entered into all athletics with the spirit of winning honor and glory for the dear old Blue and White.

Then they found themselves Juniors! Juniors—noble Juniors—fighting with the Seniors. They presented a class play then, Dickens' "Cricket on the Hearth" in which they displayed unusual talent. The main event of the year was the Junior-Senior banquet which was held May 10 in the basement of the Associated Church. It was a glorious success. Meanwhile they had their parties and their other amusements. The boys were splendid in all athletics.

Blue and White

Now—at last—here they are Seniors! Setting examples for the poor unsuspecting Freshmen. The class chose for their officers; Proctor Maynard, President; Barton Schoeneman, Vice-President; Gordon Meeter, Secretary and Otis Brown, Treasurer. They are well represented in every organization of the School. No longer have they the privilege of sitting in the main auditorium but have a special room for their assembly with Mrs. Meeter supervising. They showed up especially well in debate and made a splendid display in football.

They received their class rings shortly after Christmas and feel very proud of them. These rings signify to them the thirteen long years that they have worked to have the privilege of owning one.

Those who began in the kindergarten and have remained with the class are Beulah Brown, Flora Sumner, Ellen Anderson, Irene Bishop, Barton Schoeneman, Alvin Johnson and Margaret Ericson.

Now that they are Seniors they realize that they will soon be leaving H. H. S. for good. They see the great future ahead and are striving to become worthwhile men and women, to stick to their motto throughout their lives. They feel that they owe a large portion of their knowledge to the kind teachers who encouraged them along and who were always ready to help.

The memories of the dear old Blue and White will always remain with them and perhaps no better friends will ever be found than their class mates.

And so the Seniors wish all the other classes as many pleasures as they have had and ask them to strive hard to accomplish great things for themselves and for H. H. S.

H E M ? !

What's agoin' to happen,
And what'll there be to do,
And whose agoin' to do it—
When the Seniors all get thru?

Us.

Tis so sad as we think of the days just ahead
When we shall be scattered and gone,
From the halls that we've trod through the years of the past
From Childhood's beginning and dawn.
Some classmates we have had from the time that we came
As kiddies so happy and gay,
To be taught by Miss Wetzel to read and to write
But more than all else how to play.
There are seven who still remain in the class,
Who started that day long ago
To be friends, to be pals, in the class twenty-three.
And they are real workers we know.
There was Barton, and Ellen, and Flora you know,
And Beulah who THEN was so small.
There was Irene so bright, and our Margaret too,
And Alvin who always was tall.
They have weathered the storms and have safely arrived
Intact at the end of the road.
We are proud of their work, perserverance and all
For many gave in to the load.
Yes we love those dear friends that we've known for so long,
But not a bit more we maintain,
Than we love those new ones who have come to us since
And helped us to gather our gain.
When we think of our parting from teachers and friends,
Tis sadness comes into our hearts,
For we know that the happiest time of our lives
Was here in the school of which we were all parts.
Where we go matters not for though distant it is
We always will think twenty-three
Had all that was true, faithful, loyal and good.
God grant that we always shall be.

A NONNY MUSS.

Last Will and Testament of The Senior Class.

Our four years of High School have been a great pleasure to us and has taught us many things. We have stuck together through thick and thin, our nineties and sixties for variety only have worked side by side until now we feel it our duty to pass on down a few of the links that have made the Class of '23.

We think it best to begin with our fortunate ones so our Valectarians (we have two) Irene Bishop and Ellen Anderson, pass on their long strained energy and knowledge to Forest Schoeneman and Frances Schumacher to guard and use when ever it may come in handy.

Francis Vogelzang has longed for years to donate his golden locks to Bert Akin. He feels that with the two crops, green things can not possibly grow around Bert.

Proctor Maynard wills his Fort Snelling "Strut" to Noble Knutson, this combined with Nub's whistle ought to take him on the stage.

Edith Bennett feels that with her's and Susies' height combined a very lively looking person will result (her hair not included).

Frances Lilley gives, with much hoped for success, her "waiting" ability to Lloyd Morgan (Better you wait than Lois).

"Jack Handy, I have long felt sorry for you and now I wish to help you. I'll give you my height or you give me some of your burden." Leila Earll.

Beulah Brown bequeaths her ability to throw notes, without being detected to Laura Pixley.

Barton Schoeneman gives his loving disposition to Joseph Lubson to make his behavior ideal.

Margaret Ericson donates her memorized copy of "Summer Time" to Minnie Jensen.

Mable Olson leaves her knowledge of shorthand to Dorothy McFarlin.

Blue and White

Gordon Meeter says it is one wish that Lois Schoeneman follow in his footsteps as a star athlete.

Lura Earll leaves her responsible position of school accompanist to Fred Fleshman.

Henrietta Walsten gives her "Genuine Gold Colgates" compact to Harold Hoffa for future use.

To Art Strong, "After all my years of thinking and aiding those in need, I would like to leave you a little surplus in exchange for some height" Inez Anderson.

I, Aldah Pattin, do hereby bequeath my neck for talking to Olive Finch.

Lois Null bequeaths her line of flashy hose to Hinman Eddy for display.

Frank, Alvin and Otis leave the binding cord of friendship to Laura, Agnes and Evelyn.

Grace Paramore bequeaths her "Loudness" to Gertrude Scott for futher use.

Flora Sumner leaves with agony her extensive volume for giggling to Johanna Jensen.

Alvin Johnson bequeaths his debating ability to Charles Strong.

And my dear readers last but not least: Isabelle Dalton leaves (with an Irish generosity) her habit of reaching the school house in time to hear the echo of the tardy bell to Lois Schoeneman.

Classmates, please protect and preserve these treaties of ours.

AN OVER DOSE OF LIPSTICK

I really meant to kiss her mouth,
One of those lover smacks,
Alas, I only touched her nose,
I skidded on the wax.

Class Prophecy.

Just beyond the veil of years I saw them—the class of 1923. What had happened to those dreams of our youth? Some were shattered rudely into bits; others were nearly realized. The year I saw was 1935. The first I saw was Barton Schoeneman—Barton, the pet and idol of the class. I scarcely recognized him at first for he had grown a long, shaggy beard. Timidly I asked him what his work in life was—if he was making use of his commerce course. He answered me in a big gruff voice saying “No!” He was now leader of the greatest Bolshevistic movement ever in session. I sank down on my knees and wept. Bart had always had such possibilities. Suddenly that big, gruff voice broke the silence again. “I want you to meet my wife. Perhaps you remember Aldah Pattin.” I looked up. My first impulse was to run into Aldah’s arms but something in her look startled me and her voice broke forth, “Bart! You big bohunk, you’d better get down and get to work and save me the trouble of taking in washings.”

