

A Toast

As our school days are nearly ended
And our studying soon will be o'er,
We seem to feel a sadness,
That we've never felt before.

But our hearts should not be heavy
At the parting shake of the hand,
When we show our appreciation,
To the best Faculty in the land.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1937, The War Department of Hawarden, our parents, decided to send a company of junior size soldiers out to do battle with school.

Of this sturdy company of forty soldiers, four have survived the entire twelve years of battle. These battle-scarred veterans are, Dolores Haines, Dona Swanson, Wanda Janvrin and Dick Swift.

Our first two years were spent in basic training in preparation for the battles to come. It was during our second battle when Col. Snell became our commanding officer and has kept her officiating rank throughout our entire warfare. Miss Hilton took the rating of Commander-in-Chief, in leading the troops through their first eight battles.

As we trudged through the cities which made up our third battle, we camped long enough to help build a museum which was made up of souvenirs provided by each of the soldiers of the third troop. This was a great prize to the War Department and they were very proud.

With each soldier contributing his musical ability, a company Rhythm Band was organized. At the end of each battle, we entertained our War Department with small concerts. The Band has grown throughout our years and has attained great honors.

As a result of our first eight battles, the weary soldiers were presented with their transfer papers (diplomas) to a new, and unknown battleground.

Gallantly we marched into this new territory where our company was reinforced with recruits from St. Mary's and surrounding rural schools, which increased our number to sixty-two soldiers. General Snell led us into our ninth combat with Jo Ann Smith, Tom Tilgner, Dolores Haines, and Mary Ellen Sawyer as company commanders. During this battle, twelve of our soldiers were captured by spies of different territories. Dances were sponsored by the Canteen to help break the monotony and strain.

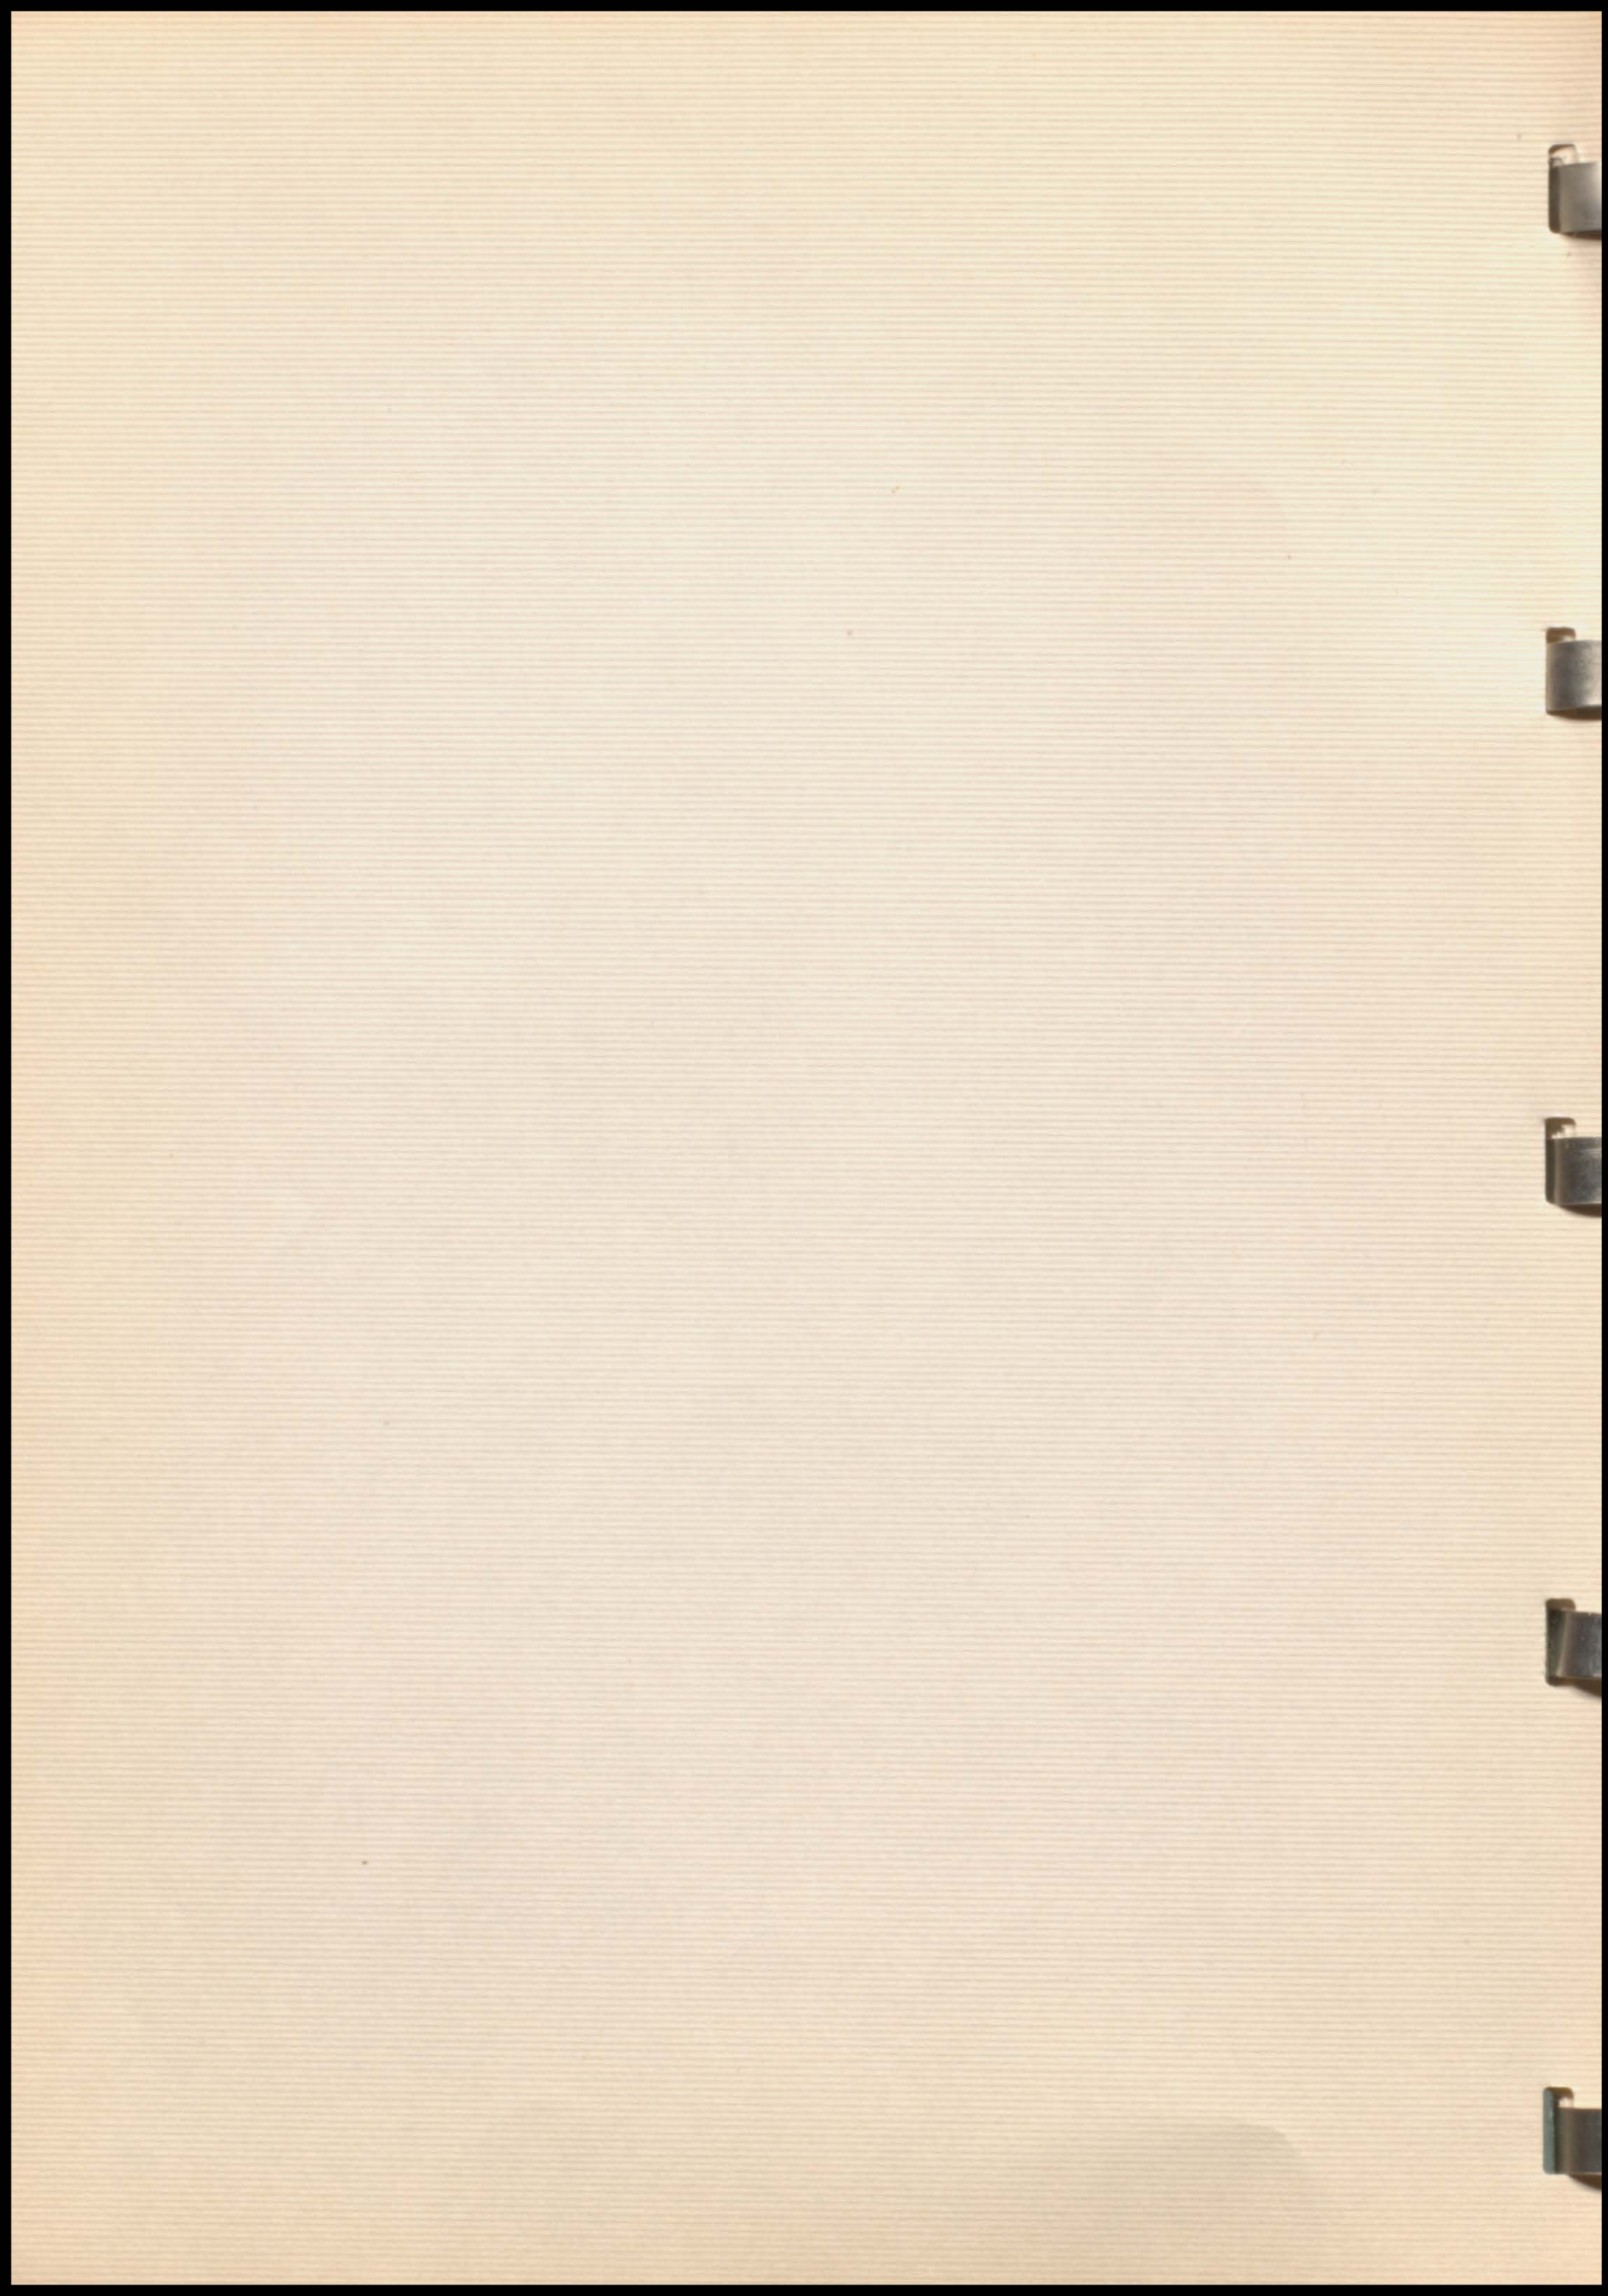

In the tenth battle, Miss Geith took the rank of general and led us through the first half of our battle, but we lost her and she was replaced by Mr. Schafer. Officers in charge were Tom Tilgner, Mary Ellen Sawyer, Don Petry and Wanda Janvrin. We had only one casualty as a result of this battle.

