Hawarden High School

FOREWARD

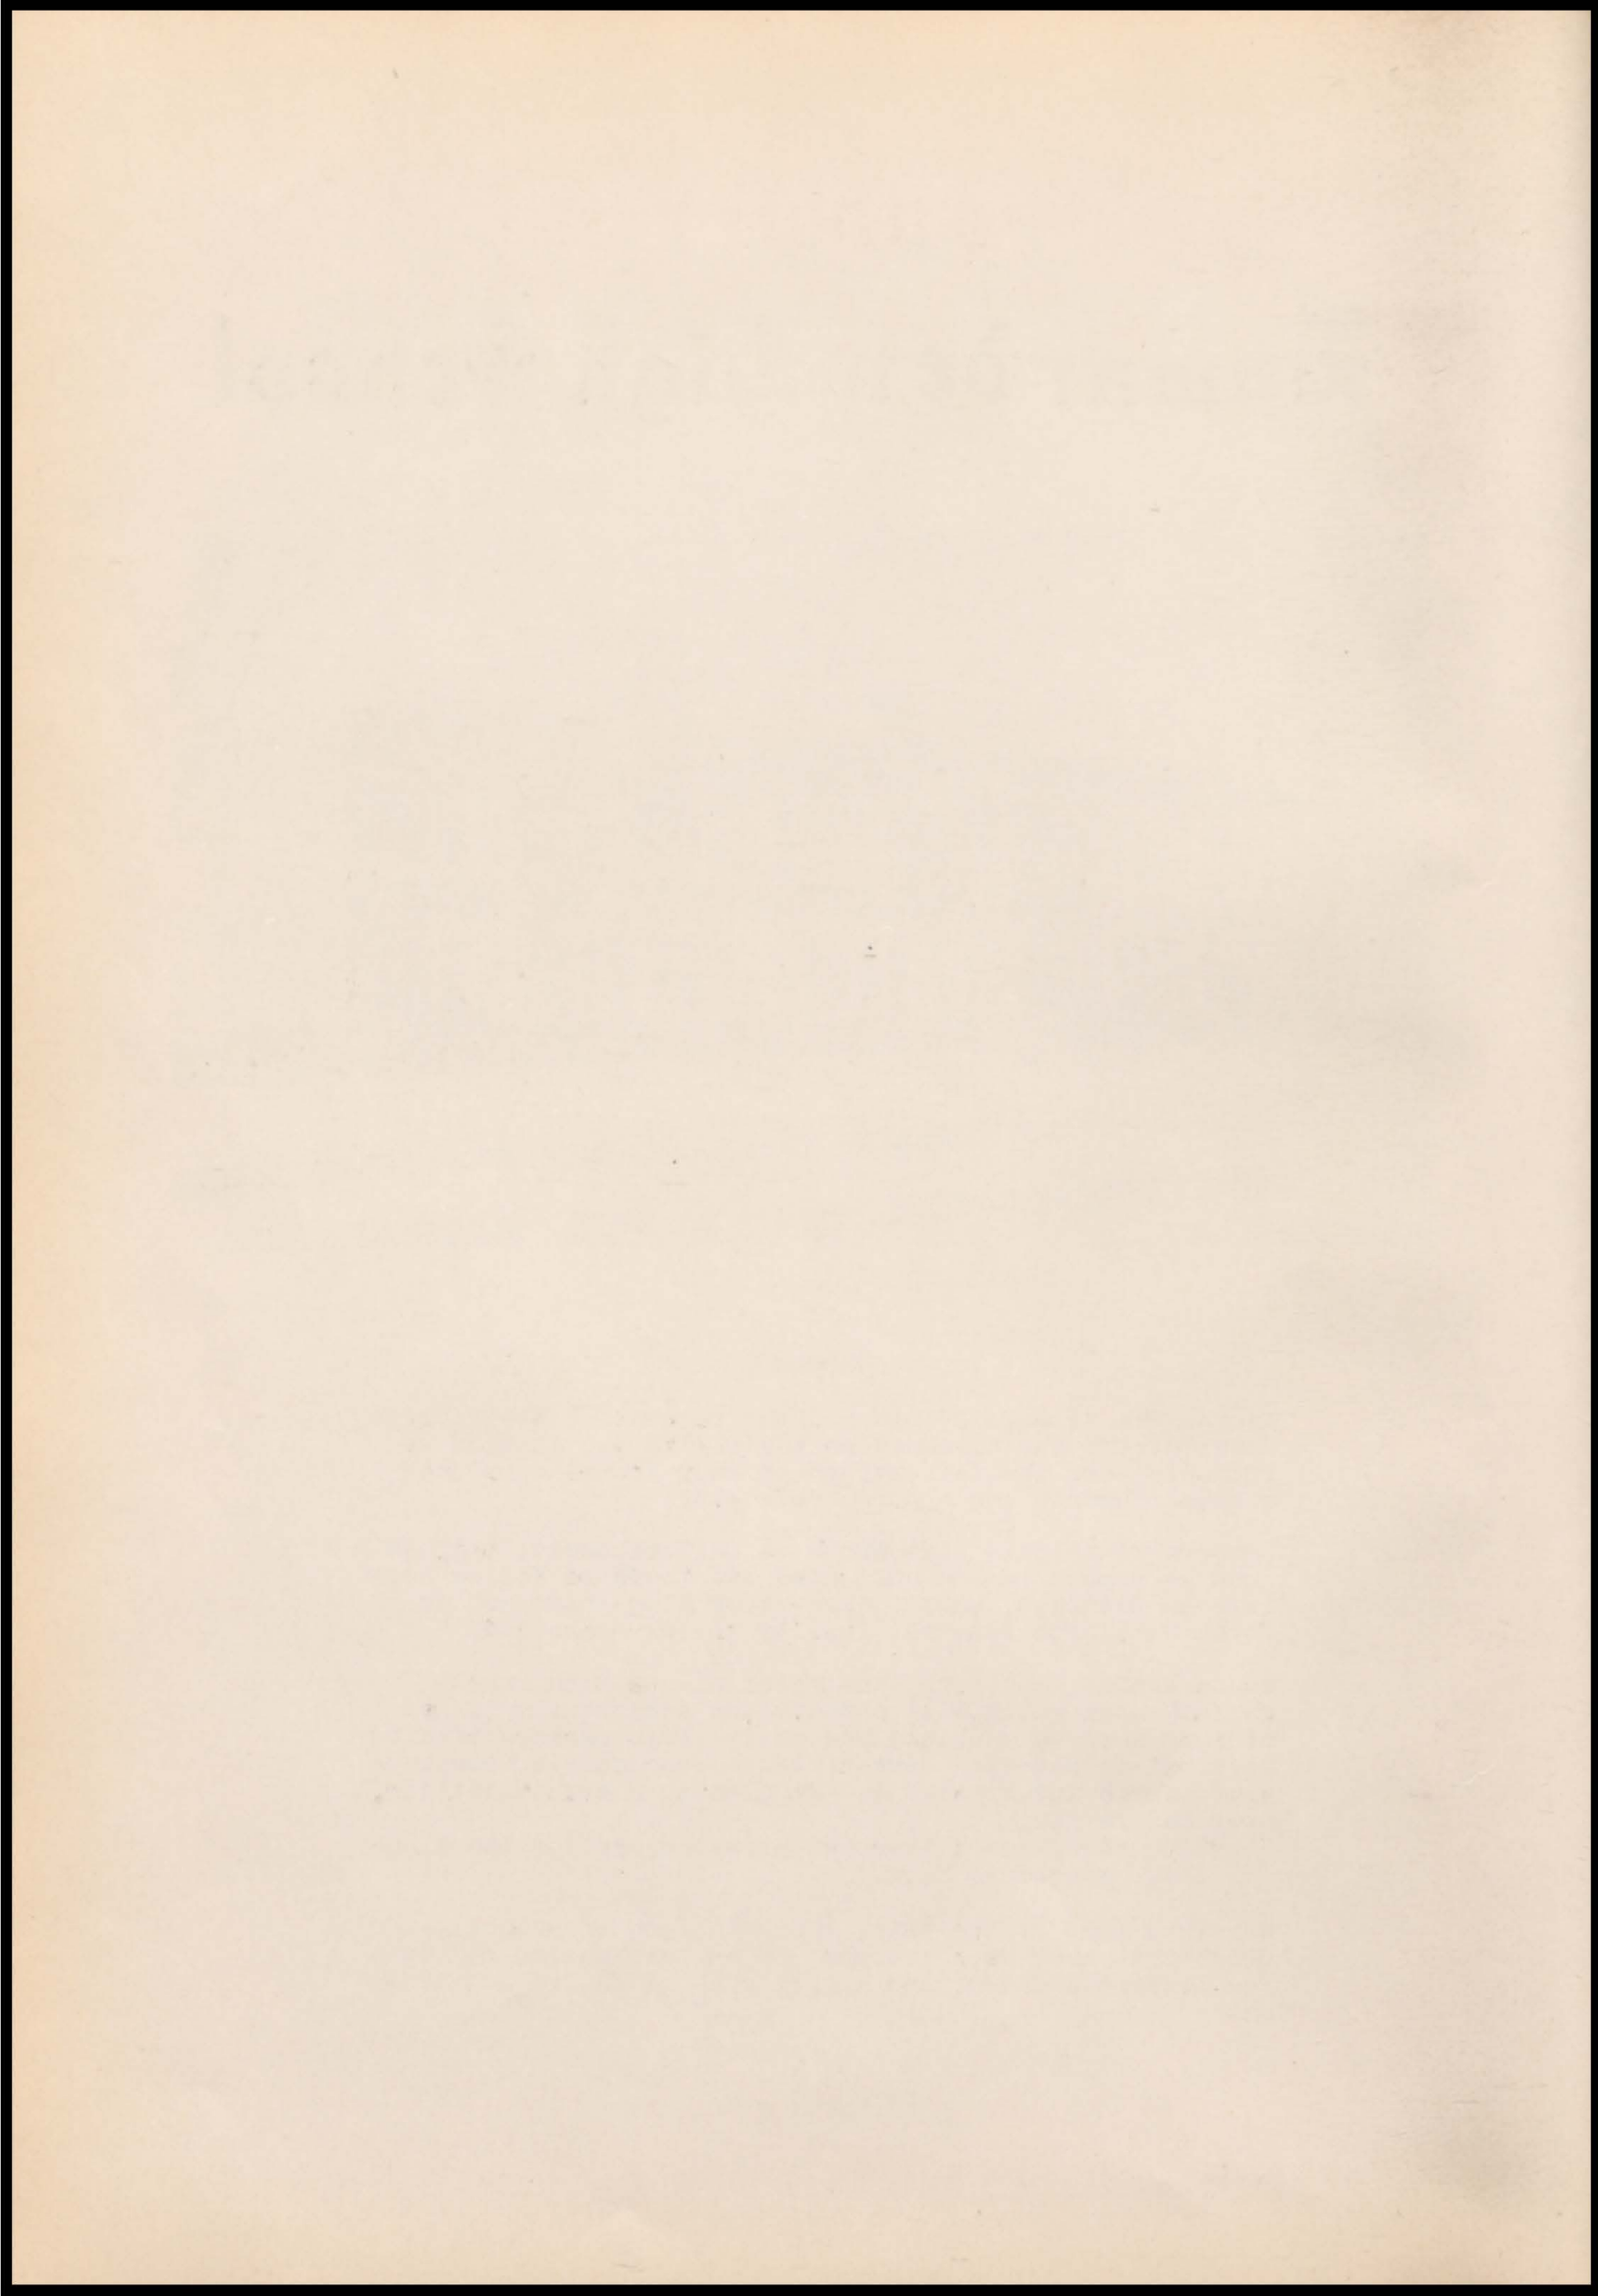

As knights in days of old had the records of their brave deeds carved and blazoned on their shields, so find ye pictured here the fair record of your school -- of its accomplishments and honors nobly won.