Bart answered “Shut up, you dizzy Irishman!” Something familiar sounded in that phrase. How well I remembered it. I passed on and was accosted on my way by a peddler who was selling neckties, cod liver oil and collecting old junk. Immediately I recognized Otis Brown. I chatted with him for a while and then went on my way. By the side of the road I saw a little schoolhouse and outside were a group of youngsters playing. I looked for the teacher and saw her sitting under a tree crying. Behold! It was my beloved friend Irene Bishop. She informed me that her husband Alvin Johnson and she had had a misunderstanding and that he had left for Bingville, Kentucky to become a soap box orator to persuade the men of the evils of marriage. While I was still there an airplane flew over and landed near by. Presently a handsome young aviator whom I recognized as Frank Abbey, came up with a message for Irene from Alvin—telling her that he had made his first speech and had been greeted with such a shower of Irish confetti that he had decided to choose the lesser evil and come home. I rejoiced with Irene and went on. Pretty soon I passed a farmhouse where a woman stood outside severely and vigorously spanking a small boy. I caught a glimpse of her face and hair. Could it be? Was it? It was! I dashed up to her that is, as fast as a woman who has been bumming on foot for five years could dash. She looked at me and said “I’ll have you know that I don't allow tramps on my place. Scat!" The last word was accompanied with a flourish of the stick she was using. "Edith!" I cried, "Don't you remember me?" She screamed my name, in an instant we were in each others' arms. She told me that she had taught school for eight years after she left H. S. and then had married Proctor Maynard and since had lived on a dairy farm. I asked her what "Peanuts" was doing and she told me that he had made a failure as a senator and his first wife, Henrietta Walsten had divorced him. Then he came back to her his first true love and now they were running the Cheesemilk dairy. I stayed there for dinner and then went on.

Along the roadside I noticed a big flashy billboard on which was a picture of a dancing girl. It read. "See Madame Frances Lilley Skedousky Dance! World's most famous interpretive Dancer. At Calliope tonight. Admission ten and twenty-five cents." I studied the face of the lady. Dimly I recognized Fran. How I wanted to see her but as I had neither money nor credit I gave up this idea. As I stood there pondering over the fortunes of others another woman tramp came up to me and said, "Hello, old thing, why so pensive?" Surely it was Lois Null. She told me that she had given up being a violinist because she lacked that divine element called inspiration. I discovered that she, too, was seeking what I was—inspiration for my music. We discussed all the miserable details of local scandal—she telling me that Ellen Anderson was now teaching pickaninnies down in Alabama and was making great success at it. She also told me that she had married a duke over in Europe but had divorced him because he had the annoying habit of putting his feet on her best gate legged table and then too—he didn't appreciate her music. We decided to be pals and roam the world together until inspiration came. I told her of my past—how I had been dismissed from seven symphony orchestras and that I had set out on foot to tour the world.

As we chatted on we saw before us the city of Calliope with its fine parks, statues and skyscrapers. At the entrance of the city was a stand. A little lady in a Salvation Army suit was calling to us "Come on ladies! Right this way! Nice cool drink! Cool your burning throat! Cold lemonade, ginger ale, soda water, pop! Nice cool drink—only ten cents." Scanning her a little closer we recognized Inez Anderson. We greeted her fondly and cooled our burning throats. We departed. A little ways farther on we saw a group of men centered around two men who were fighting. I asked a woman nearby who it was and she answered, "That's Gordon Meeter, world famed pugilist, having a little preliminary bout with Jess Willard, Jr." Gordon sighted us and boldly patted Jess on the nose and watched him sink into an unconscious rest. Then Gordie came to see us. He told us that fighting was a great life and that he had married to keep himself in training.

As we went on we saw a number of folks entering into a church. We noticed also a sign on the outside, "Evangelistical Meetings, Rev. Frances Vogelzang." We went in. There we saw "Red" proclaiming from the pulpit and at his right was seated Lura Earll as accompanist. At the close of the excellent, emphatic and impressive sermon we went up to greet them. Lura told us in confidence that "Red" had proposed to her every night for several years and she couldn't make up her mind. She said she might marry him out of pure sympathy and then too, she enjoyed playing for his services. We asked her what Leila was doing. She said, "Leila! Oh, she's in Washington now in the Senate. Haven't you read the newspapers?" We had not and secretly we thrilled at the thought of one of our girl friends as a senator.

Passing one of the stores we noticed the sign on the window, "Do your feet ache? Have you corns and bunions? If so see me. Mademoiselle Flora Sumner. Chiropodist." We went in to see if it was our Flora. It was. She regarded us a bit disdainfully at first, but when she recognized us she thawed out. She told us that she had never married for fear she would not like her husband after she married him. Then she called out to a passing lady. "Mable Olson! Come here. Mable, do you remember these ladies?" "Oh indeed," answered Mable, "They are the ladies you had the police chase out day before yesterday. Shall I call the police?"

"Indeed, no!" answered Flora, "Scan them closely." Mable did and finally saw. She told us that she did manicuring now as she had broken the world's record at Typewriting and had been swamped by so many to accept positions that he had entered this business. "Besides," she said, "I was stenog for a business man and became entangled in one of these infernal triangular love affairs, since then I have abhorred the sight of a typewriter."

Passing out into the world again we stopped at the Y. W. quarters. In the waiting room was a sweet faced little woman who sat with pencil poised in the air and with a downcast look on her face. "Grace Paramore!" I cried, "Is that you?" Indeed it was. After our happy reunion she told us that she was a novelist without much success and that she had written several books, the main ones of which were "Susan, the Coal Heaver's Daughter" and "The Wop's Weary Ways" and was now working on one called "Caught in One Act" but was puzzled to the depths of despondency as to what to have the heroine say to the villain when he rudely enters the room. We made various suggestions but were met with the heartiest of disapprovals.

We left then to find a nice hay pile in which to spend the night. As we passed out on the other side of Calliope, just as the beautiful flaming sun was sinking to rest in the west we saw a cloud of dust ahead of us in the road. A masked rider was coming at full speed on a cavorting little mule. "Quick!" she cried, "Quick! a knife or a gun. They are after me. Don't ask any questions!"

"Come!" I cried excitedly, "Get down off of your mule and come with us." Hurriedly we snatched her down and hastened to hide her in the nearest haystack. The dashing horsemen passed on and the rider came out of her hiding place. Lois and I were rather afraid of this young desperado but suddenly she snatched off the mask and cried "Girls!! Don't you remember me?" It was Beulah our old time pal and side kick. "Beulah!" we screamed in one accord. Imagine our joy. We questioned her as to the state of affairs.

"You see," she said panting and her eyes glaring wildly, "The bandit, Don Guerando, had just drawn his knife. I saw my trusty mule and I jumped on. I felt a stinging pain in my—"

Hark! What was that? A voice roared through the silence. I looked up—startled. What familiar surroundings! There I was—seated at school with Mrs. Meeter standing over me saying "I'd like to know if you think you are a privileged character around here. Well! you aren't. Get to work now and be mighty quick about it. You can't look out of the window and dream all day, do you understand?"