Our last reinforcements were received in the eleventh battle. During the conflict a soldier looked out from where we were entrenched and yelled, "It's a bomb!" NO--It was Otis! As the battle neared the end, Norman Houk "scooter" into camp with Gerald Erickson in the side car, to help us with the fight. General Snell again joined us with Don Petry, Ray Ney, Mary Peterson and Mary Sawyer to take command. In celebration of the winning of our eleventh battle, a "Prom" was sponsored by the rookies in the canteen with great success. Also as encouragement for the weary soldiers, the play "Lady Be Good" brought a huge crowd to the canteen door.

Tom Tilgner, Don Petry, Ray Ney, and Mary Peterson, under the command of General Richards, led us into our last battle. The battle was halted by a group of amateur actors and actresses who presented the play "Dora Dean" to the remaining fatigued soldiers and members of the War Department. As a reward for services rendered during twelve years of active duty, we were granted a furlough of one day. (Skip Day). In honor of our past victories, the rookies sponsored a banquet and prom. A short time later, we were presented with our honorable discharge papers.

Now we have finished our war, a long siege of twelve years. Our War Department is satisfied with the campaign we have carried on, and, as the troops disband and go their separate ways, we feel that we actually have won.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1950, while feeling fit as a fiddle and ready for anything, do hereby devise and bequeath the following:

TO THE FACULTY, we leave our deep appreciation and thanks for your wonderful patience and never-failing helpfulness.

TO THE FRESHMEN, any overlooked cuds of gum we may have left adhering to the underside of desks, banisters, assembly seats, or any likely or unlikely places. We have sometimes had to rid ourselves of these in too much haste to be able to pick and choose the most desirable means of disposal.

TO THE SOPHOMORES, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

TO THE JUNIORS, the hope that you can do as well in being leaders of H. H. S. as we have.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS TO HEREINSTATED PERSONS:

Bill Beck wills his ability to hide behind a magazine to Gerald Timmer with the hopes that Gerald won't get lost in the pages.

Don McPherson wills his position at the bakery to anyone who can cook.

Larry Popken wills his jeep to Mr. Tomjack, who doesn't think his Cadillac will last much longer.

Bob Otis wills 100 pounds of his weight and 4 inches of his height to Wilbur Heuer in the hopes of making a new man out of him.

Tom Tilgner leaves his left-over corn to Roger Dimmick. May he make good use of it on his F. F. A. project.

Melvin Hitzemann wills his fast and speedy ways to Daryl Noble.

Bill Schwiesow will--will receive a diploma, it says here.

Shirley Vander Feen wills her quiet ways to Doris Heldt in the hopes that she can make good use of them.

Neva Ervin wills her dimples to Jasper. "Come on, smile fella."

Owen Berg wills anything he's got to anyone who will take it.

Dona Swanson leaves-----well, she just leaves.

Joan Hartman wills her job of doing Mr. Berkemeir's tests to Lila Loe. "Don't cheat now."

Anita Ykema wills her pleasing personality to Patsy Gamble.

Helen Steinfadt wills her swing and sway to Lu Anne Scott. Good luck Lu Anne.

Carol Abbey wills her diet chart to Pat Rush.

George Rehder wills his ability to draw "sighs" from the opposite sex to all under-privileged males.

Gerald Erickson wills his height to Russ Brandsma.

Lloyd Batchelder wills his "station wagon" to Topper Norberg. Be sure to see that the cheerleaders get to all the games.

Mary Peterson wills her "basement supply" to Keith Burkhart.

Dolores Hook wills her baby-sitting job to anyone who has the technique of getting along with babies, young ones, that is.

Mary Sawyer wills all her pickle estate in Ronan's basement to Janet Carsten.

JoAnn Smith wills her ability to get along with Mr. Richards to Eileen Swanson.

Ray "RED"Ney wills his "easy-going temper" to Charles Keehn.

Irene Ronan wills her ability to dazzle both farmers and hammerheads to Norma Patrick.

Don Petry wills the wallop that he packed into the Homecoming Kiss to anyone who has the opportunity of using it next year.

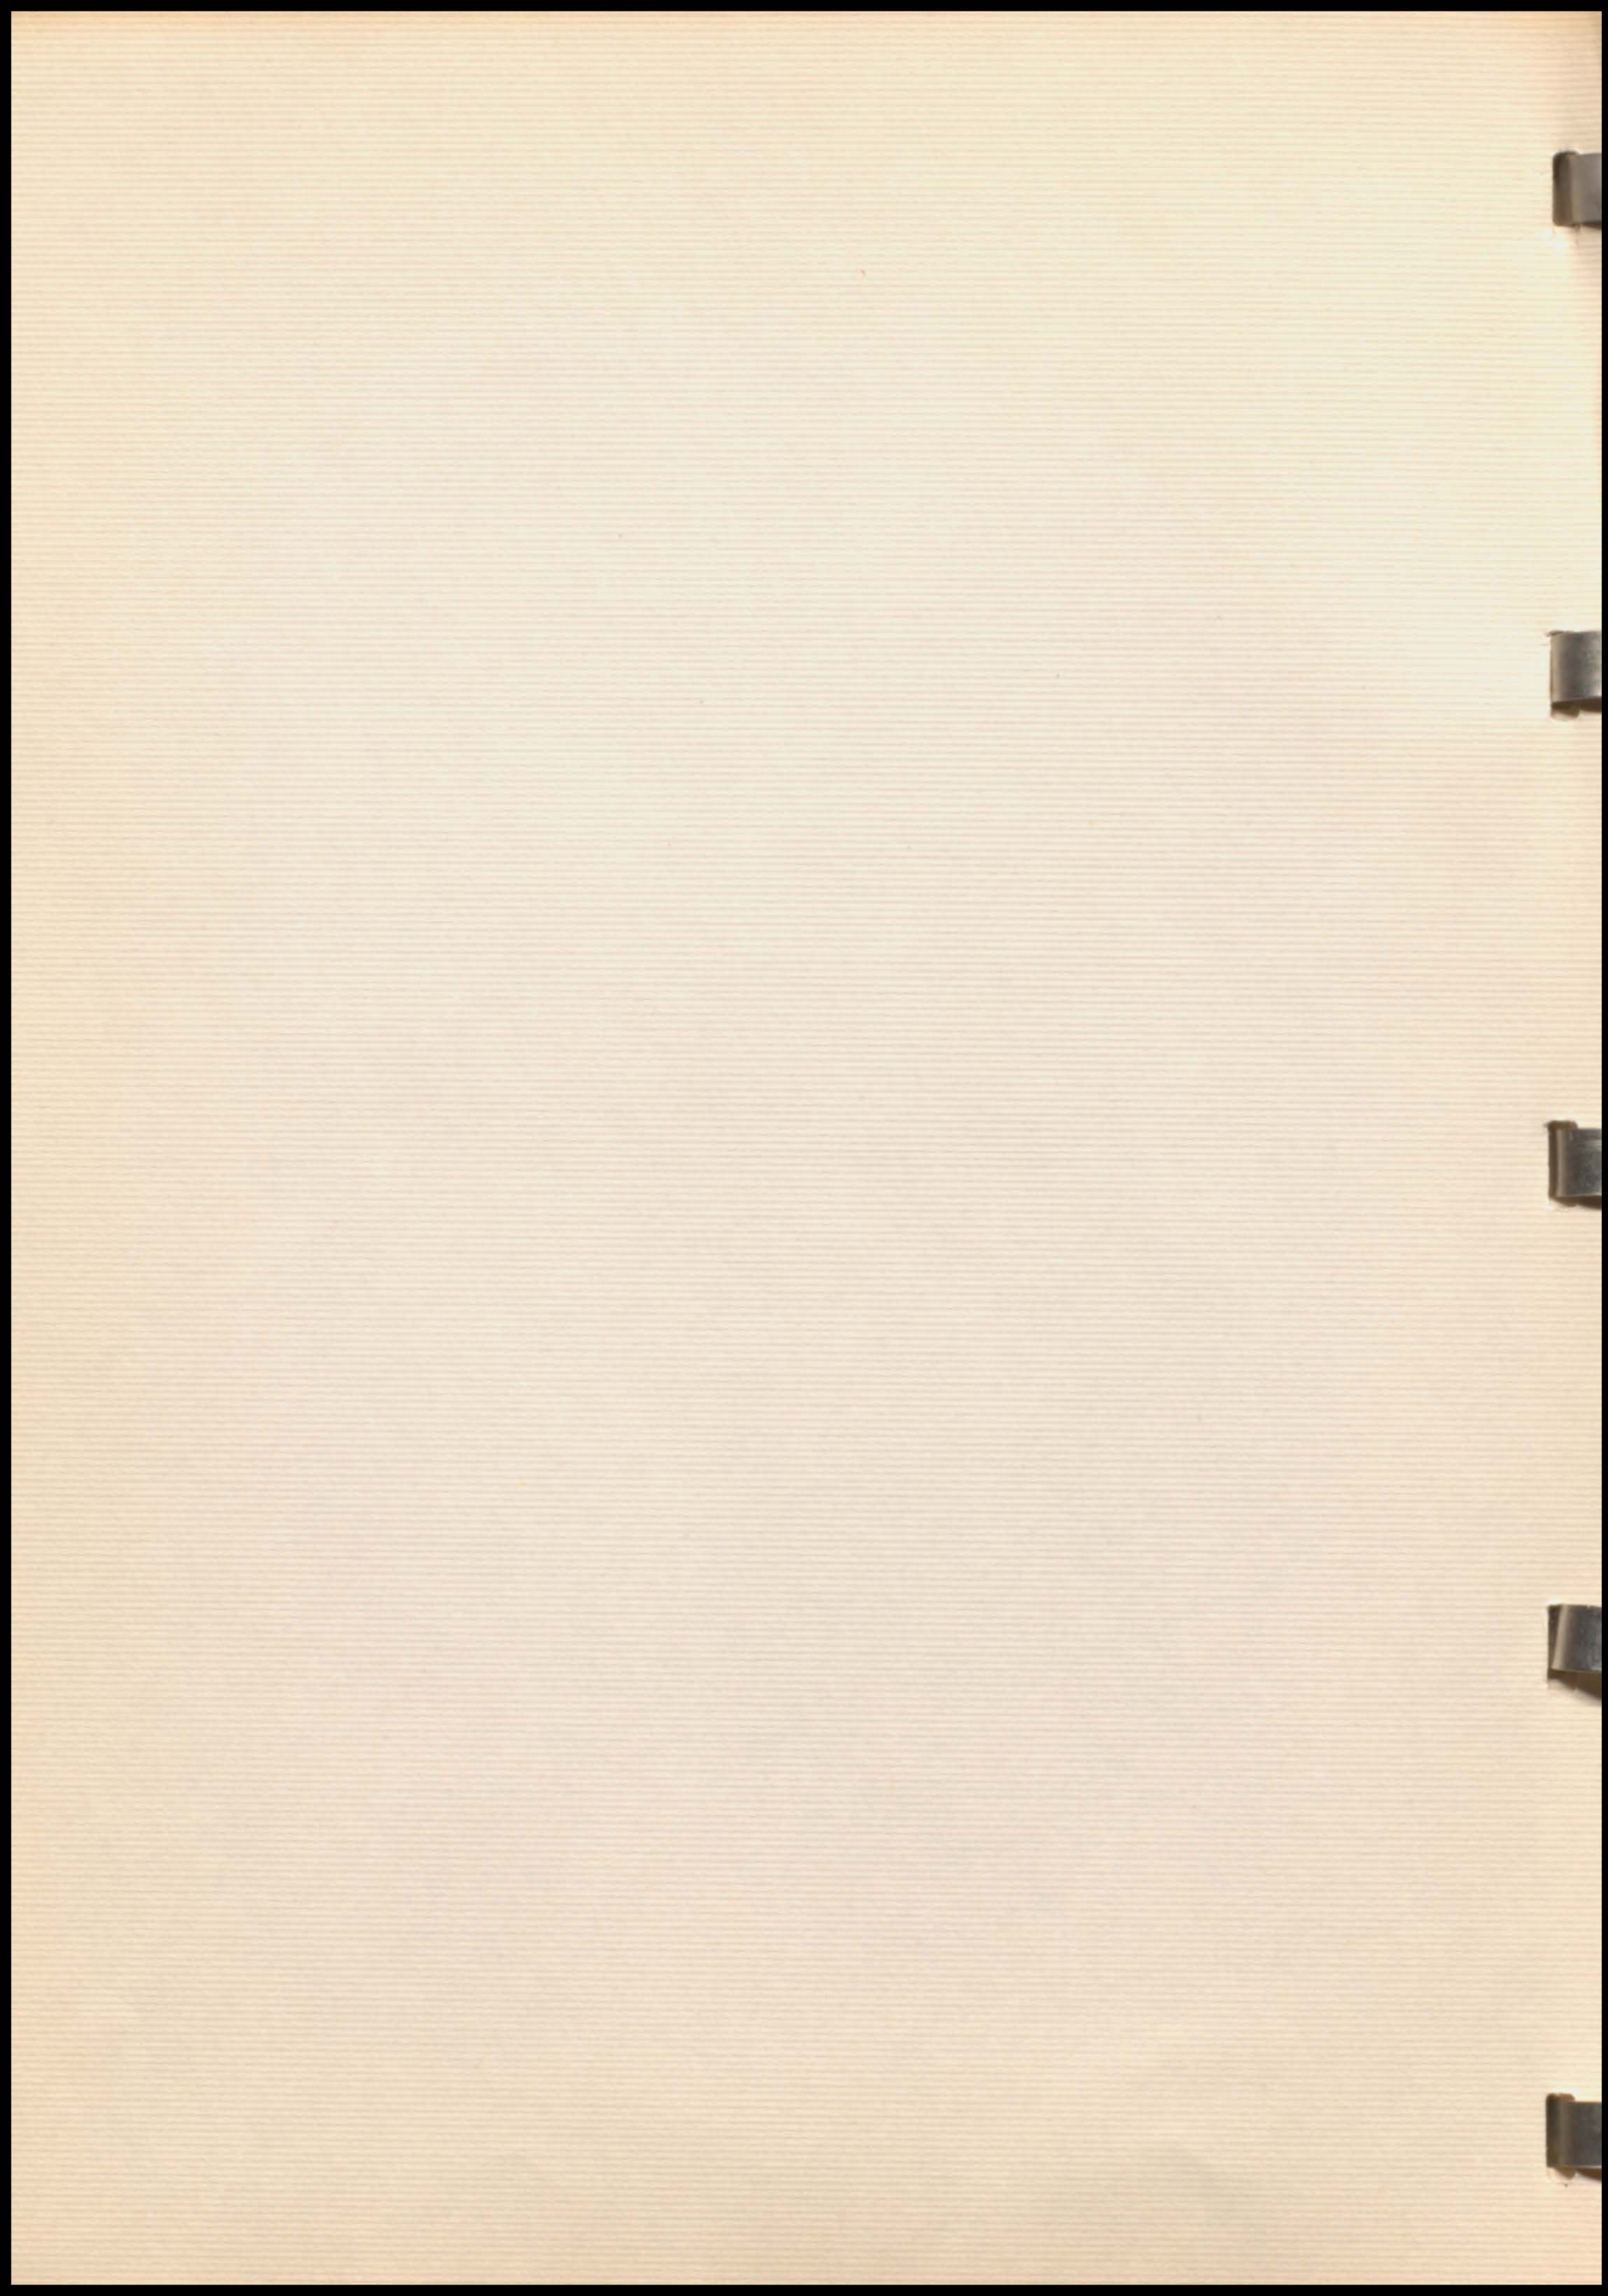

Charles Gaul wills his way with the girls to Gerald Jahde.