No more do knights ride forth on gallant quest; yet, so long as wrongs remain unrighted and there be fellow mortals in distress, your school--your King--bids you go forth with high resolve, loyally to serve mankind.

Education is, in truth, the armor of the mind, the chained mail which will protect you against the lances of ignorance, prejudice, and evil. With perseverance as your helmet and with love-of-truth your shield, continue your search for knowledge. It gleams, a bright chalice, ever before you.

"Live pure, speak true, right wrong, follow the King-- Else, wherefore born?"

May this echo of the past, reminding you of knightly deeds that have been wrought, be an inspiration to you for present endeavor and a challenge to future achievements.

With sincerity and untiring effort you have endeavored to instill in us a greater desire to learn and an appreciation of true sportsmanship. Most important, through your own example you have illustrated service to others and wholesome living. For these reasons we, the Senior Class, dedicate our 1952 COMET to you.

CLASS HISTORY

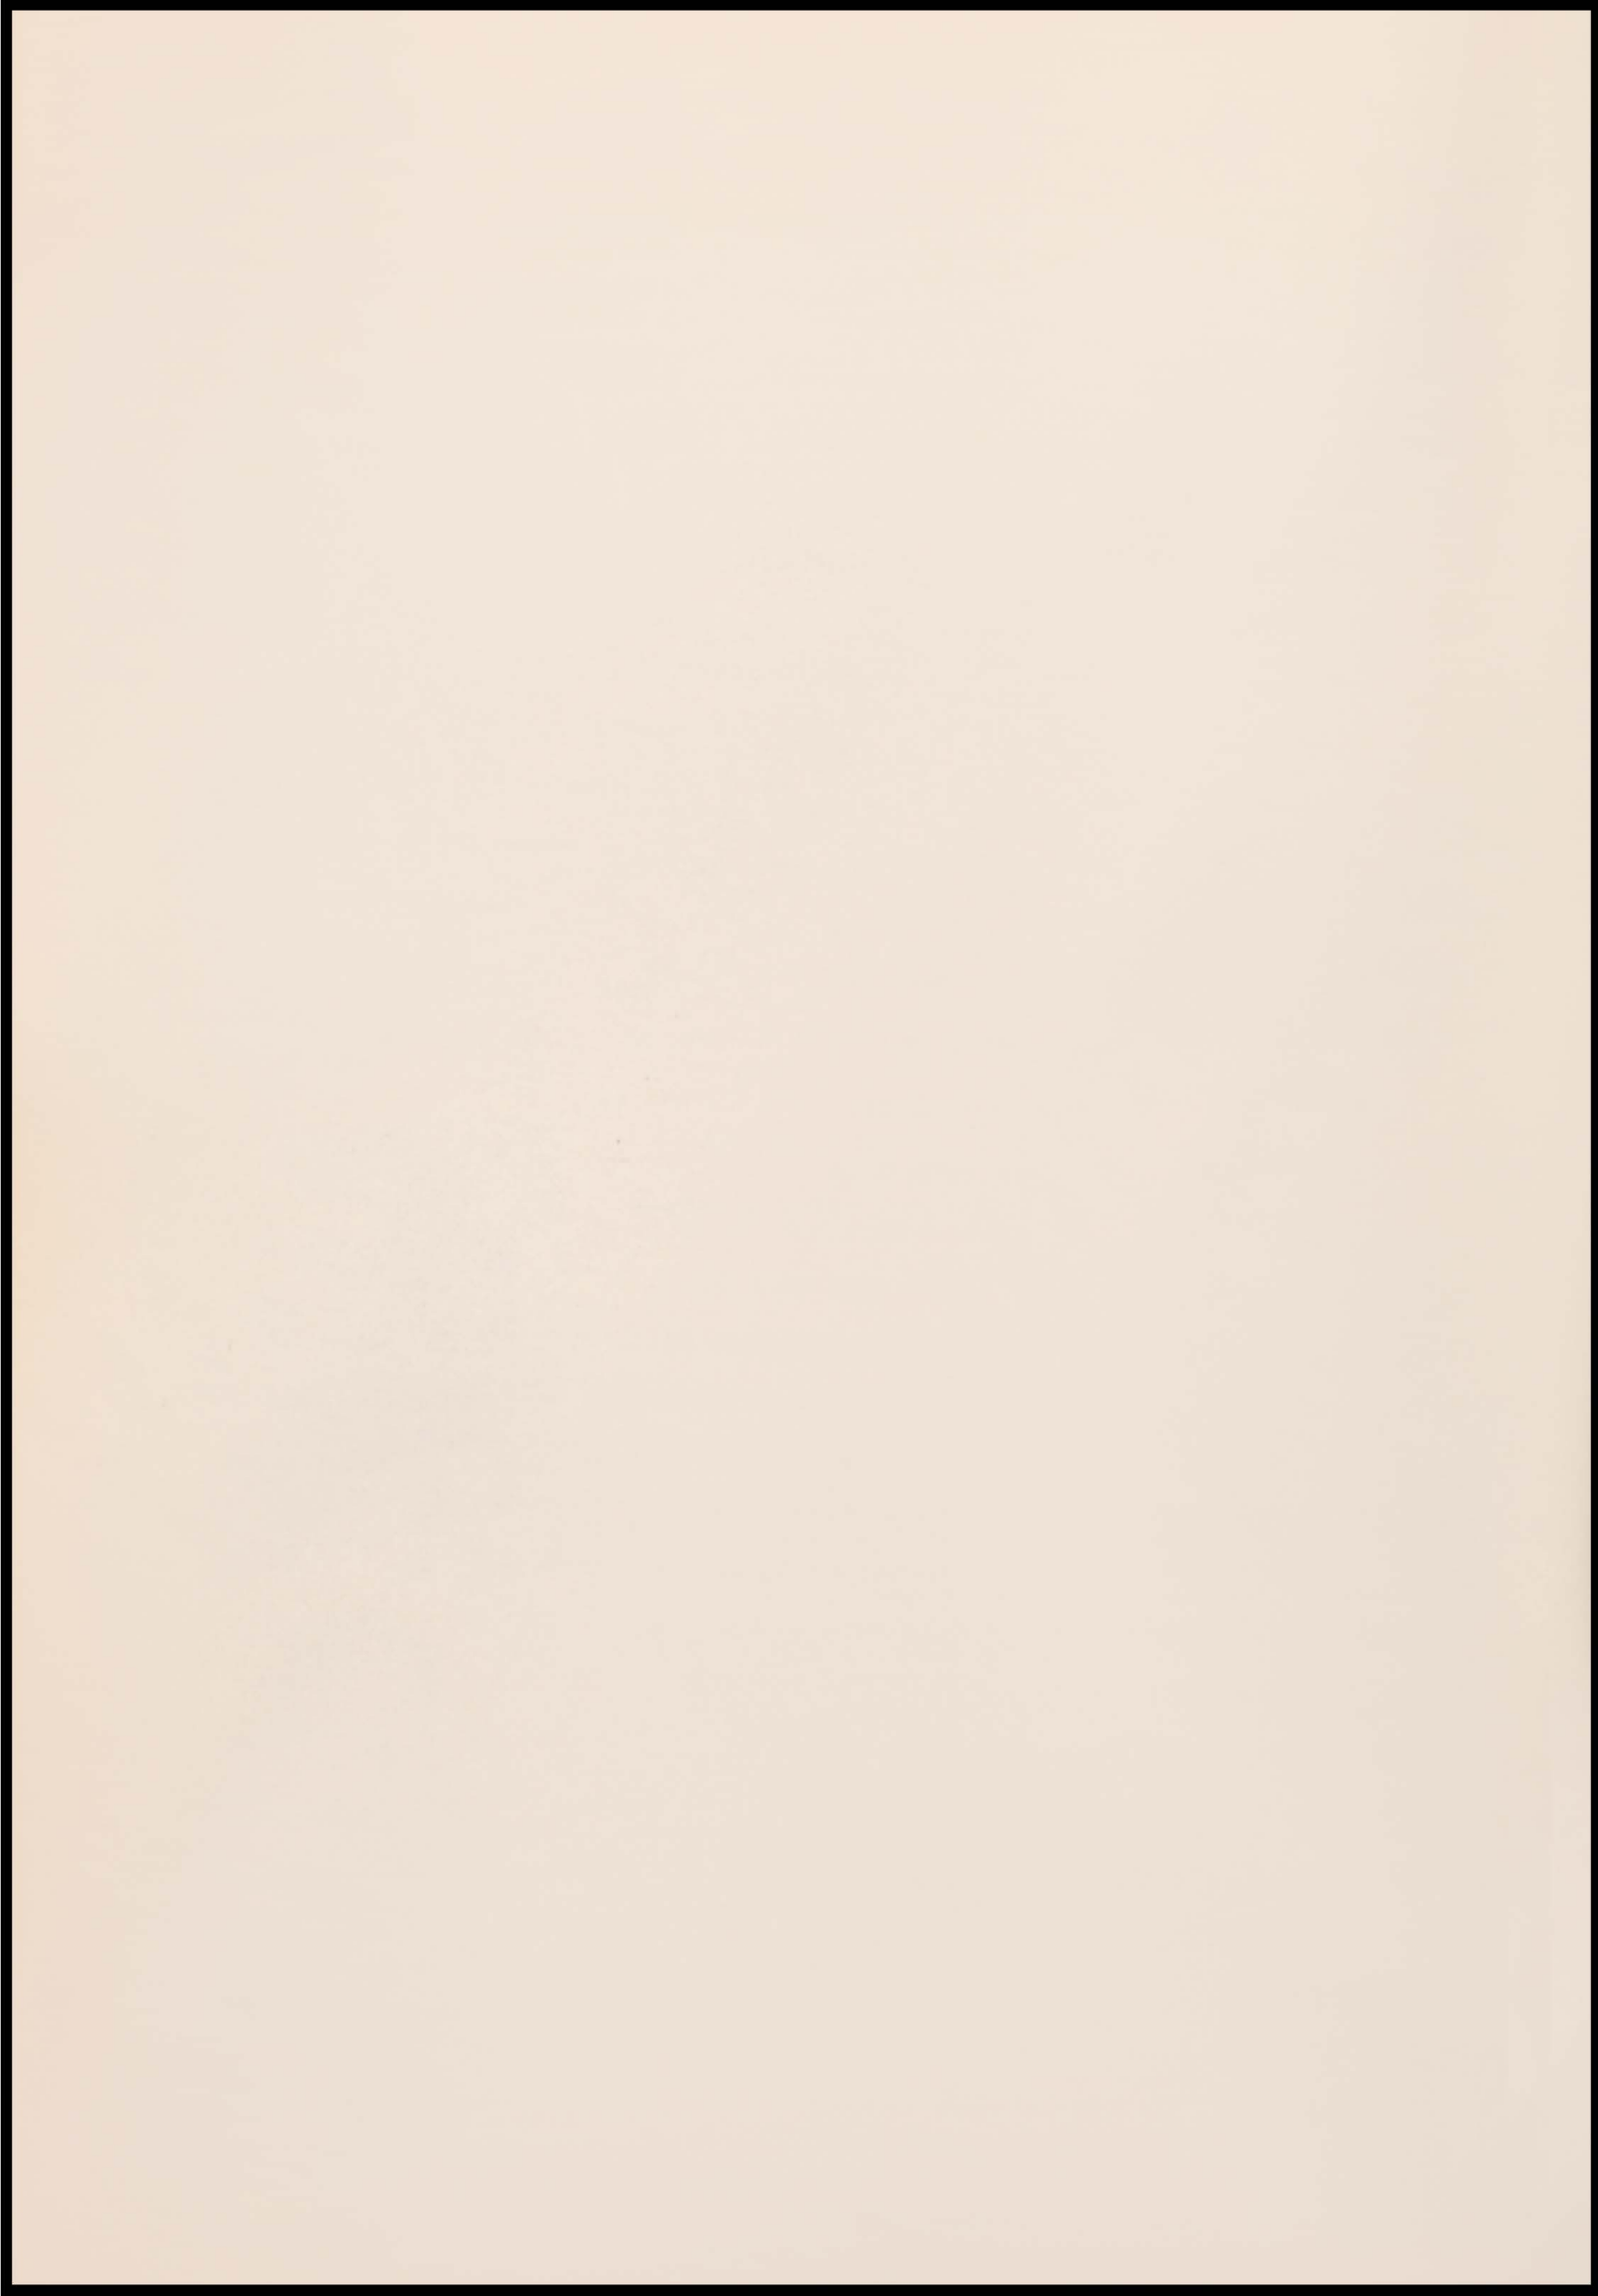

In the fall of '39, thirty-four passengers boarded the Train of Education at Central School. As the long journey comes to an end thirteen years later, only ten travel-worn passengers of the original number are still aboard. They are: Janet Carsten, Eloise Berg, Pat Rush, Lois Finch, Mary Ellen Storts, Donna Strong, Carole Haines, Chuck Swanson, Bootz Wohlenberg, and Adrain Kool.

The first two years of our journey were conducted by Miss Cook. Miss Hilton engineered us for the first eight years, during which time we covered ground at a break-neck rate of speed. Along the way the joy-riders were entertained by the rhythm band composed of passengers aboard.

At the end of the eight years we transferred to a streamlined Train of Knowledge which has successfully carried us to our destination. Mrs. Muller was our first conductor on the streamliner, which