Indeed I did!— and didn't. What had happened? Ah, I knew now! It was a vision. Hastily I rushed to consult Webster as to the true meaning of vision. It said "A fancy or a dream." How grateful I was that this was not at all true and that I had just been watching it rain and had merely failed to see the "violets" in that April shower.

History of the Junior Class

In the fall of 1911 the class of '24 entered the kindergarten. As they advanced year by year many of the members dropped out and others were admitted.

Now we have only four of the original members, namely: Lois Schoeneman, Susie Vander Sluis, Forest Schoeneman and Lawrence Meeter.

We showed very marked ability in our school work, and when we reached the third grade, many of us were allowed to take parts in a play called "Smuggleman." Later we were asked to take parts in another play, "The Fourleaf Clover." Since that time we have done many things to help "Our Old School."

On the first Monday in September, 1920, we of the Junior Class entered High School. Of course we had to have a little time to "get acquainted" but we soon settled down to work.

Our progress has been rapid and we have always taken a great interest in High School activities. We have quite a lot of material for all branches of athletics and have representatives who have distinguished themselves in every branch of athletics which they entered.

The third member of Hawarden's debating team which won the championship of Northwest Iowa is Fred King, a member of the Junior Class. We are sure proud of you, Fred.

We also have had many good times at parties, which we have had during our High School days, and are planning every day for future parties.

On March 21, 1923, the play "Clarence" was presented by the Junior Class. It met with great success. Some of the money thus earned will be used for the Junior-Senior Banquet which will take place in the near future.

We will soon enter our Senior year and we hope that we may be as successful in every thing which we undertake as we have been in the past.

High Lights on the Class of 1925.

All but a bare half dozen of the original class which entered the kindergarten in 1912 have succumbed to the hardships of their early life in the grades.

When we reached the 8th grade we put on a declamatory contest which showed what we could do when we reached High School. When we entered high school the first thing we did in carrying out our motto, "Deeds not Words" was to have a class meeting, where with the advice of Miss Watters and Mr. Vickerstaff we elected our class officers.

George Anderson, Clayton Thompson and Edna Chenoweth upheld our motto by placing in the home declamatory contest. George later won first place in the pre-district and Clayton placed in the triangle contest. Also in our Freshman year we put out our school paper "The Rubber." Our boys did well in track and two of our girls were on the basket ball team.

This year we had three members out for debate and several out for declamatory. George Anderson won second in the sub-district declamatory contest and Clayton Thompson won second in the triangle contest at Akron. We also had several members on Hawarden's championship football team this year.

We sincerely hope that under our banner of Old Gold and Blue we will be able to help make a name for the dear old Blue and White in years to come.

Dear old high school, our loved Alma Mater
To your shrine we bring garlands of love
As we Seniors go out, younger feet will come in
With the blue sky of loyalty above.

May never a cloud enter into their sky
May their path be both clean and clear
May they fight for the right, for the dear Blue and

And cheer their high school so dear.

And now as the sun is sinking
At the close of our High School day
We can see joy and care the burden to bear
And Memories in those golden rays.

A clear sunset bring forth a clear day;
We shall start on life's journey tomorrow
May we always be true, the old White and Blue.
And face life joyfully and without sorrow.

Normal Training Department.

In 1921 the Normal Training Department was put in our H. S. In order to maintain the department each high school teacher is required to have a degree record from some college and the Normal Training instructor is required to have two years of training outside of high school.

The work begins in the Junior year and thus gives each student a two year normal course.

The graduate with an average of 85 per cent and nothing below 75 per cent receives a first grade certificate, good for two years.

There are eight members of the Normal Training department who will graduate in June and fourteen who will finish next year. The members of Senior Class are: Ellen Anderson, Inez Anderson, Edith Bennett, Irene Bishop, Laura Earll, Leila Earll, Dagmar Jensen and Henrietta Walsten.

The Junior members are: Edna Anderson, Isabelle Dalton, Ruth Evans, Olive Finch, Johanna and Minnie Jensen, Noble Knutson, Laura Klumb, Constance Prewitt, Evelyn Squire, Frances Schumacher, Gertrude Scott, Agnes Toft and Susie Vander Sluis.

Besides the regular work the Senior girls have had classes in construction work, periods of observation and practice teaching, not only in our town school but each member was placed in a rural school for one week of experience.

The department has been organized into a club which has brought them closer together and given them much enjoyment from social hours.

We Senior Girls hope that our High School will always be able to maintain the department so that others may benefit by it.

Oh, teachers and patrons and classmates dear

Listen, for this, I want you to hear

This course please support with pep and with vim,

For pupils who pursue it, success will they win.

We Seniors have loved and cherished our work

With Jarard as our helper and Menefee as a guardian

We've stayed by the ship with never a shirk

And now—thanks to all—with this wish we are parting.

Northwest Iowa Debate Champions

FRED KING

OTTO B. LAING (Coach)

ALVIN JOHNSON

PROCTOR MAYNARD

—H. H. S.—

Mr. Otto B. Laing, Coach.

Too much credit for the success of our debate team can not be given Mr. Laing. Had it not been for his patience and persistent efforts the H. H. S. would never have secured the Northwest Iowa Championship. His skill in coaching would be hard to equal.

Debate.

This year Hawarden had the most successful debate team we have ever had. It is the first year we have had the Northwest Iowa Championship—which was won from a field of twenty-eight contenders. The team was composed of Proctor Maynard, Alvin Johnson and Fred King with Mr. Otto B. Laing as coach.

HAWARDEN—HOSPERS

The debating team of the high school defeated Hospers, in the first debate of the season, at the Baptist Temple on Friday evening January 12.

The debate question was "Resolved, that the state should by suitable and proper legislation, provide for the immediate hard surfacing of the primary roads of the state, and provide for a bond issue therefore, constitutionality granted."

The Hawarden team upheld the negative side and the opponents, the affirmative side of the question. By their forceful and clear arguments, and by their quick thinking and cool headedness in rebuttal, the boys succeeded in obtaining a 3 to 0 decision from the judges.

HAWARDEN—IRETON

The next debate of the season was with Hawarden's old rival, Ireton. This debate was held at the Baptist Temple on Friday evening, January 26.

The boys again upheld the negative side of the question. Being well started on the road to "Sussess," they again won a 3 to 0 decision from the judges.

HAWARDEN—SIOUX CENTER

On Friday evening, February 9, the Hawarden team debated the Sioux Center team here. Again the boys firmly maintained that the primary roads of the state should not be hardsurfaced immediately. They were indeed a team to be proud of that evening. The decision of the judges was 3 to 0 in our favor.