Rita Dreier wills her position as Mr. Richard's secretary to anyone who can meet the qualifications.

Norman Houk wills his ability to stick to one girl to Mick Kelley.

Pat Kratochvil wills her quiet voice to Garlan Schoenrock.

Richard Kempema wills his ability to get along with Mr. Berkemeir to Tony Ney.
Dick Swift wills his mischief to Jimmy Howard.
Clarence Vogelzang wills his technique with girls to Bob Ahmann.
Mary Krusen wills her calm disposition to Betty, her sister.
Gwen Wegner wills the Plymouth to her little sister. "I won't need it any more."
Wanda Janvrin wills her good-natured laugh to Gerrit Schouten.
Lois Gaul wills her bookkeeping ability to anyone who feels they might need it.
Dorothy Hand wills her position as president of the Lonely Hearts Club to Joyce Newman.
Dolores Haines wills her driving ability to Anna De Haas.
Darlene Peterson wills her "fuschia tint" to Orville Rehder.
Louis Holtrop, Jr. wills his school life to Lee Gilberg. "I'm going back to the farm."

FORWARD

The Senior Class presents the 1950 Comet to you, our high school companions, in the hope that the year of 1949-1950 may linger in your memories.

In later years may our contribution remind you of the hosts of friends and the pleasant times which these years in H. H. S. have given you.

In Testimony Whereof, We have subscribed our name to this, our last Will and Testament, at Hawarden High School, this first day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty.

The Senior Class

By the said Senior Class in our presence, as and for their last Will and Testament, at their request and in our presence, and in the presence of each other, we have hereunto subscribed our names as at-testing witnesses thereto.