Blue and White

This debate won H. H. S. Honors for it decided the Championship of Sioux Ciounty.

County Supt. C. H. Tye presented the County Debate Cup to the team. This is the second time the cup has been won by Hawarden. If we win the cup another year, it will become a permanent possession of our school.

HAWARDEN—ROCK RAPIDS

The "Sioux County Champions" defeated the Rock Rapids team at the Baptist Temple on the evening of February 23rd. The team again had the negative side of the question which they upheld nobly. The decision of the judges was again 3 to 0.

HAWARDEN—ESTERVILLE

On Friday evening March 9th, at the Baptist Temple the Hawarden team defeated the Esterville team to decide the Championship of Northwest Iowa. This debate was undoubtedly the hardest fight the boys had had so far, but they surpassed the opponents in delivery and argument. The decision was 2 to 1 in favor of the negative, this making Hawarden's team the champion of Northwest Iowa.

HAWARDEN—MOUNT AYR

On March 30th. the team journeyed to Mount Ayr to try for Western Iowa honors. According to the Mount Ayr newspaper it was the hardest fought and closest contest ever held there but the local debators went down to defeat by a 2 to 1 decision, thus ending the debate season for 1923. We are hoping that the team next year will go on to the finals.

Hawarden High School feels justly proud of her team. It is the best team the school has produced and has brought much honor and glory to her. As for the merits of the team—they are too numerous to mention. One might truthfully say that as far as forcefulness of argument is concerned, our boys could sell ham to a Jew. They have worked hard to win fame for the Blue and White and have certainly succeeded. Much credit is due to Mr. Laing, whose patience, intelligence and faithful help and guidance have done a great deal in the making of the best team in Northwest Iowa.

M. J. E. '23

Declamatory.

There were about forty students out for declamatory at the start and much enthusiasm was shown. Each class had a contest of its own and the winners in each class met at the Baptist Temple, to pick the ones to represent Hawarden in the different declamatory contests.

Following is the result:

|----------------------|------------------|
| Oratorical, 1st..... | Clayton Thompson |
| Oratorical, 2nd..... | Warren Morgan |
| Dramatic, 1st..... | George Anderson |
| Dramatic, 2nd..... | Aldah Pattin |
| Humorous, 1st..... | Marian Pattin |
| Humorous 2nd..... | Ruth Dickinson |

Those who took second at the home contest entered in the sub-county contest at Alton; Aldah Pattin was the only one who survived, winning first place. At the county contest held at Rock Valley she lost out.

The Pre-sub District contest was held at Akron March 2nd. The towns entered were Akron, Hawarden, Ireton and Westfield. Hawarden's representatives were Clayton Thompson in Oratorical, George Anderson in Dramatic, and Marian Pattin in Humorous. Hawarden was the most successful of any of the teams there because they received one first and two seconds. George received first in Dramatic and Marian and Clayton each second in their respective classes. The contest was so close that even though they only received second, one of the judges in each case thought they deserved first place and so cast his vote..

George Anderson went from the Akron contest to Rock Valley to take part in the pre-district. He made a splendid showing and won second place, this eliminated him as only the firsts were permitted to go to the district contest.

MISS ANNE V. WIERSMA—Coach

To coach forty students for the declamatory contests and carry her regular work as teacher means long hours and hard work. That was Miss Wiersma's task but she went about it without complaint and has developed a lot of enthusiasm over declamatory in our school.

Athletics

Athletic Association.

The athletic association, in our High School was organized the fore part of the year. A majority of the members of the school were acknowledged as members of the association.

The following are the officers elected:

|------------------|----------------|
| ALVIN JOHNSON | President |
| EDITH BENNETT | Vice-President |
| FRED KING | Secretary |
| MARGARET ERICSON | Treasurer |

The chief committee of the association is the athletic board which acts as an advisory board of the association. It consists of a representative of each class and the coaches.

The following with the four above constitute the board:

|-------------------|----------------|
| GORDON MEETER | Seniors |
| FOREST SCHOENEMAN | Juniors |
| FLOYD SCOTT | Sophomores |
| PHILIP SMITH | Freshman |
| HELEN WOOD | Junior High |
| MR. VICKERSTAFF | Boys' Coach |
| MISS STOLT | Girls' Coach |
| MR. MENEFEE | Superintendent |

In the latter part of September the annual big night of the High School year was held. This was not the usual basket social which was held in previous years, but a carnival. This was held in Dalton's Hall which proved an ideal place and attracted a large crowd. All kinds of amusements were provided, perhaps the main features were the "Minstrel Show," "Seven Wonders of the World" and the "Art Exhibit." Each class was represented by some booth. A contest for the most popular girl in H. S. was held during the evening. This was very close but in the end Margaret had the greatest number of votes.

Tor the last few years it has been customary to have an A. A. play. This year the Association presented a Minstrel Show which was a great success and netted the Association a considerable profit.

Although our High School is not the best equipped and we are not represented in some branches of atheletics, we make up for this in other activities as football, track and baseball.

Coach S. G. Vickerstaff

Coach Vickerstaff's hard and faithful work in athletics has put Hawarden on the map. Whenever the school starts anything you will find that "Vick" is there to help carry it through.

Too much credit can not be given him for the success of the football and track teams. The 1922 football team, under his leadership, outclasses any other team that has represented the Hawarden High School. We are not afraid of the H. H. S. losing its place on the athletic fields as long as "Vick" is coach.

SUTHERLAND—HAWARDEN GAME

Hawarden Champions of Northwest Iowa

Only Five Iowa Teams Which Were Not Defeated or Tied.

1922 is the first time in the history of the school that a Hawarden team has completed a high school schedule without meeting a single defeat. It is the second highest scoring machine which has ever been developed, having made a total of 234 points with only 7 points scored against them, and that by a fluke when a LeMars player intercepted a forward pass and ran 90 yards for a touchdown.

There are but five teams within the state of Iowa which did not meet with a defeat, or a tie, Cedar Rapids, Hawarden, Sioux City, Washington and Monticello. Hawarden has just as good a right to lay claim to the state high school championship as any one of these teams, and Hawarden also stacks up with the best teams in South Dakota.

There were thirty-four men out at the start of the season and at the end of the season there were still two full teams and one over. The men who stayed out all season were: Capt. Handy, Scott, Akin, Eilers, Clayton Thompson, Morgan, Klumb, G. Meeter, F. Schoeneman, L. Meeter, Bader, Clinton Thompson, Wallace, B. Schoeneman, Wheeler, Stickel, Dawson, Maynard, C. Schoeneman, Kellerman, Brown, Vogelzang and Smith. Sixteen of the boys have participated in regular games and were awarded their letters. The average weight of the team was 145 pounds, the back field men and the linemen both averaging the same.

Blue and White

Hawarden journeyed to Rock Valley for the first game of the season and defeated our first county rival by the score of 19 to 0. The game was played on a poor field and both teams put up a slow brand of football. Several substitutions were made during the game to try out the men. Bert Akin played a strong defensive game for Hawarden as did several other men. Meeter and F. Schoeneman carried the ball consistently.

The first real test of the team came on the following week when the Yankton High School warriors played here. Hawarden played hard consistent football throughout the game. Every man did the right thing at the right time or Yankton would have made a closer score. Yankton was the only South Dakota team that played Hawarden. The final score was 21 to 0 in favor of the locals. Sioux Falls defeated Yankton 20 to 0 the following Saturday. Sioux Falls claimed the championship of South Dakota.

The Sheldon-Hawarden game was not played on account of rain.

Orange City came to Hawarden next to defend the county title that they won the previous season. They had defeated Rock Valley 18 to 0 and it looked like a battle for county honors. As soon as the Hawarden team could get under way there was no mistake and every time they got their hands on the ball they started for a touchdown. If ever a team got sweet revenge Hawarden did. The score at the end of the game was 73 to 0 in favor of the locals. Every man did the best that was in him.

The LeMars game proved to be the real battle of the year, as all LeMars games have been in the past. One of the greatest crowds that ever witnessed a game here was out. LeMars sent a large delegation.

LeMars seemed to be a jinx for Hawarden during the early part of the first quarter but Hawarden soon got under way and by the end of the first period had the ball worked down to the one yard line. Bader put the ball over at the beginning of the second quarter. In the second quarter LeMars intercepted a forward pass and ran 90 yards for a touchdown. The half ended with the score 7 to 7. In the third quarter the hardest kind of football was played. Gordon Meeter put up a fine exhibition of punting. G. Meeter put the ball between the goal posts for another 3 points which was enough to win the game. The last quarter found Hawarden playing LeMars off her feet. The game ended 10 to 7 in Hawarden's favor. The score does not indicate the strength of the two teams. It was the first time that LeMars had been defeated on the local field. One of the features of the game was "Slack" Meeter's returns of punts, one being returned 60 yards.

Sanborn loomed up as the next rival that would give Hawarden trouble. Business houses closed that day, the band was out and everything was done up in holiday style. The day was ideal and there was a crowd of over 500 there, and you never saw a pepier crowd in Hawarden. The cheer leaders were at work long before the game started and everyone was all set.

The game was fought on very even terms throughout—neither team having any great advantage. The Sanborn team had a little edge on the forward passing while G. Meeter far out punted the Sanborn fullback. The first and only score of the game came in the second period when G. Meeter plunged through the line for a touchdown. "Frosty" Schoeneman played a great defensive game in breaking up passes and stopping all kinds of plays. F. Scott made a 30 yard gain down the sideline which was one of the best gains of the game. Captain Handy played one of the best games of his career.

Vermillion failed to show up at Hawarden on account of rain.

Mapleton High School came here on Armistice Day to play on a wet and soggy field. It was a poor day for either team to show what they had. The Hawarden shifts would not work on the wet field. Mapleton started off with a rush, passing the ball in all directions. Hawarden was almost helpless for the first quarter. Soon after the second quarter Hawarden found their bearings and started things moving. G. Meeter made a drop kick from the 47 yard line, some authorities say 52 yards, it stands as a local record and by far the best drop kick made in Iowa in 1922. In the same quarter G. Meeter made another drop kick from the 45 yard line. The game ended 6 to 0 in Hawarden's favor.

Sutherland came next with one of the best teams that they have had in a number of years. They were defeated once outside of the Hawarden defeat. Sutherland outplayed Hawarden the first quarter and but for the defensive work of one or two of the men it might have been a sad story. Clayton Thompson proved himself to be one of the best centers that Hawarden has developed in recent years or probably in all times. The second quarter was nore even. G. Meeter succeeded in dropping two kicks between the goal posts, one being from the forty-two yard line. Sutherland did not have a look in in the second half when Hawarden tightened up. The game ended 13 to 0. There was not a single penalty called in the whole game and the ball was put in play more than any other game of the season.

The final game of the season was on Thanksgiving day with Fonda, a team with an enviable record the past two or three years. The game was played during a high wind so kicking and passing were out of the question to any extent. The Fonda boys played hard clean football but were clearly outplayed by the champions of Northwest Iowa. Gordon Meeter, Lee Bader, Barton Schoeneman and Proctor Maynard ended their high school football career, each playing excellent football. The entire team played the very best that was in him, thus enabling them to defeat Fonda by the score of 32 to 0.

The Reserves

—H. H. S.—

The reserves deserve a just portion of the glory of the 1922 season. Without the hard working scrubs there would have been no Northwest Iowa champions at Hawarden the past season. The strength of the first team depends upon the strength of its scrubs. They were strong and put up many a hard tussle for the regulars night after night. Vogelzang and Brown might have made the first team if they had been out sooner. They made a very creditable showing. Maynard was captain of the reserves and played well enough to get in enough first team games to win a letter. The reserves went to Akron and defeated the Akron Regulars in a hard fought game. Each man on the reserves did himself and the school credit the way they played football. The first half ended 7 to 6 in favor of Akron. The final score was 13 to 7, favor of Hawarden.

Prospects for 1923.

The prospects for 1923 are very bright. Our student body is increasing every semester, thus enabling us to have more boys to draw from. Then there is a wealth of material left over from last fall. We have Captain-Elect F. Schoeneman, L. Meeter, Wallace of last years letter men in the backfield. In the line from last years regulars we have F. Scott, Akins, Eilers, C. Thompson, Ex-Captain Handy, Morgan, Klumb, Wheeler and Stickel. Charles Strong is giving all he has to become eligible again. He played regularly in 1921. He will make all of the old linemen work. Clinton Thompson will make the backfield men work as will Philip Smith. Charles Dawson, Chester Schoeneman and Pearson Kellerman should show up strong on the line next year. This will give a strong line for 1923 and with one or two additions a strong backfield. F. Schoeneman is an exceptional punter and L. Meeter may rival his brother Gordon as a toe artist during the coming season. The squad averaged 145 last fall and it should improve during the coming season. With an averaging amount of good luck and plenty of support the 1923 team should prove of championship calibre.

JACK HANDY

FOREST SCHOENEMAN

LAURENCE KLUMB

JACK WALLACE

Jack Handy, Captain

For three years Jack has been tearing down opponents lines and making holes for his team mates with a skill that few linemen obtain. Jack won a place as guard on the Northwest Iowa Team this year and would no doubt qualify for any high school team in the state. Watch the big boy next year.