C. W. Richards

Amity

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

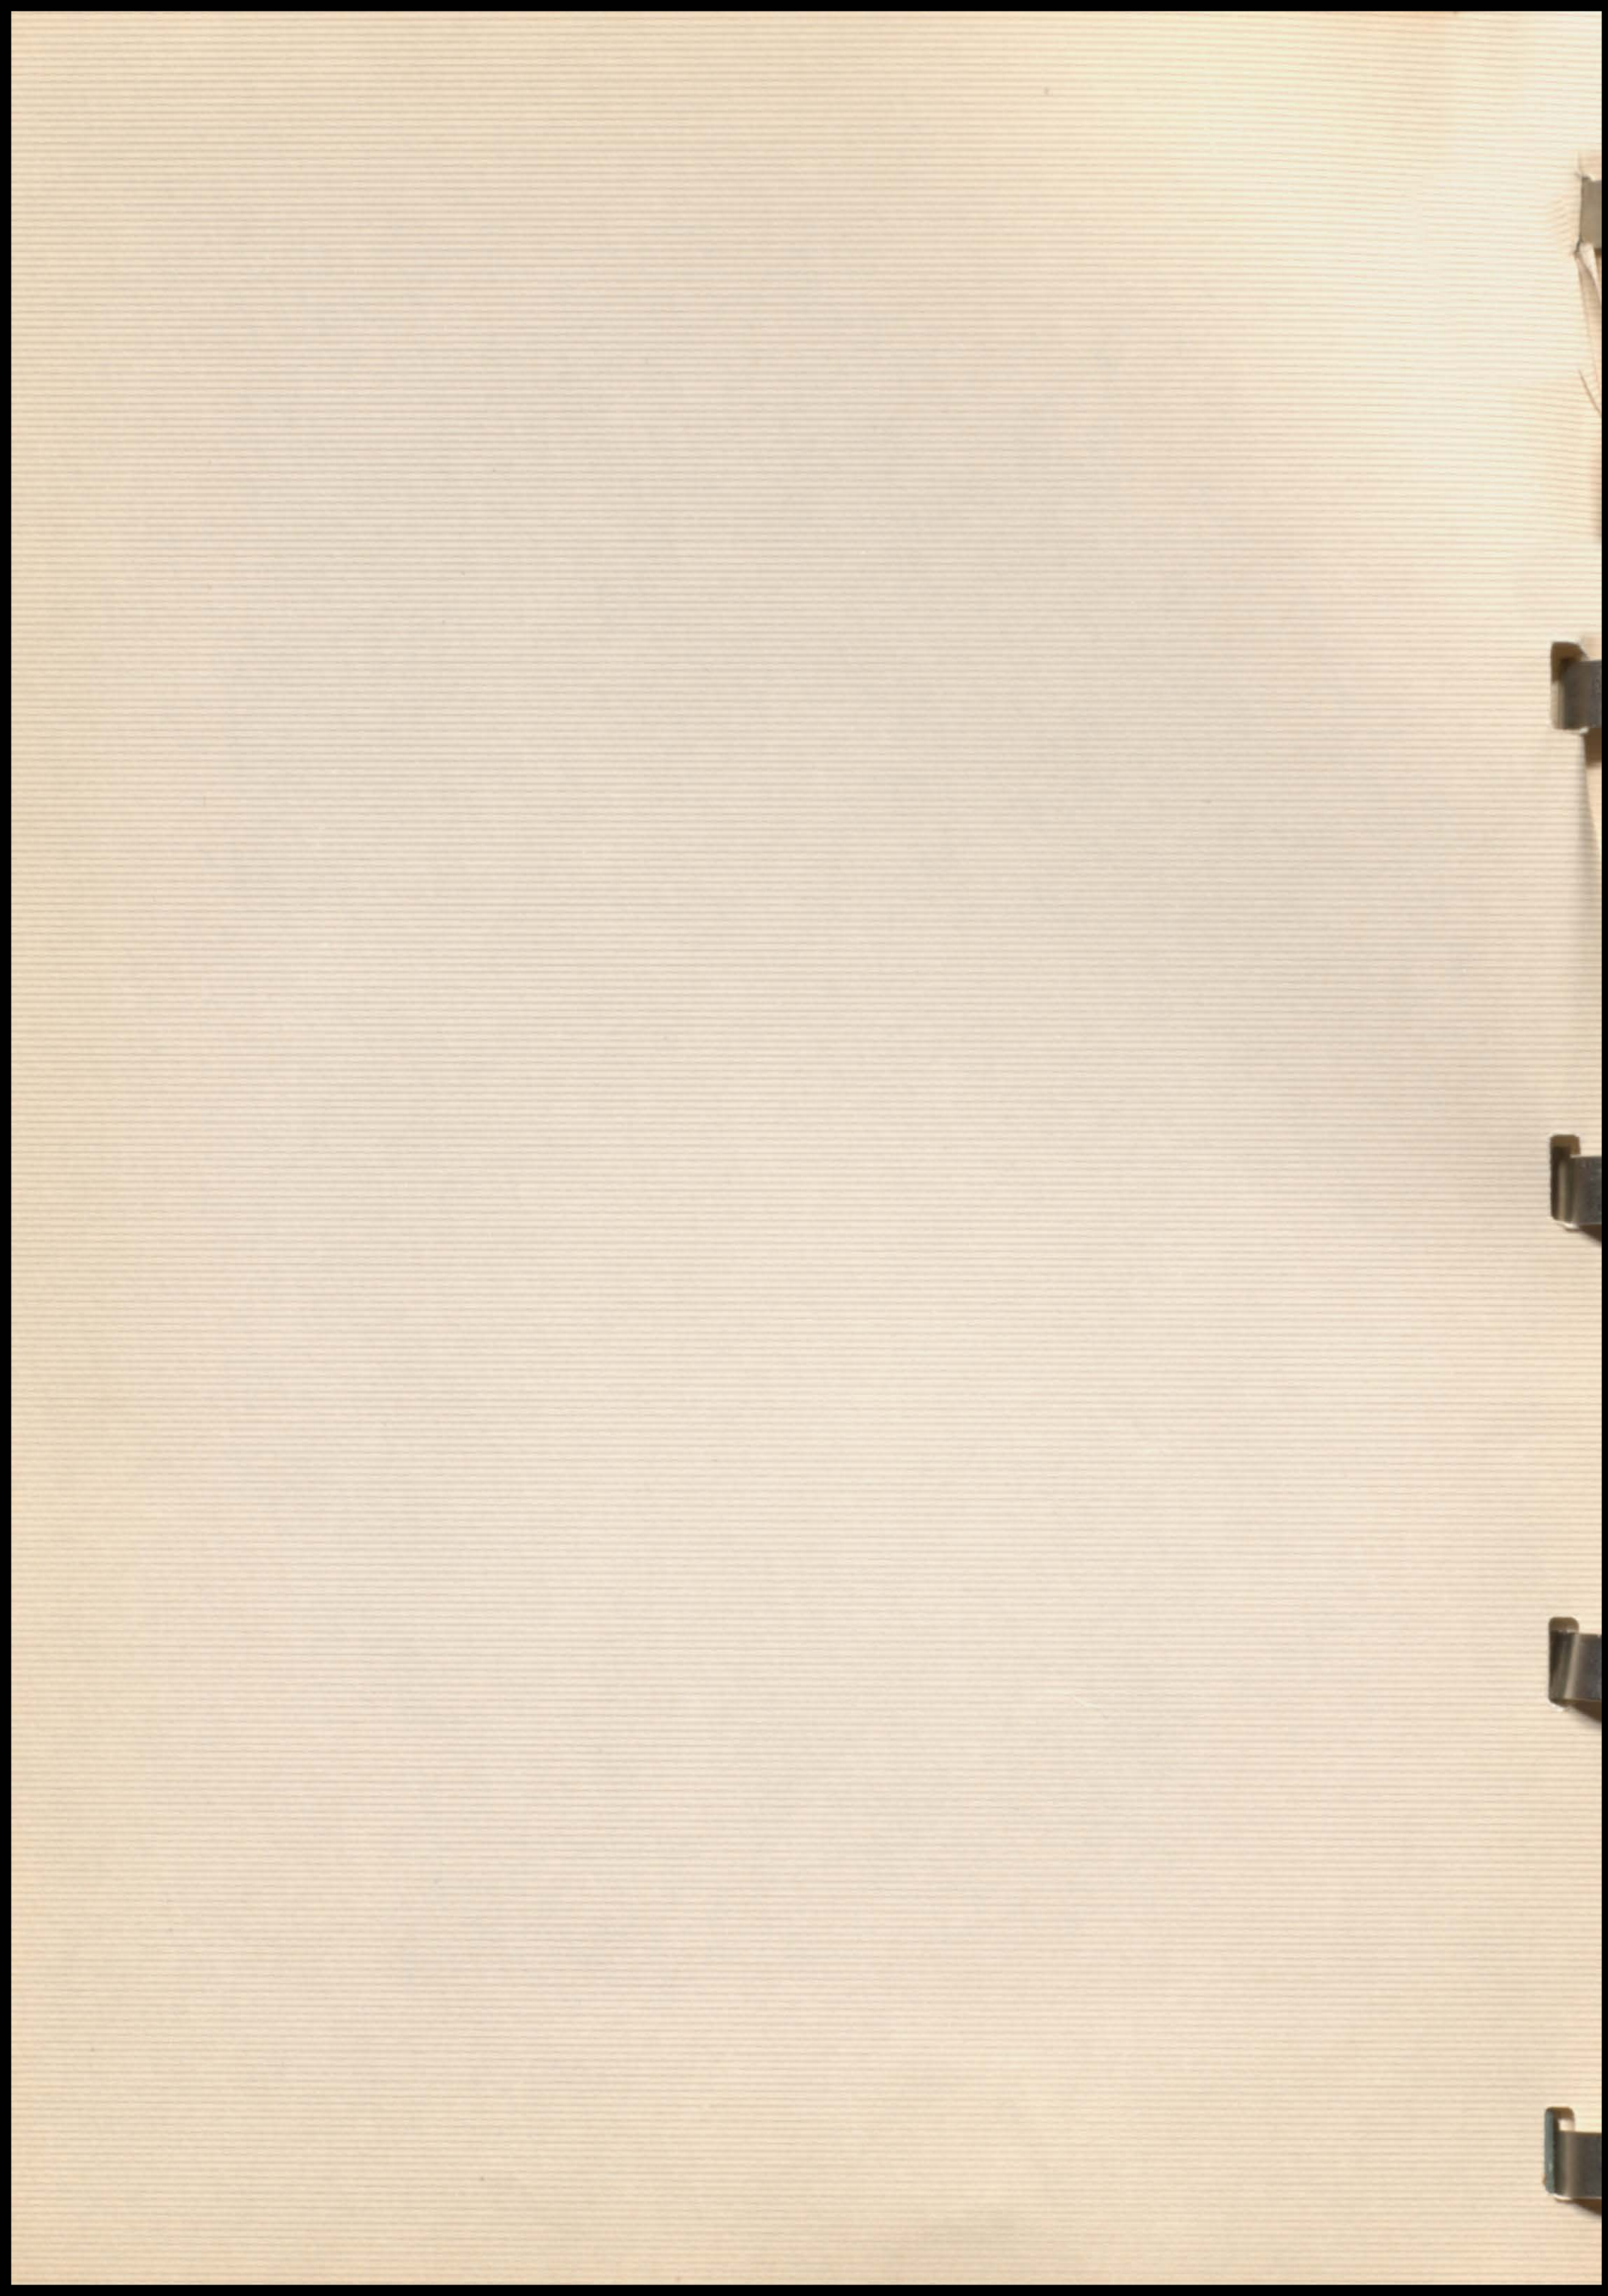

"Dora Dean", a modern Cinderella story, filled with heart warming situations, and colorful characters, was presented by the Senior Class on April 4. The orphaned and homeless Dora, played by Jo Ann Smith, comes to live with Dora's Aunt Sarah, Mary Peterson. Dolores Haines and Irene Ronan, in the roles of Sarah's daughters, Alice and Eugenia, make a drudge of Dora and contrive to cheat her out of money sent her by wealthy Uncle Nat from India. Dora's smiling and uncomplaining disposition endears her to everyone, especially to all the neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, played by Ray Ney and Rita Dreier, and Mrs. Louise Elliot, Howard's sister, Lois Gaul. The servants, Mrs. Leah, housekeeper at the Hastings' House and Bridget, servant at Locust Grove were played by Joan Hartman and Mary Krusen. In the roles of Joey, the handyman and Stephen Gray, admirers of Dora were Charles Gaul and Tom Tilgner. After the death of Ella Hastings, the crafty Eugenia lays plans to capture the wealthy widower, Howard for her husband. After the lapse of several years, it is to the grown-up Dora Dean that he returns. Eventually, Uncle Nat, played by George Rehder, returns from India, and the dishonesty of Sarah and Eugenia is brought to light. The play was produced under the competent direction of Mrs. Muller. Gwen Wegner was student director.

At last we are Juniors! It was a hard struggle, but here we are with only one more year to go.

We began our career as freshmen in August of 1947, sixty-seven in all. Since that time we have dwindled to fifty-one in number; however, our enthusiasm is still strong.

In our sophomore year, the highlight of the year was a series of roller-skating parties at Canton which were a lot of fun.

As juniors, we began preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. We sold popcorn at the football games and gave a class play entitled "Doctor's Orders" both of which netted us a tidy sum of money. We also sponsored the "Spinster's Spree", an all school party at which time the most "eligible bachelor" was chosen.

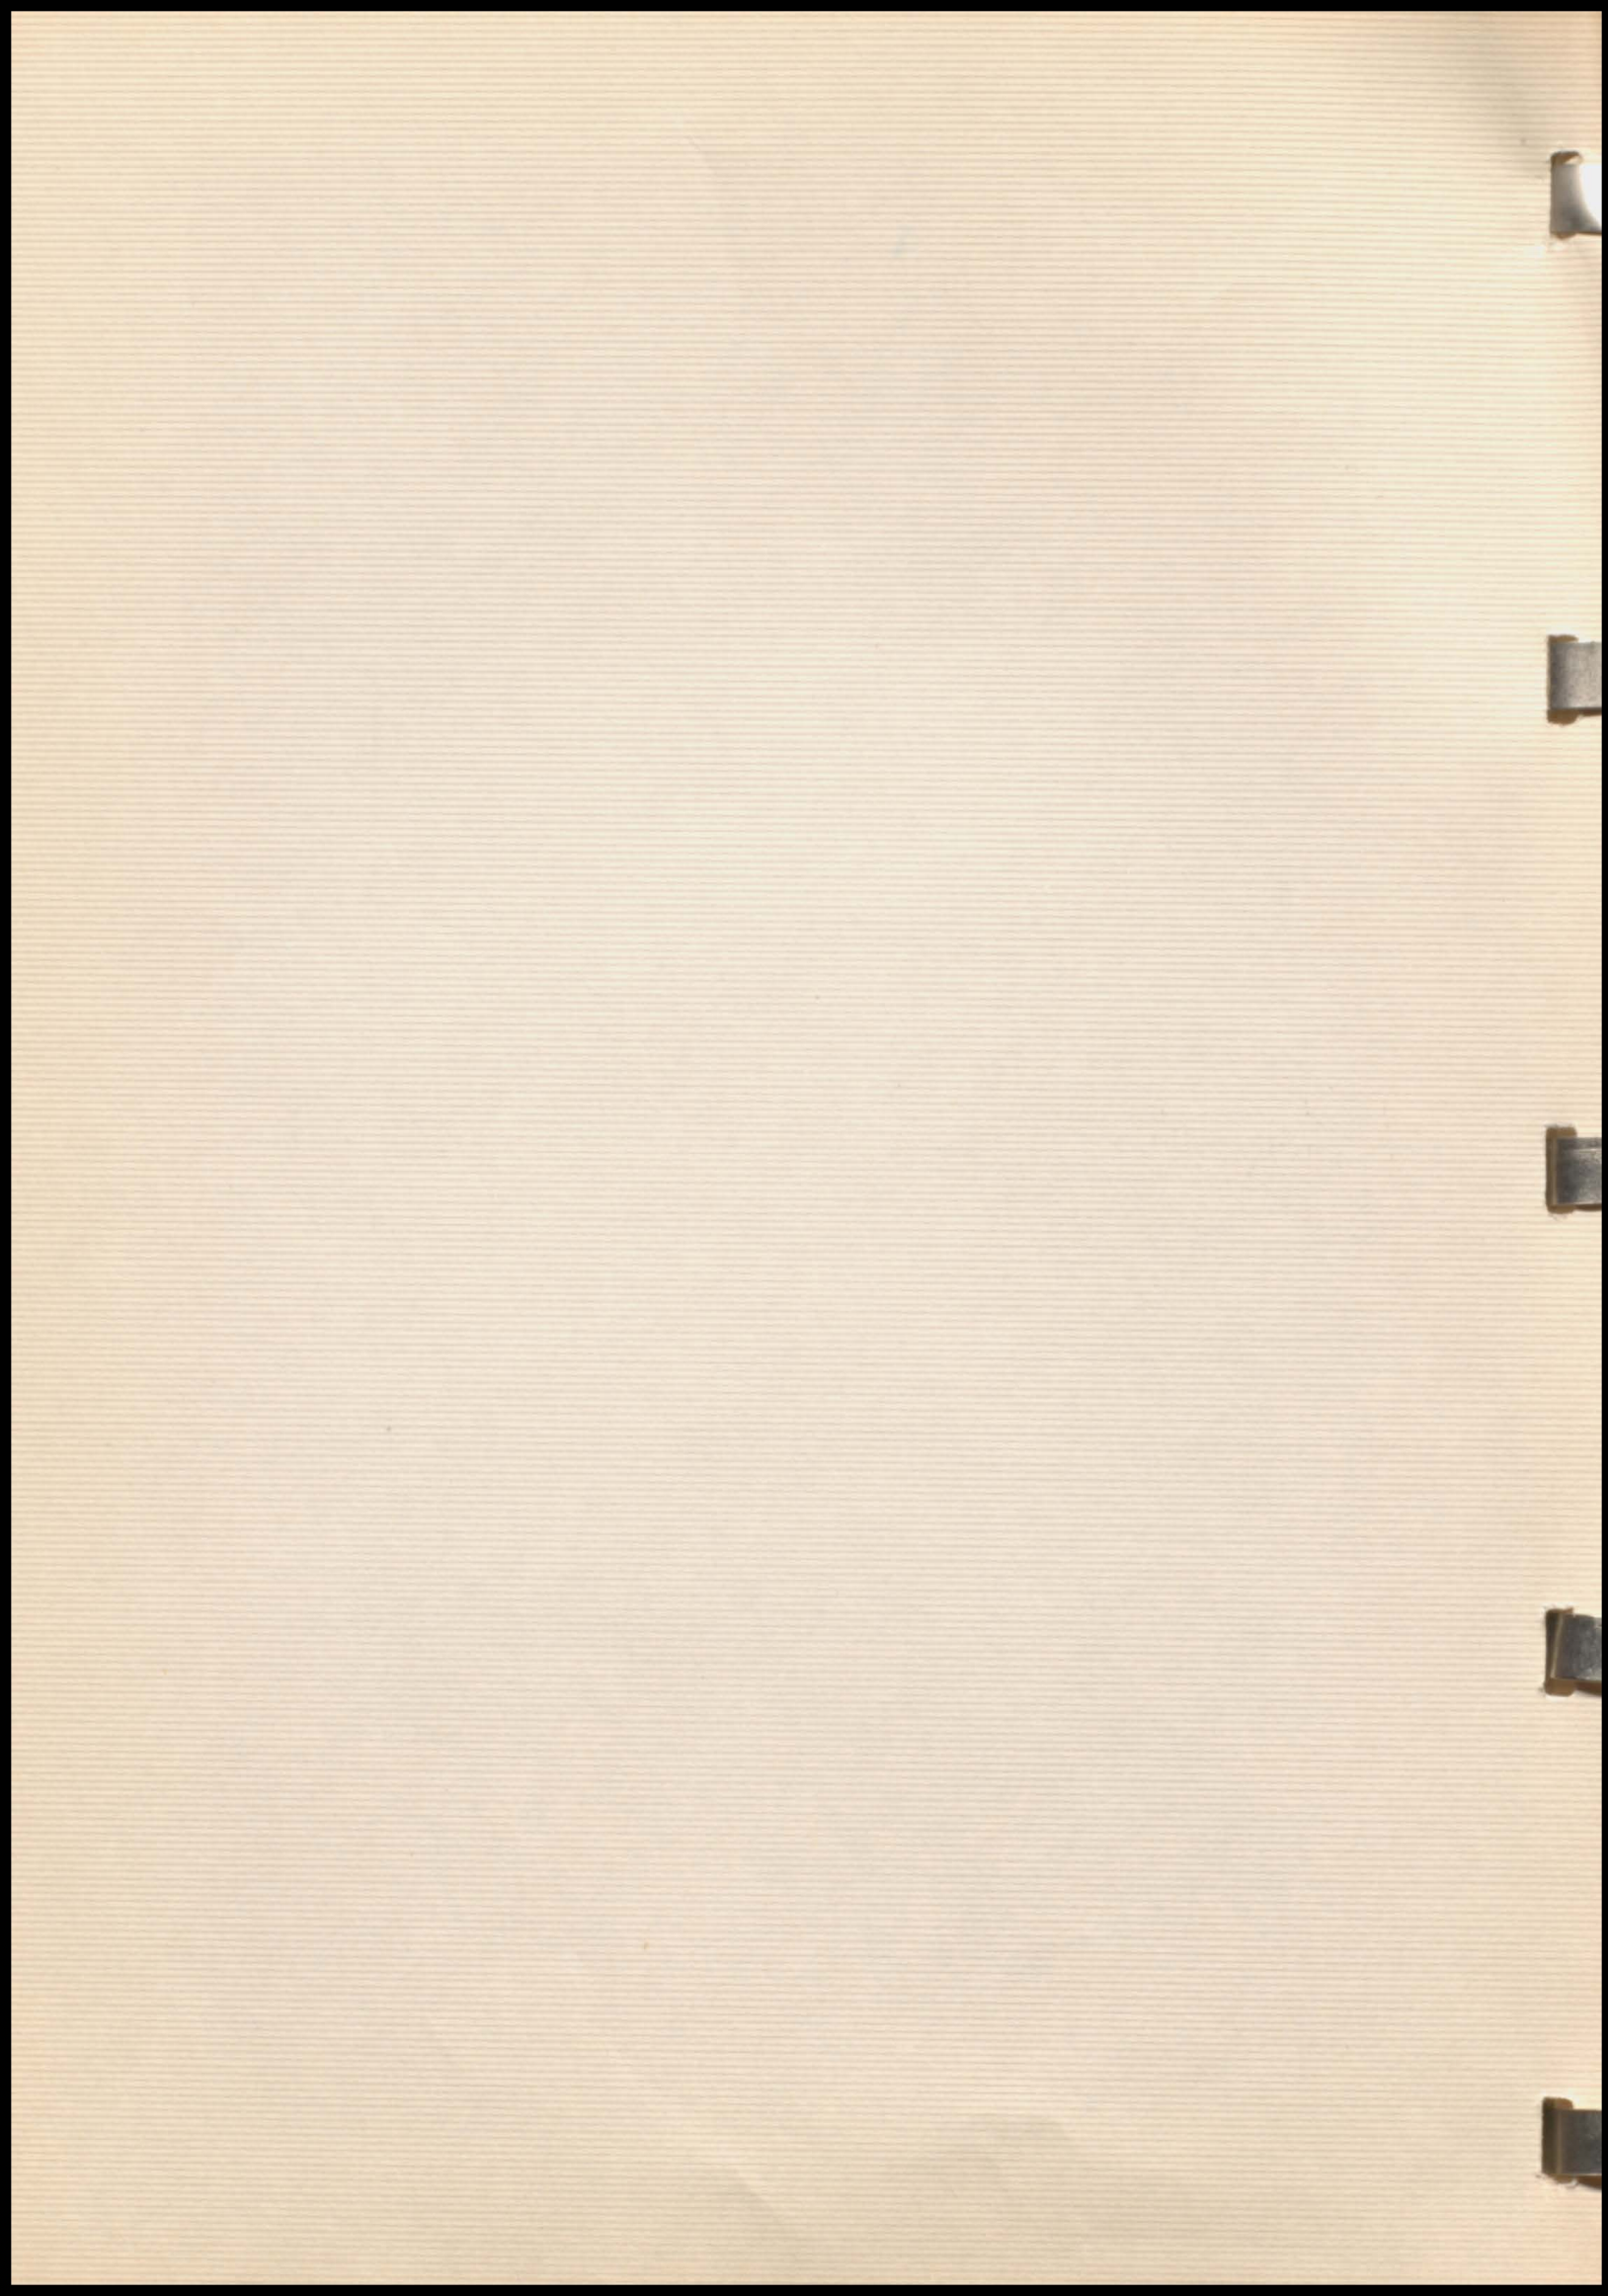

Scholastically, we have done well, and, in addition, we have been active in music, library, and sports. Individual members have earned letters or gained recognition bringing exceptional honor to our class.

As we approach the final year of high school, our hope is that we may continue to bring to H. H. S. the praise it deserves.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Doctor's Orders" a three-act comedy by Kurtz Gorden, under the direction of Mrs. Otto Muller and student director Marlene Witt, was presented in the high school auditorium on November 16, 1949 before the largest crowd ever to attend.

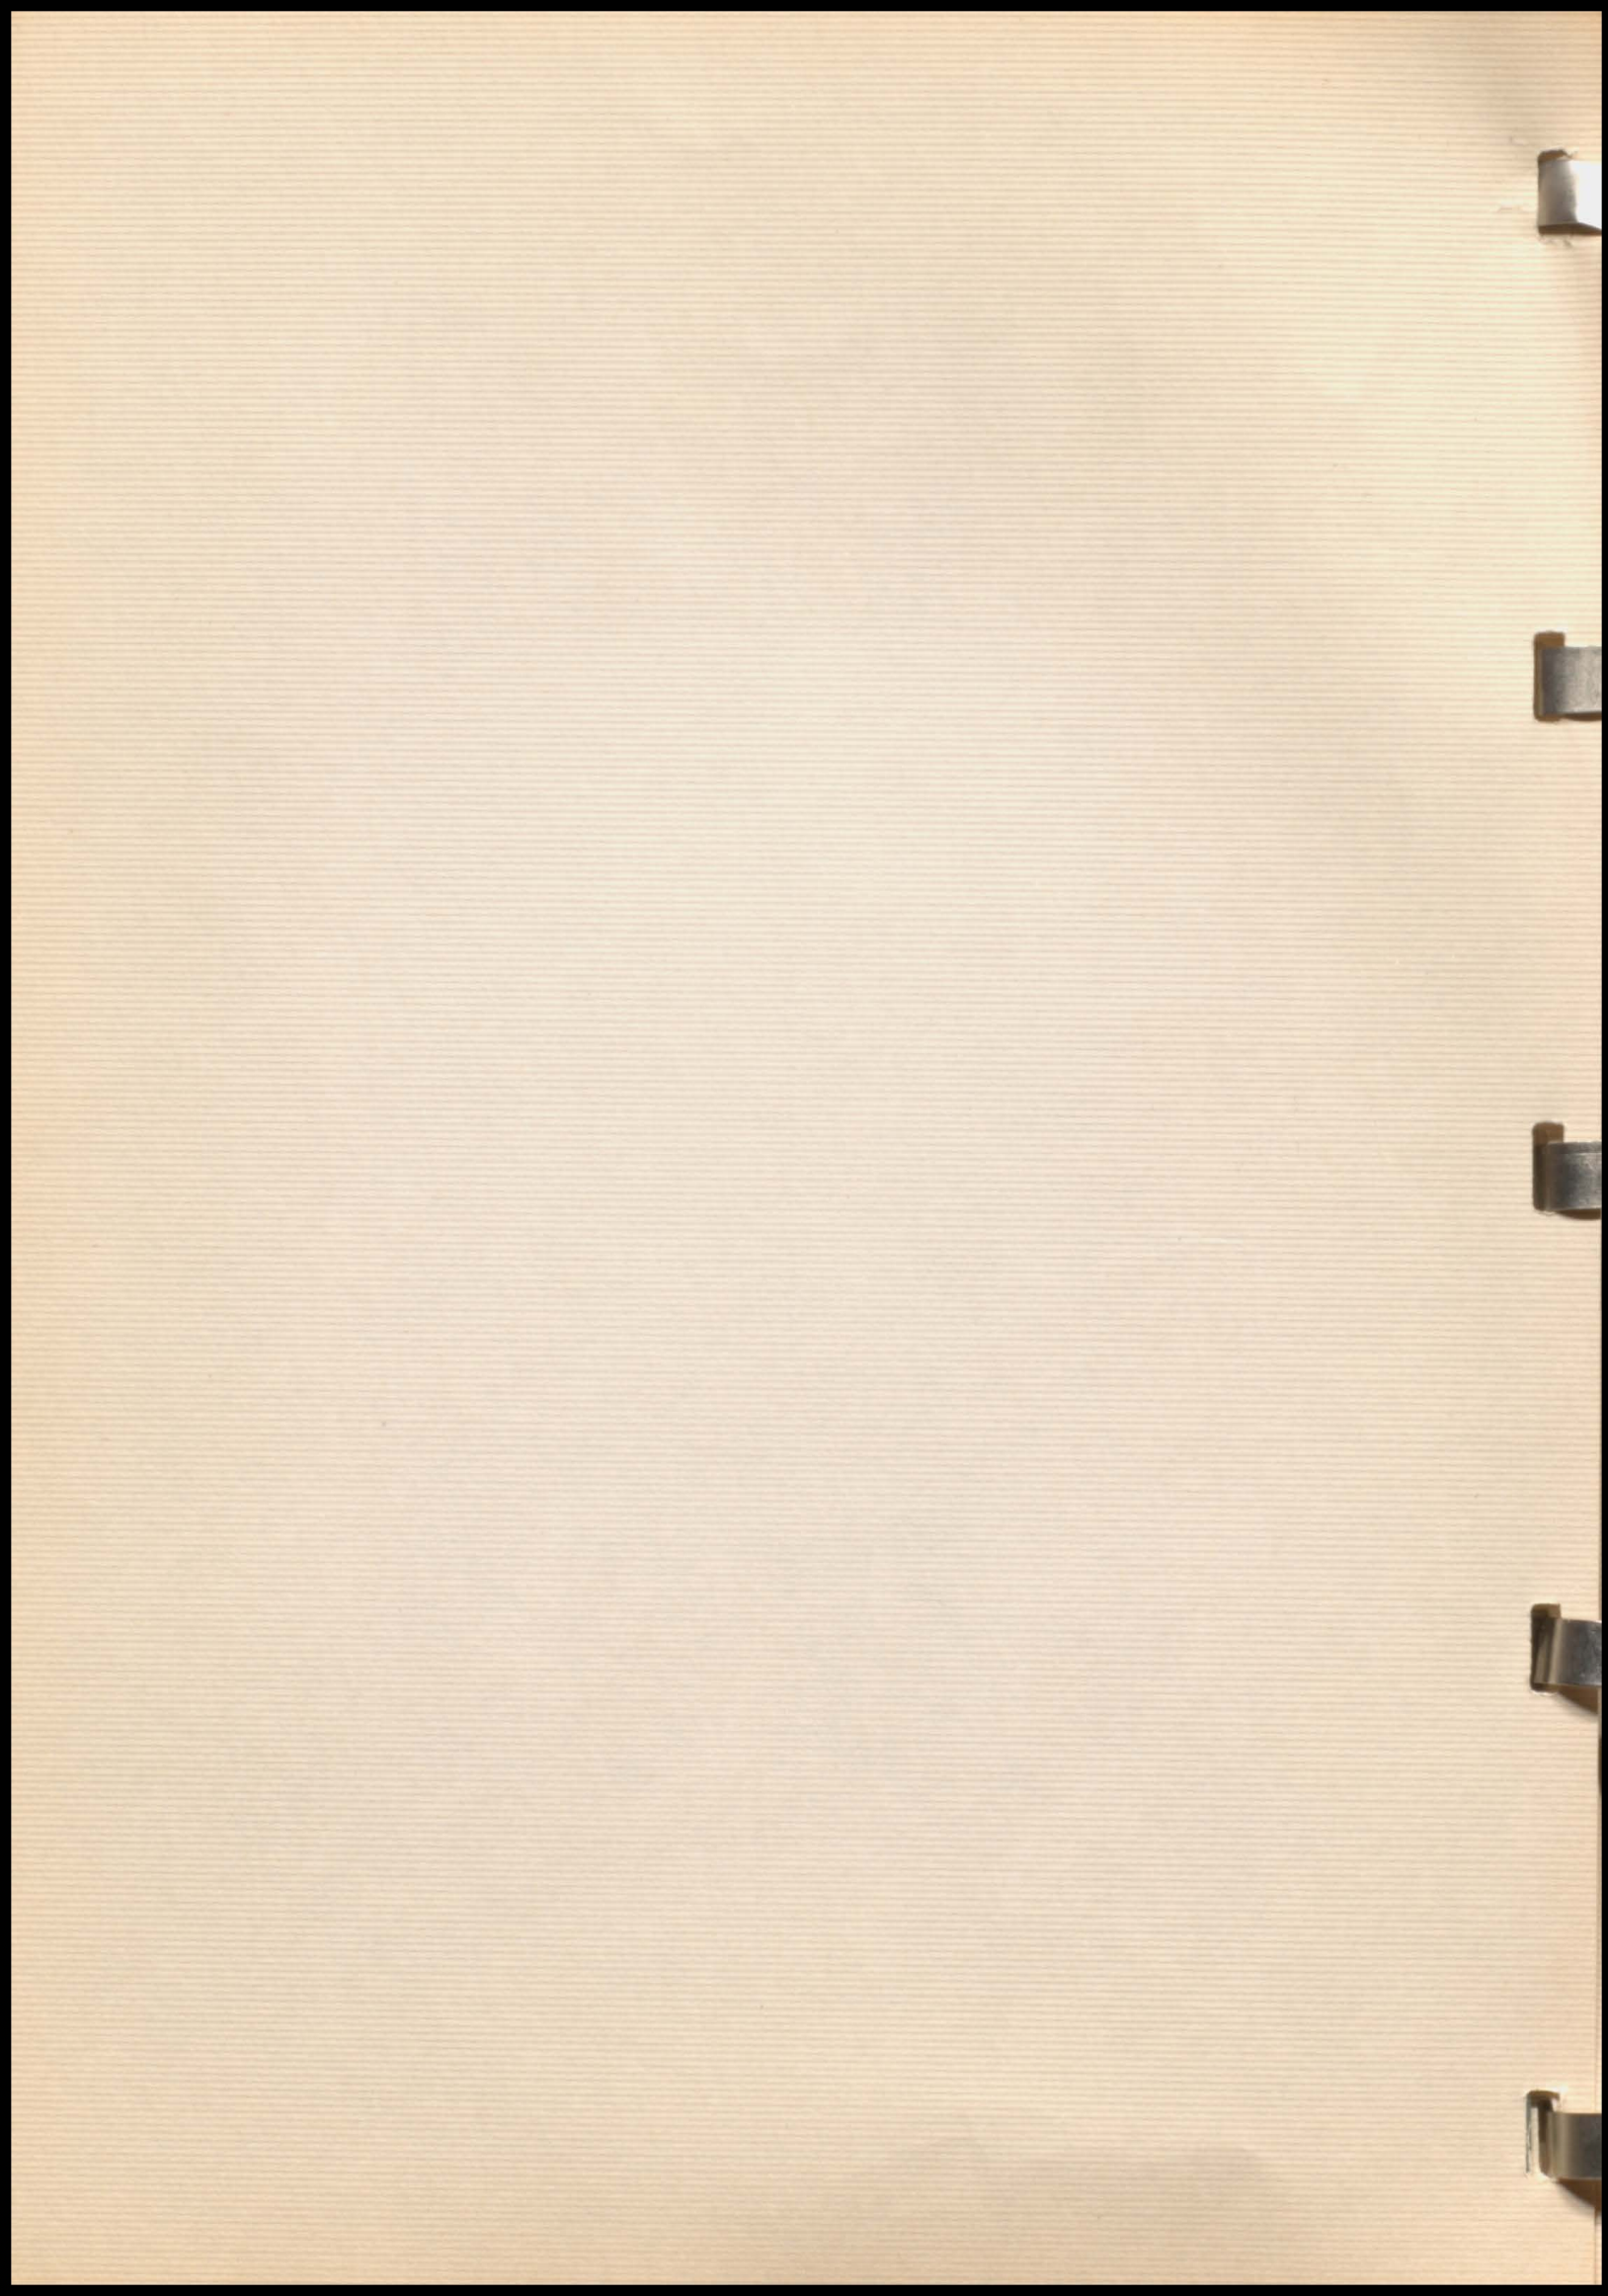

It was a well-known hit and contained many humorous scenes throughout the entire play.

Soon after school began last year a class meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Bette Waterman, President; Barlow Wohlenberg, Vice-President; Betty Newman, Secretary-Treasurer; and Orville Rehder, Student Council Representative.

The major event of the first year was a freshman mixer held under the sponsorship of Mrs. Muller for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with their fellow classmates.

The Sophomore class of '49 met with Mr. Cook, their sponsor, and elected the following officers: Barlow Wohlenberg, President; Charles Swanson, Vice President; Keith Burkhart, Secretary-Treasurer; and Adrian Kool, Student Council Representative.

The students have participated in various activities and the class as a whole has given a good account of itself.

Third Row: Charlene Yates, Charlene Schwiesow, Regina Newman, Dorothy Weyen, Vernon Kahl, Ralph Newman, Richard Whittington, Larry Swanson.

The fifty-three freshmen who began their high school career in August, 1949, started their school year by electing the following officers: President, Jim Burkhart; Vice-president, Donna Jacobe; Secretary-Treasurer, Darlene Strong; Student Council Representative, Sandra Schoeneman.