—H. H. S.—

Forest Schoeneman, Captain-Elect

“Frosty” finds the holes. He’s in the thick of the fight from whistle to whistle, never for a minute slacking. That’s why he was elected to head next year’s eleven. A more consistent ground gainer would be hard to find. He’ll lead the team into the championship class next year—depend on that.

—H. H. S.—

Laurence Klumb

Klumb is a worker from the word go and the kind of a player that stars in every game. Opponents soon learn to avoid his end—he nails ‘em. 1924 will be a big season for Klumb, keep an eye on him.

—H. H. S.—

Jack Wallace

Jack got to play only a part of the games this year but during that time he surely delivered the goods. Next year he will no doubt have a permanent back field job. Jack has two more years to show what’s in him.

Blue and White

ERNEST EILERS

BARTON SCHOENEMAN

LAURENCE MEETER

BERT AKIN

Ernest Eilers

Eilers held his part of the line like a veteran. By real hard work he earned a place on Hawarden's greatest football team. Watch the pace he sets for the next two years.

—H. H. S.—

Barton Schoeneman

"Bart" was unable to start the season because of injuries but played mighty good ball when he got back on the squad. "Bart" held positions in both the line and backfield. We're sorry to lose him.

—H. H. S.—

Laurence Mceter

"Slack" never slackens. As fullback on our championship team he could always be depended on to advance the ball. Advancing the ball 30 or 40 yards when playing safety is his specialty. It is a happy thought when we remember that "Slack" has another year to help the H. H. S. earn honors.

—H. H. S.—

Bert Akin

Bert was a valuable man on the '22 team. Fearless and aggressive he always outplays his opponents. He stood out as the star of the game at Rock Valley. Great football will be expected of Bert next year.

Blue and White

GORDON MEETER

LLOYD WHEELER

CLAYTON THOMPSON

FLOYD SCOTT

Gordon Meeter

"Butch" wound up his four year football career in a blaze of glory. To opposing teams, he was a triple threat, his kicking, passing and carrying the ball being features in every game. As a toe artist he's as good as it is possible to find on high school teams. He is a crafty field general and always can be depended upon to advance the ball. It is a deep source of regret that Meeter has represented the H. H. S. for the last time on the football field.

—H. H. S.—

Lloyd Wheeler

Wheeler played good football this year and will be expected to star next year. He succeeded in completing several spectacular "shoe strings" and plays an all round good game.

—H. H. S.—

Clayton Thompson

Thompson is one of the best centers Hawarden has seen. He is an accurate passer and plays a wonderful defensive game. He has a great ability to diagnose opponents plays. Thompson will be a valuable man on the next year's squad.

—H. H. S.—

Floyd Scott

"Slim" is fast, a deadly tackler and good at receiving passes. He plays a game that will satisfy the most exacting of critics and should add more laurels in the two years that he has left to play. Watch him.

Blue and White

LEE BADER

PROCTOR MAYNARD

KENNETH STICKEL

LLOYD MORGAN

Lee Bader

"Bade" ended his football career by playing steller ball. Playing at half he would always advance the ball when the necessity arose. He is a game, hard fighter from start to finish and it is to be regreted that he will no longer be with us.

—H. H. S.—

Proctor Maynard

"Proc" was captain of the reserves and played enough games on the team to win a letter. Few men are willing to put in the work to win honors for the school that Maynard has and we regret that his last game has been played.

—H. H. S.—

Kenneth Stickel

Winning a letter this year and with three more years to go it looks like Stickel will develope into a first class star before he is through with the game. He is a hard worker and will be a part of Hawarden's stonewall defense next year.

—H. H. S.—

Lloyd Morgan

"Morg" holds down his part of the line as no other could. He never quits and is in the midst of the battle from start to finish. As a tackler he is one of the amblest men on the squad. Next year will be his fourth year on the team.

An Appreciation.

We have indeed been proud of the success of our undefeated football team and realize that no small part of this success has been due to the support and encouragement of the entire community. It would be impossible to mention individually all those deserving of our gratitude for their assistance during the season but feel that we must express our appreciation to Rev. Vance for his counsel and advice. He was always willing, at no small inconvenience to himself, to help the boys and be with them when needed. The fine appearance of the team was largely due to the fact that the Class of 1922 gave so generously of their class funds for the purchasing of new football outfits. This fine appearance of the team helped give them the necessary pride in themselves and pep for the school to finish the season the pride and glory of Hawarden High. Thanks to the Class of 1922!

We also wish to thank the business men of Hawarden for their support and for the interest they have shown in football during the past year.

The 1922 Track Season

As a whole the 1922 track season under the direction and coaching of Mr. Vickerstaff and Mr. Cleworth was a success. It is much to be regretted that we were nosed out of the county championship but it is hoped that we will get sweet revenge in the coming season. A number of very strong teams met our men in the many meets and we can justly feel proud of the showing they made.

"A" Meet.

On May 5th. the team journeyed to Sioux City to take part in the Morningside Meet. A number of very strong teams were represented but Meeter succeeded in getting 6 points. He received five of the points by taking first place with the shot put at a distance of 45 ft 7½. which broke the Morningside record made in 1909. The additional point was made by placing third with the discus.

—H. H. S.—

Vermillion Meet.

At the Vermillion Meet this year Bade took second in the pole vault with 10 feet 10 inches. Meeter took first in the shot put with 41 feet 11 inches and also took second in the discus.

—H. H. S.—

Rock Rapids Meet.

At Rock Rapids Maynard won third in the mile, Meeter took second in the shot and second in the discus. The first in shot and discus were won by Dauber of Esterville, 44 and 109 respectively.

—H. H. S.—

Stagg Meet.

The Stagg Meet is held annually at the Stagg Field, Chicago. It is a national meet for only the best athletes in the country. Gordon Meeter attended the meet this year and against the strongest kind of competition was able to place sixth in both shot and discus. He threw the shot 45 feet 10 inches.

PATRIOTISM

The ice was very slippery,
Our father could not stand;
He saw the glorious stars and stripes,
We saw our fatherland.

The 1923 Track Season.

Track in the Hawarden High School has started off in a most successful fashion. The boys are setting a fast pace and are backed by a lot of the old Hawarden pep. Coach Vickerstaff and his speed kings are rounding out one of the most successful year's of school activities the Hawarden High School has ever known.

—H. H. S.—

The Iowa Indoor Meet.

Gordon Meeter started the 1923 track season off in grand style by winning first place in the shotput at the Iowa State Indoor Meet which was held in Iowa City on February 22nd. He threw the lead ball for a distance of 43 feet 7 inches. Mr. Vickerstaff accompanied him on the trip.

—H. H. S.—

Home Track Meet.

Tuesday, April 24th the home meet was held at the school grounds. It was a very interesting and exciting contest, the competition being keen between the class.

Triangular Meet.

The triangular track meet held at the ball park last Friday April 27th was quite largely attended. The schools taking part in the meet were Akron, Hawarden and Ireton and the competition was quite strong in a number of the events.

The results of the meet were as follows; the winners of first, second and third places being in the order given:

120 High Hurdles—Scott, Hawarden; F. Schoeneman, Hawarden; Goodmanson, Ireton; time 19 seconds.

Mile Run—Mueller, Ireton; Arter, Hawarden; Maynard, Hawarden. 5:40.

Pole Vault—B. Schoeneman, Hawarden; Knowlton, Ireton, tied; C. Thompson, Hawarden. 9 feet 6 in.

Blue and White

100-yard Dash—Cross, Akron; G. Meeter, Hawarden; Akron. 10.4.

440-yard Dash—Strong, Hawarden; Ireton; C. Thompson, Hawarden. 63 seconds.

High Jump—Knowlton, Ireton; Goodmanson, Ireton; Scott, Hawarden. 5.5.

220 Low Hurdles—Klumb, Hawarden; Goodmanson, Ireton; F. Schoeneman, Hawarden. 31.2.

The Buena Vista Invitation Meet.

At Storm Lake on May 5th. was held one of the most hotly contested track meets seen in Northwest Iowa in a number of years. The largest schools in this part of the state were represented, including Cherokee, Fort Dodge, Hampton, Fonda, LeMars and Spirit Lake. In spite of the close competition the Hawarden boys took third place with 16 1-3 points. Hampton won the meet with Fort Dodge second. Meeter won first in the shot put, 43 feet 6½ inches, first in the javelin, 152 feet 7½ inches, and first in the discus, 116 feet.

Barton Schoeneman tied with two other for third place in the pole vault and the mile relay team took third place. Beebe of Hampton won individual honors with 22 points and Meeter second with 15.

Considering the number of schools entered we have reason to feel proud of the showing made by our team.

University of South Dakota Invitation Meet.

The meet at Vermillion this year was held May 11th. Although it was an exceptionally fast meet the Hawarden team succeeded in taking seven points. Meeter won first in the shot put and third in the discus. Barton Schoeneman also took third in the pole vault. Sioux City won the meet with Tyndall and Sioux Falls running second and third. The meet was held under adverse conditions with a raw wind blowing all afternoon and drizzled rain most of the time.

—H. H. S.—

The Sioux County Meet.

On May 14th, the County Play Day, the county track meet was held at Earl Meeter Park. Eight teams representing Ireton, Orange City, Maurice, Hospers, Hull, Rock Valley, Sioux Center and Hawarden were present. Besides the big Reickhoff Cup there were three relay cups, a cup for first and second in individual honors and a cup for the winner of the 220 yard dash. There was also a cup for the girls relay. Medals were present by the business men of Hawarden.

Hawarden carried off the big end of the meet before a very large crowd, winning all cups and a large share of the medals.

The Girls Track Season.

The only track meet in which the girls participated was the county meet. Teams were here from Hull, and Hospers. Because of the fact that Ruth Dickinson was disqualified after winning the 50-yard dash by the good margin, the Hawarden Girls had to be satisfied with second place. Hawarden carried off the relay cup which was the only cup put up in the girls events. Medals were presented to the winners.

With the close of school in June 1923 will come the end of the third successful Hi-Tri year. The purpose of the Club is to create, maintain and extend throughout the High School a strong, high, moral sentiment to bring students into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ as leader and friend, His service in His church, to build them up in Christian Service.

Blue and White

All girls of the High School and eighth grade are eligible for membership. There are now about fifty members in the Club. This year we have three women advisors, elected for the club year, who meet with the members of the cabinet and use their influence in making a bigger and better club.

The cabinet is composed of the four officers of the club and the chairman of the publicity, service social and program committee. The cabinet meets twice a month to take care of the business of the club and plan the work.

The club meets each Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the High School Building. The meetings are made especially interesting by good programs. This spring a series of Bible study lessons were held, some outside man or lady taking charge of the lesson.

Barton Schoeneman gave a talk and showed slides, one evening, on his Euporean trip. A social is held once a month and everyone enjoys a Hi-Tri social. Several Hikes are planned throughout the year.

Hi-Tri is endeavoring to work with the Woman's Club of the town where ever possible. This year we canvassed the town and sold the Lyceum tickets for the ladies. In February a membership drive was conducted. Misses Stolt and Westerlund were the captains of the Blue and White sides. The White won and were entertained at a picnic by the losing side.

Summer and winter conferences are held for High School girl's clubs, Flora Sumner and Evelyn Squire were the delegates for the 1922 summer conference held at the Y. W. C. A. Camp at Lake Okoboji.

The High School Orchestra.

This year our high school had the finest orchestra we have ever had. Although they had no director, such marked ability was shown that it is expected that they will have a director for next year. On several occasions they furnished music in connection with school activities.

—H. H. S.—

Girls Glee Club.

This year has found the pupils more interested in Music than ever before. The Girl's Glee Club was reorganized at the beginning of the year electing Edith Bennett President, Olive Finch Treasurer and Bertice Thompson Secretary and Laura Earll Pianist, with an enrollment of forty-five members. Although their work was some what delayed by the lack of an instructor, they have worked hard and under the directorship of Mrs. Margolin they have accomplished a great deal.

The success of the Club is due to the efficient directorship of Mrs. Margolin and the willing co-operation of the members.

Junior Activities.

The first social event of the Junior Class was a party held at the home of Lois Schoeneman. It proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the Junior social affairs and will long be remembered by them.

The Juniors gave their annual class play March 21. In spite of stormy weather, bad roads and the anxiety of the worried Juniors, "Clarence" proved very successful both financially and otherwise.

The Junior—Senior Banquet proved the most eventful activity of the school year.

It was held at the Associated church. Under festoons of Green and White, long tables were arranged in the shape of a letter H. The Senior colors were skillfully carried out in all the table appointments.

The Toast Program follows in full:

|----------------|--------------------|
| Toast Mistress | LOIS SCHOENEMAN |
| U | PROCTOR MAYNARD |
| After | MISS PIERCE |
| Now | FRED KING |
| Days ago | MARGARET ERICSON |
| I | FRANCES SCHUMACHER |

Lois Schoeneman proved an admirable Toast Mistress and the responses were very creditable and to the point.

While the five course dinner was being served a four piece orchestra played softly. The dreamy music, flowery recess and dainty costumes seemed to transfer all into a veritable fairy-land. It was an evening long to be remembered by every Junior and Senior.

STYLES

Bertice Thompson—I'd like to try on that one over there.

Salesman—I'm sorry, madam, but that is a lampshade.

Shoe Clerk—What size shoe do you wear?

Flapper—I wear 2½ B., See?

Clerk—2½ B. C., we haven't anything that old.

Freshman—You surely are a good dancer.

Soph—Sorry, I can't return the comp.