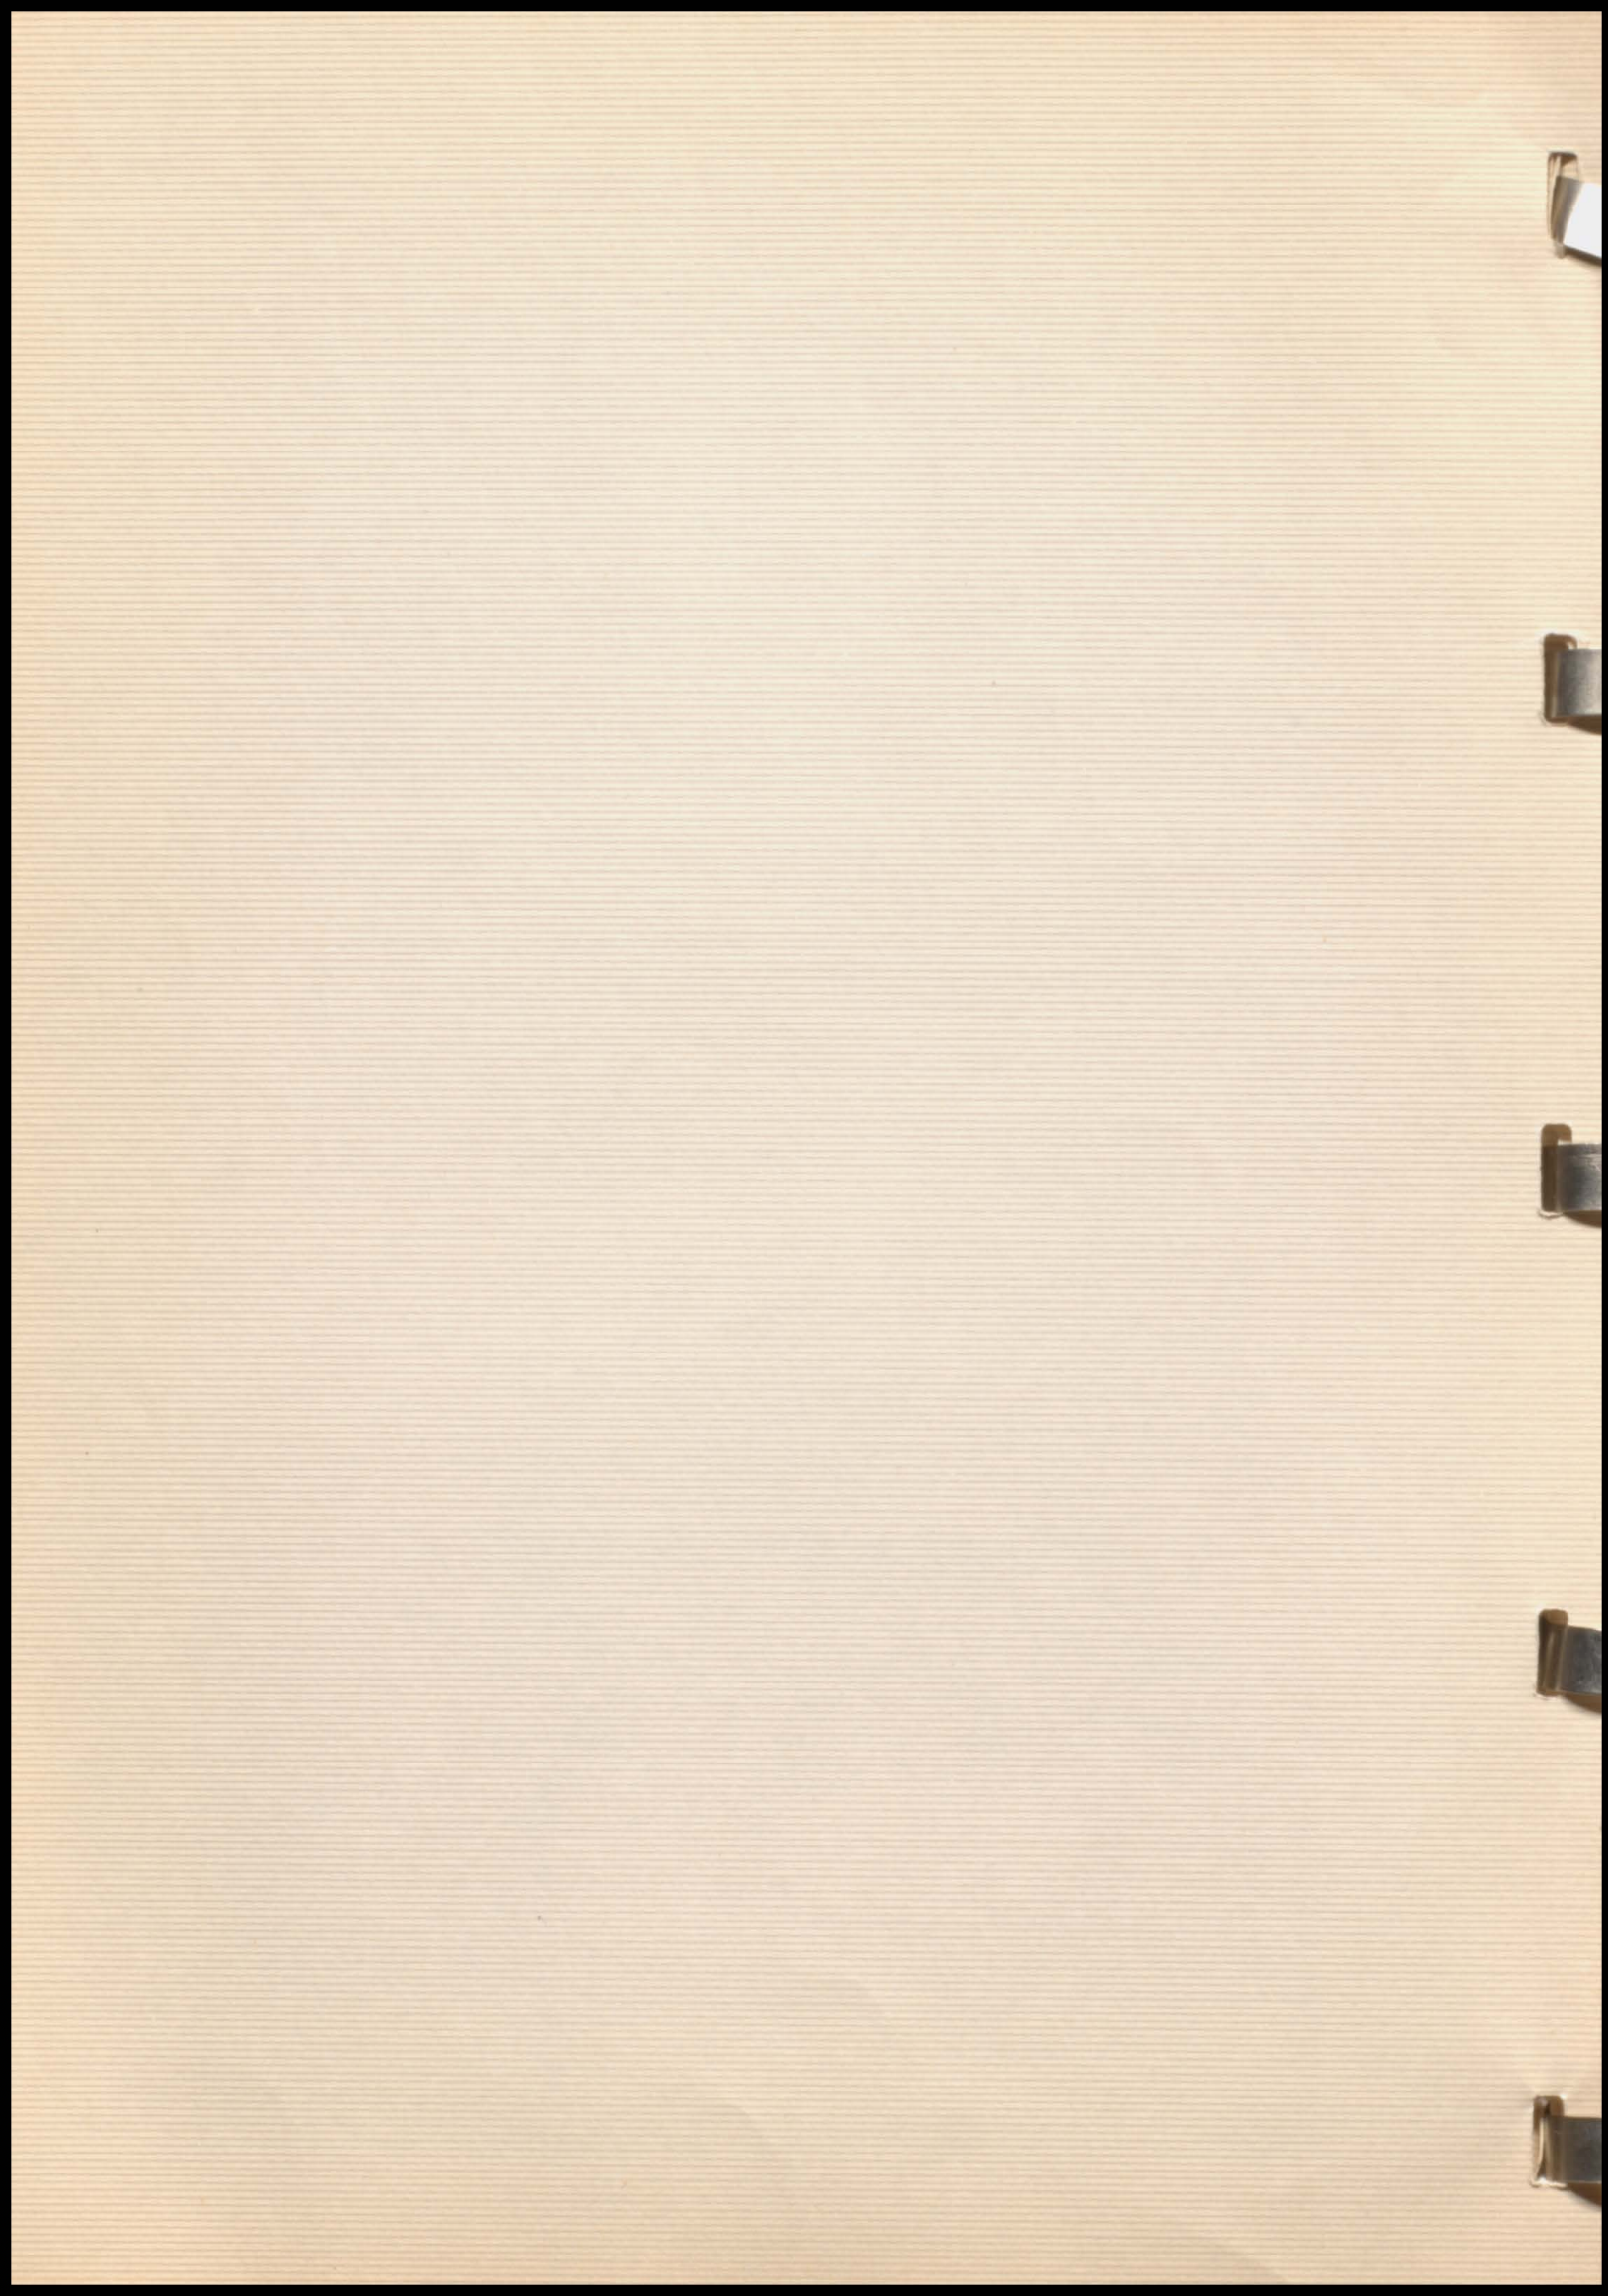

The Freshman Mixer, sponsored by Mrs. Muller was not only successful in itself, but tended to increase freshman attendance at the many other social functions.

Many members of the class have taken an active part in sports and musical activities. In addition, most of them have maintained a high scholastic record throughout the year, bringing recognition to Hawarden High School.

First Row: Nelvina De Voss, Beatrice Harkness, Geraldine Hill, Mary Jager, Winetta Hansen, Karen Cooper, Donna Jacobe. ## Review of 1949 Football Season

A surprised Worthington eleven met with a moral defeat as the Comets tied them, 12 to 12, in what proved to be the first bad mark against them since their defeat by us last year. The Comets, light and inexperienced due to last year's short season and the graduation of eleven lettermen, proved to have more ability than was expected against a highly touted Worthington team. Eldon Eilers scored on an intercepted pass early in the game but the score was tied by a sustained Trojan drive in the second period. In the third period Tom Tilgner scored on a line plunge to give the Comets a 12 to 6 advantage. A bad break gave Worthington its tying score in the fourth quarter and neither team was able to break the deadlock. For Coach Arnold Cook, the season's prospects looked bright.

These prospects were short-lived, however, as the Leeds Lancers overpowered the Blue and White in a smashing 44-0 defeat. The hard-hitting Lancers scored almost at will, while the Comets just couldn't get started. Most of the Comet yardage came through passes but we never seriously threatened the Lancer goal.

The following week found Hawarden and Hartley playing on even terms in every department except the score, with Hartley coming out on top with a 20-7 count. The only Comet score came in the third quarter on a pass from Tilgner to Beck, but other scoring chances were muffed through costly fumbles.

The Mapleton tilt saw the Blue and White gain their only victory. Early in the game the Comets made a seventy yard sustained march with George Rehder going over from the five. Another Hawarden score was called back on a holding penalty giving the Comets a slim 7-0 edge at halftime. The third period saw the Mapleton eleven convert a costly Comet fumble into a touchdown, tying up the game. The Blue and White came back late in the fourth period on a forty three yard gallop by Adrian Kool, breaking the 7-7 deadlock. The game ended with the Comets on top with a 14-7 count.