Freshman—You could, if you are as big a liar as I am!

Noble K.—I'd like to give you a piece of my mind.

Kenneth S.—For Heaven's Sake, don't, you wouldn't have any left!

Senior Activities.

At the beginning of the year the Senior class started out by having a class hike. A more ideal day could not have been chosen, and five o'clock found most of the bunch hiking to the Bluffs, with the eats, ukeles, etc. We were very much pleased that the faculty was so well represented and enjoyed being there. The boys who were out for football came out later in a car. The time was spent as it is on all hikes, eating all we could, roaming around and listening to the melodious music of the ukes! We departed knowing that when we wanted to have a good time again we'd get that bunch together and "strike" for the hills.

Our first and only party held so far this year was enjoyed by the class at Margaret Ericson's home. Most of the class attended, and we know that those of the class and advisors who were not there, missed a good time. At a late hour and after refreshments were served we left for our homes, having had a wonderful time. because we are always sure of a good time at her place.

THE LOVE OF A BUTCHER BOY

Dear heart, I'm in an awful stew
How I'll re-veal my love for you.
I'm such a mutton-head, I fear—
I feel so sheep-ish when your near.
I know it's only cow-ardice
That makes these lamb-entations rise,
I dread a cut-let me explain;
A single roast would give me pain.
I should not like to get the hooks,
And dare not steak my hopes on looks.
I never sausage eyes as thine,
If you would butcher hand in mine—
And live-r round me every day,
We'd seek some ham-let far away;
We'd meet life's frowns with love's caress,
And cleav-er road to happiness.

THE TOURIST GETS IT AGAIN

A tourist passing through a country village found that his watch had stopped. Seeing a little boy standing outside the village shop he approached him, and asked:

"Can you tell me the time, sonny?"

"Just twelve o'clock," was the reply.

"Only twelve o'clock?" said the tourist. "I thought it was more than that."

"It's never any more in these parts, sir," answered the boy. "It goes up to twelve o'clock and then begins again at one."

—H. H. S.—

"We had quite a game up at the boarding house last night".

"Did you do it?"

"Chess".

“Why,” replied the unperturbed Ole, “I thought some darn fool would ask me that question, so I measured it.”

Love me more and powder less?

Carry Out Your Intentions

Away off in your mind you have decided to own a home. Every individual realizes the folly, the dissatisfaction and inconvenience of paying rent. You intend to own a home some time. But good intentions amount to nothing if they are not carried out. Are you putting off until "tomorrow" the decision to own your own home? Time slips away and rent continues just the same. Obey that home-building impulse now! It is easier today than it would be tomorrow.

This office is headquarters for building ideas. It costs you nothing to select your home or other building here from a collection of several hundred designs.

TORPEDOED

Nut went into a restaurant and asked Meg for poached eggs on toast. Meg bellowed into the kitchen, "Two men on a raft." Nut reminded Meg that he wanted them well done and scrambled, whereupon the waiter again yelled, back, "SHIPWRECK that order!"

SOMETHING YOU DON'T KNOW

Webster defines a "Shoe-Bill" as, "A large wading bird allied to the stork and heron. It inhabits the valley of the White Nile. It is chiefly ashy gray with blackish wings and tail".

Some people have a "bird" of a "shoe bill". Save money by having your shoes repaired when they first show signs of wear.

Talk about pride. The bird that wears a wig and then sprinkles salt on it to make people think it is dandruff, takes the cake.

—H. H. S.—

"I dreamt I died last night."

"What woke you up?"

"The heat."

—H. H. S.—

You can always tell a Senior with his noble cap and gown;
You can always tell a Junior for he seems to own the town;
You can always tell a Sophomore with his wisdom, wit and such;
You can always tell a Freshman, but you can not tell him much.

—H. H. S.—

"You said you were hit with a flatiron. You do seem to be suffering from shock".

"Yes; it was an electric iron!"

A very nervous man visited a famous nerve specialist for treatment.

"Do you drink much coffee?" asked the doctor.

"About four saucerfuls".

—H. H. S.—

Mrs. Meeter: Jack, name an organ of the body".

Jack: "The teeth".

"What kind of an organ is it?"

"A grind organ".

Samson, the tailor, visited a large wholesale warehouse and ordered a quantity of suitings. He was received politely and shown over the establishment. Seeing the telephone, he asked if he might speak to the shipping department.

"Why certainly," he was told.

The visitor took up the instrument.

"Are Samson's goods shipped yet"?

The office clerk, supposing that the speaker was a salesman replied distinctly: "No, we're waiting for a report from his banker. He looks like a slippery customer".

—H. H. S.—

"I'm getting better every day!"

I thought the words would cheer me,

A brutal grip germ came my way,

And never seemed to hear me!

George: Who's Howe?

Walter: How's Who?"

—H. H. S.—

"Well, Teddy how do you like your new overcoat"?

"Don't like it, Mom, the sleeve buttons hurt my nose".

Carl Olsen was an influential fellow among the Swedish people of his locality and his opinion was desired by a local politician just before the last election.

"What do you think, Carl, of Harding running for president"? the politician asked.

"Ay tank Harding make gude president. Ay tank he be elected".

"What do who think of Cox for president"?

"Ay tank Cox gude man. Ay tank he be elected".

"Who do you think has the best show"?

"Ay tank, Ringling Brothers."

A woman is only a woman, but plus a winning smile,
A powder puff,
A marcel wave,
A two-ounce gown,
Some silk or lisle,
A coquette's way,
The grace to dance,
A mouth for sweets,
An eye for style—
A woman is only a woman, but she'll hold you for a while!

At 8 p. m. while Pa and Ma,
Helped entertain with Sis,
Both Lloyd and Lois in distant seats,
Were far apart like this.

At 9 p. m. as Pa withdrew,
And sought his room upstairs,
The lovers found some photographs
And nearer brought their chairs.

At 10 p. m. Mamma decamped—
And then, Ye Gods! What bliss!
These lovers sat 'till nearly one
About as close as this.

The determined-looking woman alighted from the driver's seat as the victim of her car picked himself up from the dust and began to take stock of his injuries.

"I'm sorry I hit you", she said grudgingly, "but it was your fault. You must have been walking carlessly. I am an experienced driver. I've been driving a car for seven years".

"Well," replied the man as he dusted himself off, "I'm no novice myself. I've been walking for fifty-seven years".

A green brakeman on the Colorado Mudline was making his first trip up Ute Pass. They were going up a very steep grade, and with unusual difficulty the engineer succeeded in reaching the top. At the Cascade station, looking out of his cab, the engineer saw the new brakeman and said with a sigh of relief,

"I tell you what, my lad, we had a job to get up there, didn't we?"

"We certainly did", said the brakeman, "and if I hadn't put on the brakes we'd have slipped back".