The injury-ridden Comet eleven, minus Venard and Petry, suffered a 33 to 6 pasting in the hands of the South Sioux powerhouse. Statistically, the Blue and White outdone the Cardinals 12 to 9, but long South Sioux runs erased this edge. Tilgner scored the only Comet touchdown on a one yard plunge near the end of the game. Marlin Schwiesow played an outstanding game on defense, possibly preventing Cardinal touchdowns.

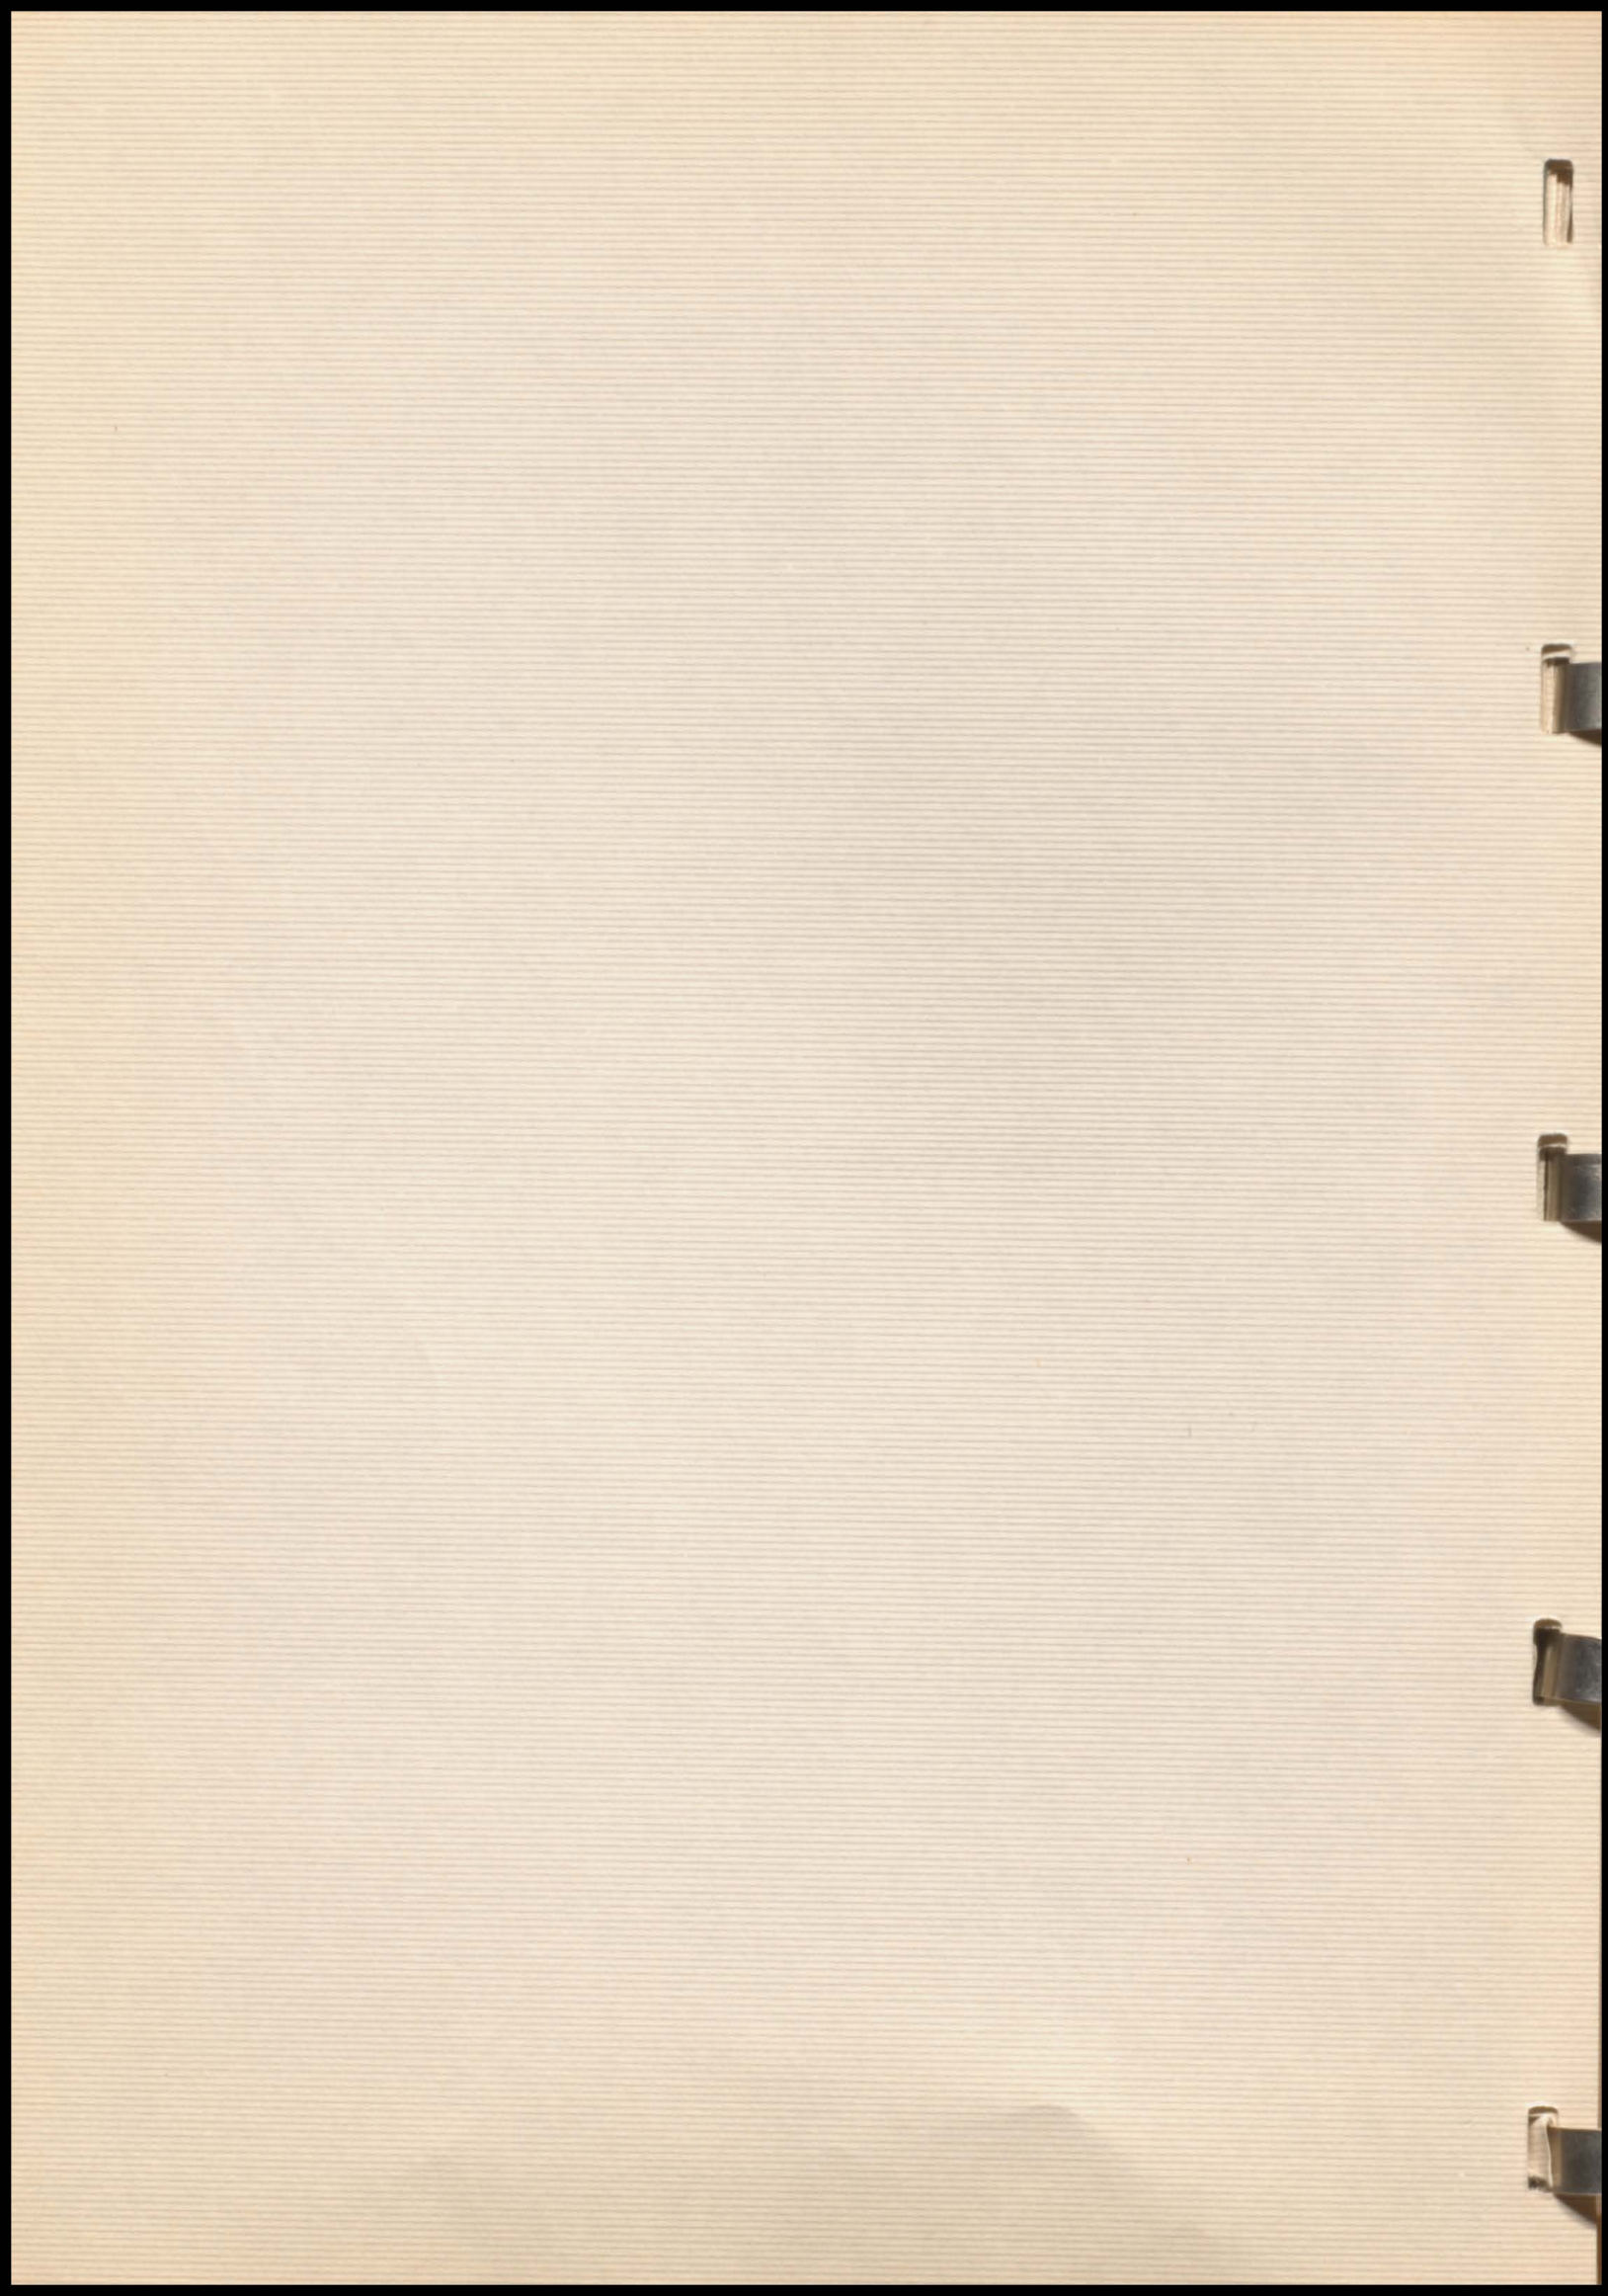

The fans at Vermillion saw the Comets put up a game battle before going down in defeat by a 32-13 count. The Comets were plagued by costly interceptions and fumbles which set up most of the Vermillion scores. The Blue and White hit pay dirt twice, on a lateral to George Rehder and a pass from Tilgner to Beck. Coach Cook thought the Comets looked better on both defense and offense.

The Homecoming tilt against Paulina saw the Comets take a heartbreaking 6-0 loss. The Blue and White outplayed Paulina in the first down and total yardage departments, but the visitors tightened up when we threatened their goal and the Comets just couldn't push the pigskin across, the half ending with Hawarden on Paulina's one foot line.

In the last game of the year, Rock Rapids defeated the Comets by an inglorious 30 to 0 score. The game was played without the services of the two regular ends, Kool and Beck who were both out with broken fingers suffered in the Paulina game.

Although suffering a losing season, the Comets were provided with a considerable amount of knowledge and experience which should result in a winning team in the near future.

DEBATE

The 1949-50 debate team under the direction of Robert Berkemier was composed of nine members: Janet Carsten, Shirley Robertson, Mary Ellen Sawyer, Jo Ann Smith, Irene Ronan, Charles Gaul, Ray Ney, Don Petry, and Tom Tilgner. The topic of debate for the year was Resolved: That the President of the United States should be Elected by the Direct Vote of the People.

The first tournament attended was held at Morningside College. The debate squad composed of Irene Ronan and Tom Tilgner, Affirmative, Jo Ann Smith and Mary Ellen Sawyer, Negative, won one out of six debates.

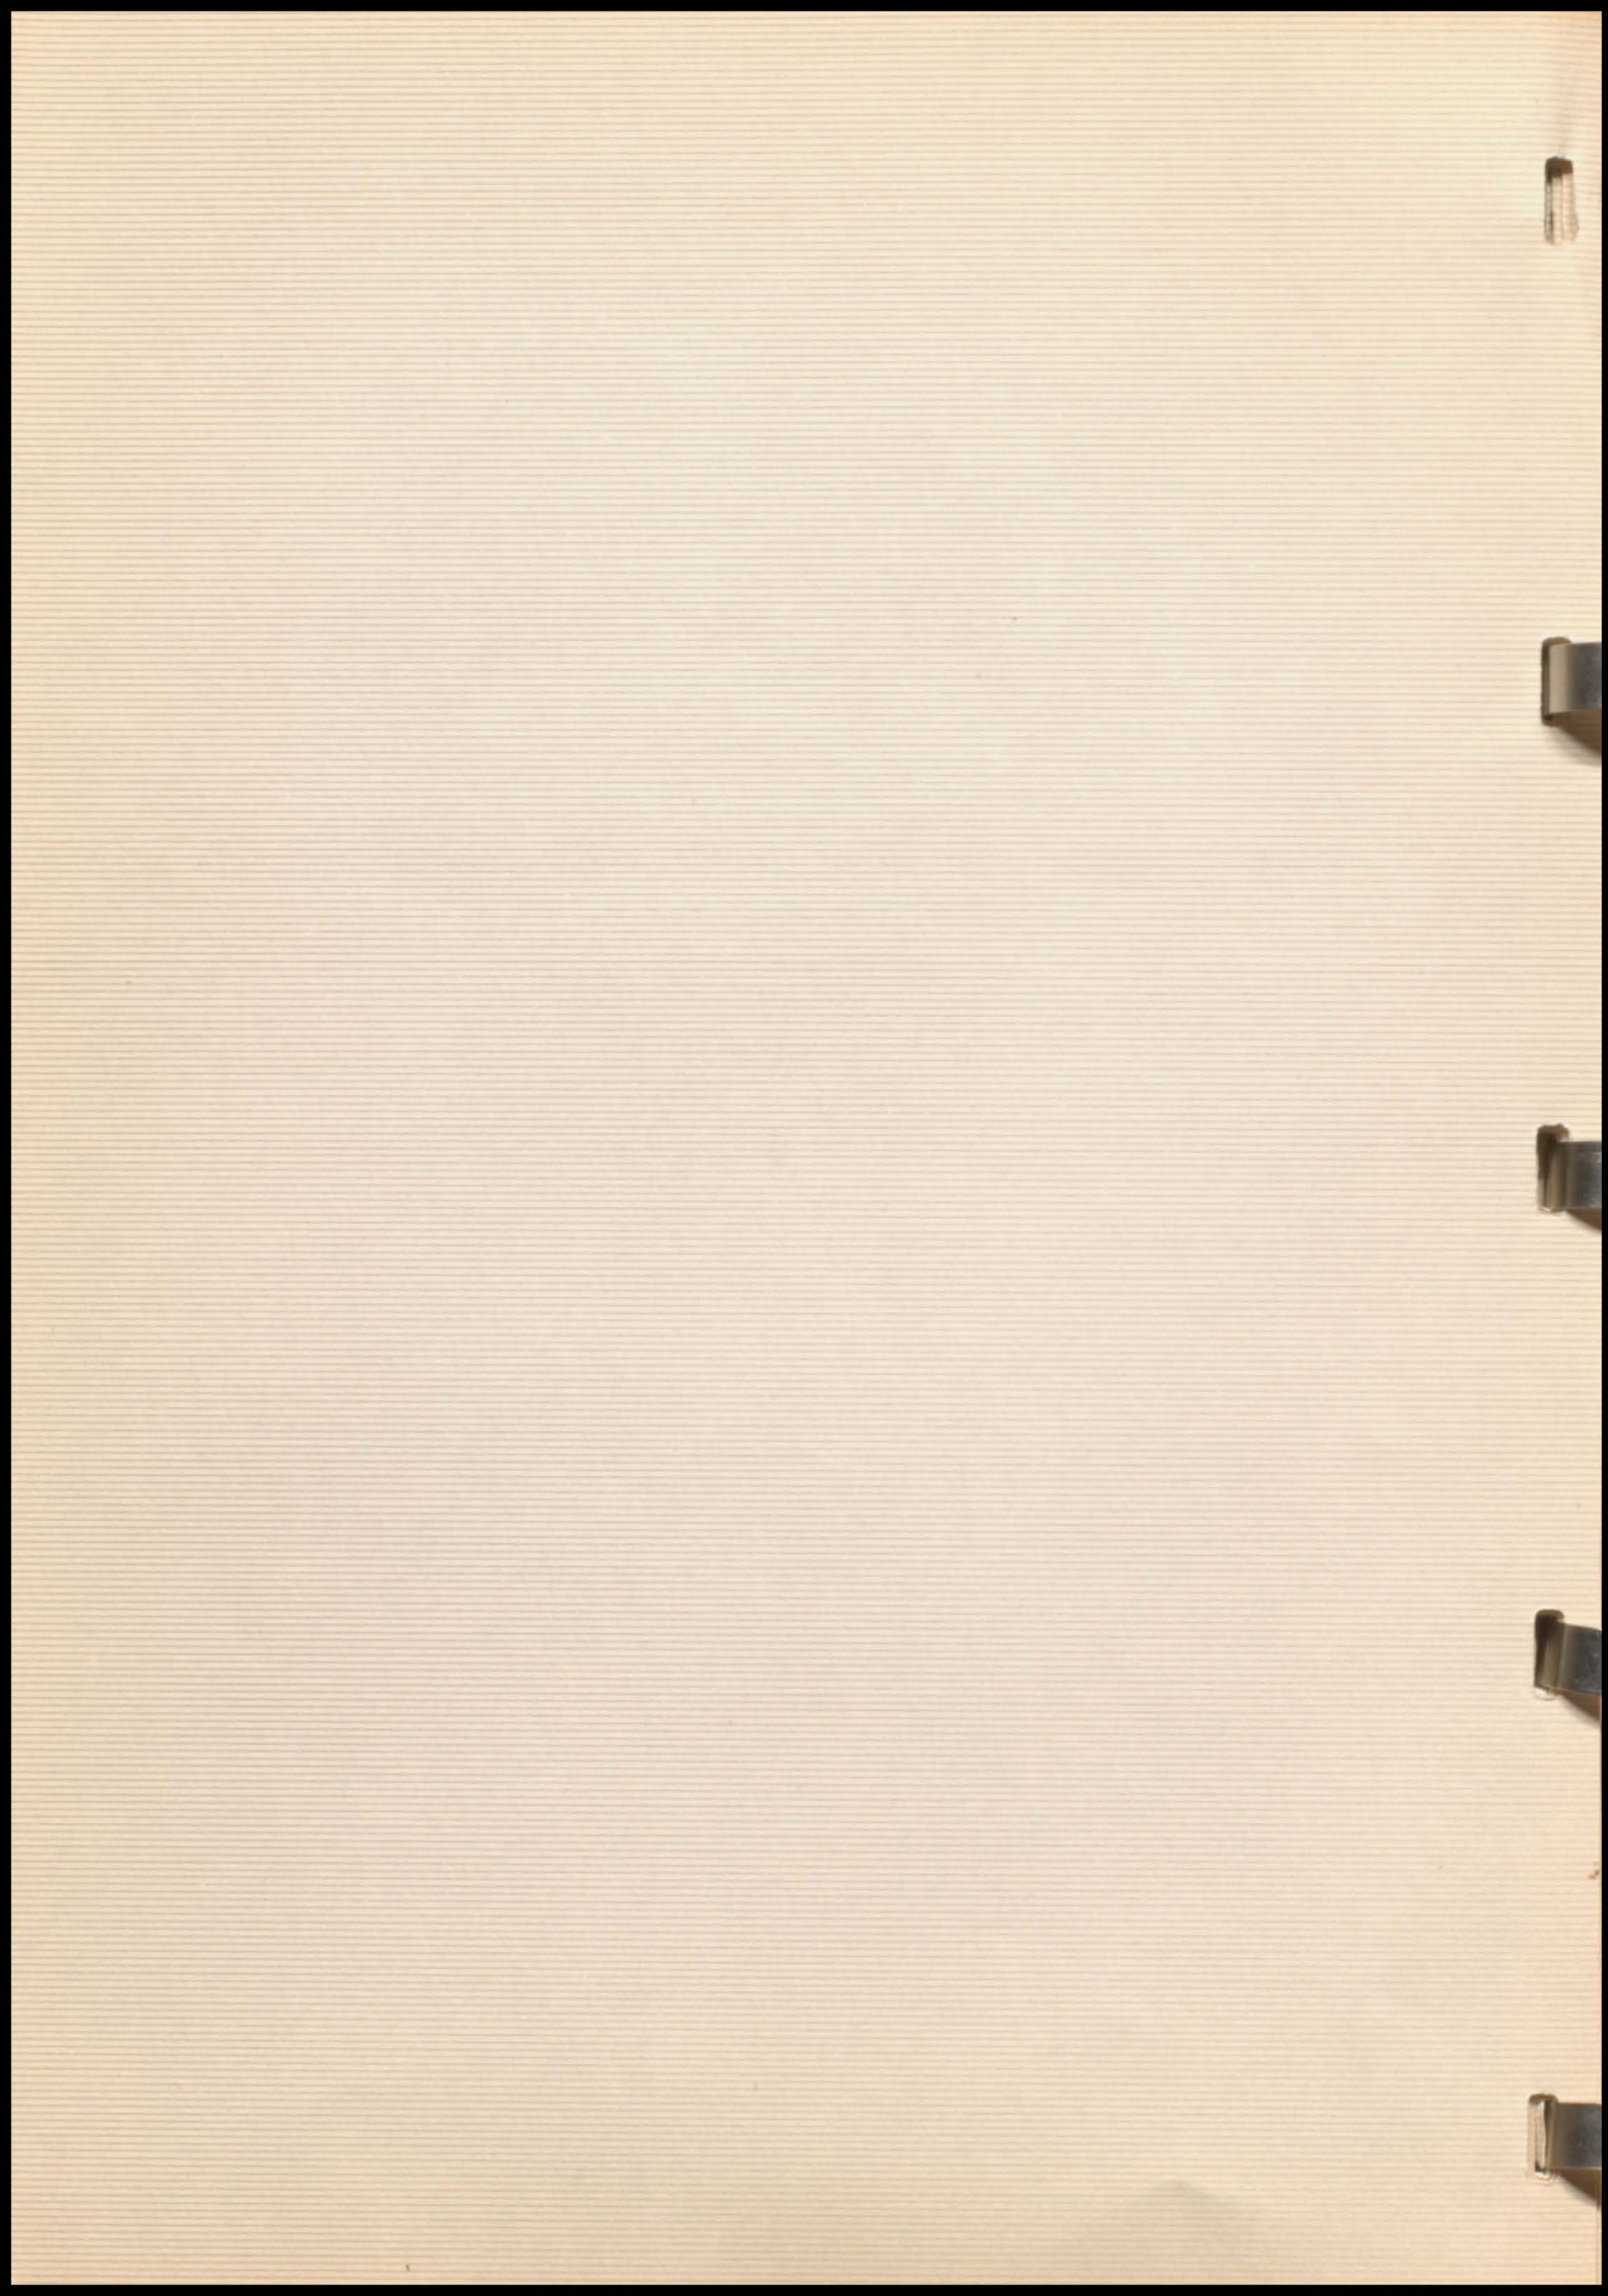

The team then traveled to Madison, South Dakota where Don Petry and Shirley Robertson, Affirmative, Charles Gaul and Janet Carsten, Negative, were entered in the inexperienced division. Here five out of eight debates were won.

The finest competition that Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa could offer was met at the Midwest Speech Tournament held in Sioux Falls. Being entirely outclassed the Hawarden High School debate team composed of Don Petry, Shirley Robertson, Irene Ronan, Tom Tilgner, Affirmative, Jo Ann Smith, Janet Carsten, Charles Gaul, Negative, lost all eight debates, but gained valuable experience for the District Tournament held later in Hawarden.

Four schools participated in the District Tournament with Hawarden capturing first place by defeating Sheldon, Sioux Center, and Western Christian of Hull. The squad was composed of Irene Ronan, Tom Tilgner, Affirmative, and Mary Ellen Sawyer, Charles Gaul, Negative. As winner of this tournament Hawarden is eligible to compete with other top schools in the Class B Division held at Iowa City during the last week of March.

Again the Hawarden High School debate team maintained its high standards in a tradition it is well noted for.

LIBRARY CLUB

"Wanted -- Experienced Librarians!!" -- This is only one of the many openings available to experienced librarians in this field today. The H. H. S. librarians are not only serving the school through their assistance, but they are also training themselves for possible future careers in this field. Their everyday experiences helping others and doing routine library duties develop more pleasing personalities and make them become better students.

Before a student may become a member of this organization she must have a "B" average in English and must possess the desire to assist others, dependability, co-operativeness, and the will to devote a specified part of their time to working in the library.

To broaden their knowledge in modern library methods and other principles of librarianship, the members of the Library Club hold one business meeting each month, at which two of the librarians discuss some assigned topic. They also hold one social meeting each month, with two members serving as hostesses.

The Club was organized four years ago, with Mrs. Hazel Snell as sponsor. Only two charter club members remain this year, Mary Sawyer and Mrs. Snell.

Officers this year were:

President -----	Mary Peterson
Vice-President -----	Mary Sawyer
Secretary-Treasurer -----	Gwen Wegner
Journalist -----	Marlene Witt
Student Council Representative -----	Ardyce Cooper

Other members were:

Shirley Vander Feen	Helen Mangelson
Helen Steinfadt	Audrey Wegner
Delores Hook	Patricia Lindgren
Charlene Rush	Jean Stoltenberg
Eileen Swanson	Mary Storts
Patricia Ross	Mary Waterman
Mrs. Snell, sponsor.