then carried sixty in search of wisdom. Then Conductor Cook took over the eager beavers. Near the end of the trip we had a lay-over at Treasure Island long enough to put on a prom which was a huge success.

The school's Brakeman, Mr. Kaufman, conducted the tired but industrious riders to our final destination. Just before reaching the terminal, however, our streamliner stopped a day for repairs while the wayfarers spent a foot-loose and fancy-free day in Storm Lake.

Now we have finished our long, tedious passage and the engineer, Mr. Feikema, has presented us with our diplomas certifying the end of a memorable journey.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of sound mind and body do bequeath the following:

To the faculty: We leave our regrets that you will have to carry on without us; also our thanks and deepest appreciation for your patience and helpfulness.

To the freshmen: We will our athletic abilities.

To the sophomores: We leave our scholastic abilities.

To the juniors: We hope that you can continue where we left off.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUEATHS

Herb Pulscher wills his blushing red complexion to any bashful freshman.

"Gene Audrey" Wegner leaves her six guns and horse to Bob Ahmann.
"Go West, young man, go West."

Mick Kelley wills his ability to keep in training to Bernie Schiefen.

To Terry Esser, Stan Venard leaves this sound advice: "Silence is Golden."

Adrain Kool wills his homestead in Hawarden, U.S.A., to any Dutchman willing to risk it.

Eldon Nilson leaves his big grin to all the boys in high school. Come on, fellas, smile!

Lanny Booth wills his "bleached locks" to Eleanor Feikema.

Gerrit Schouten wills his muscles to Bill Kelley.

Lois Finch's height goes to Ed Johnson. "The sky is the limit."

Bootz Wohlenberg leaves his long legs to Art Visser. "Going out for track next year?"

Donna Lapp wills her motto, "Life begins with the first kiss," to Evelyn Kruid. Donna says life is just fine.

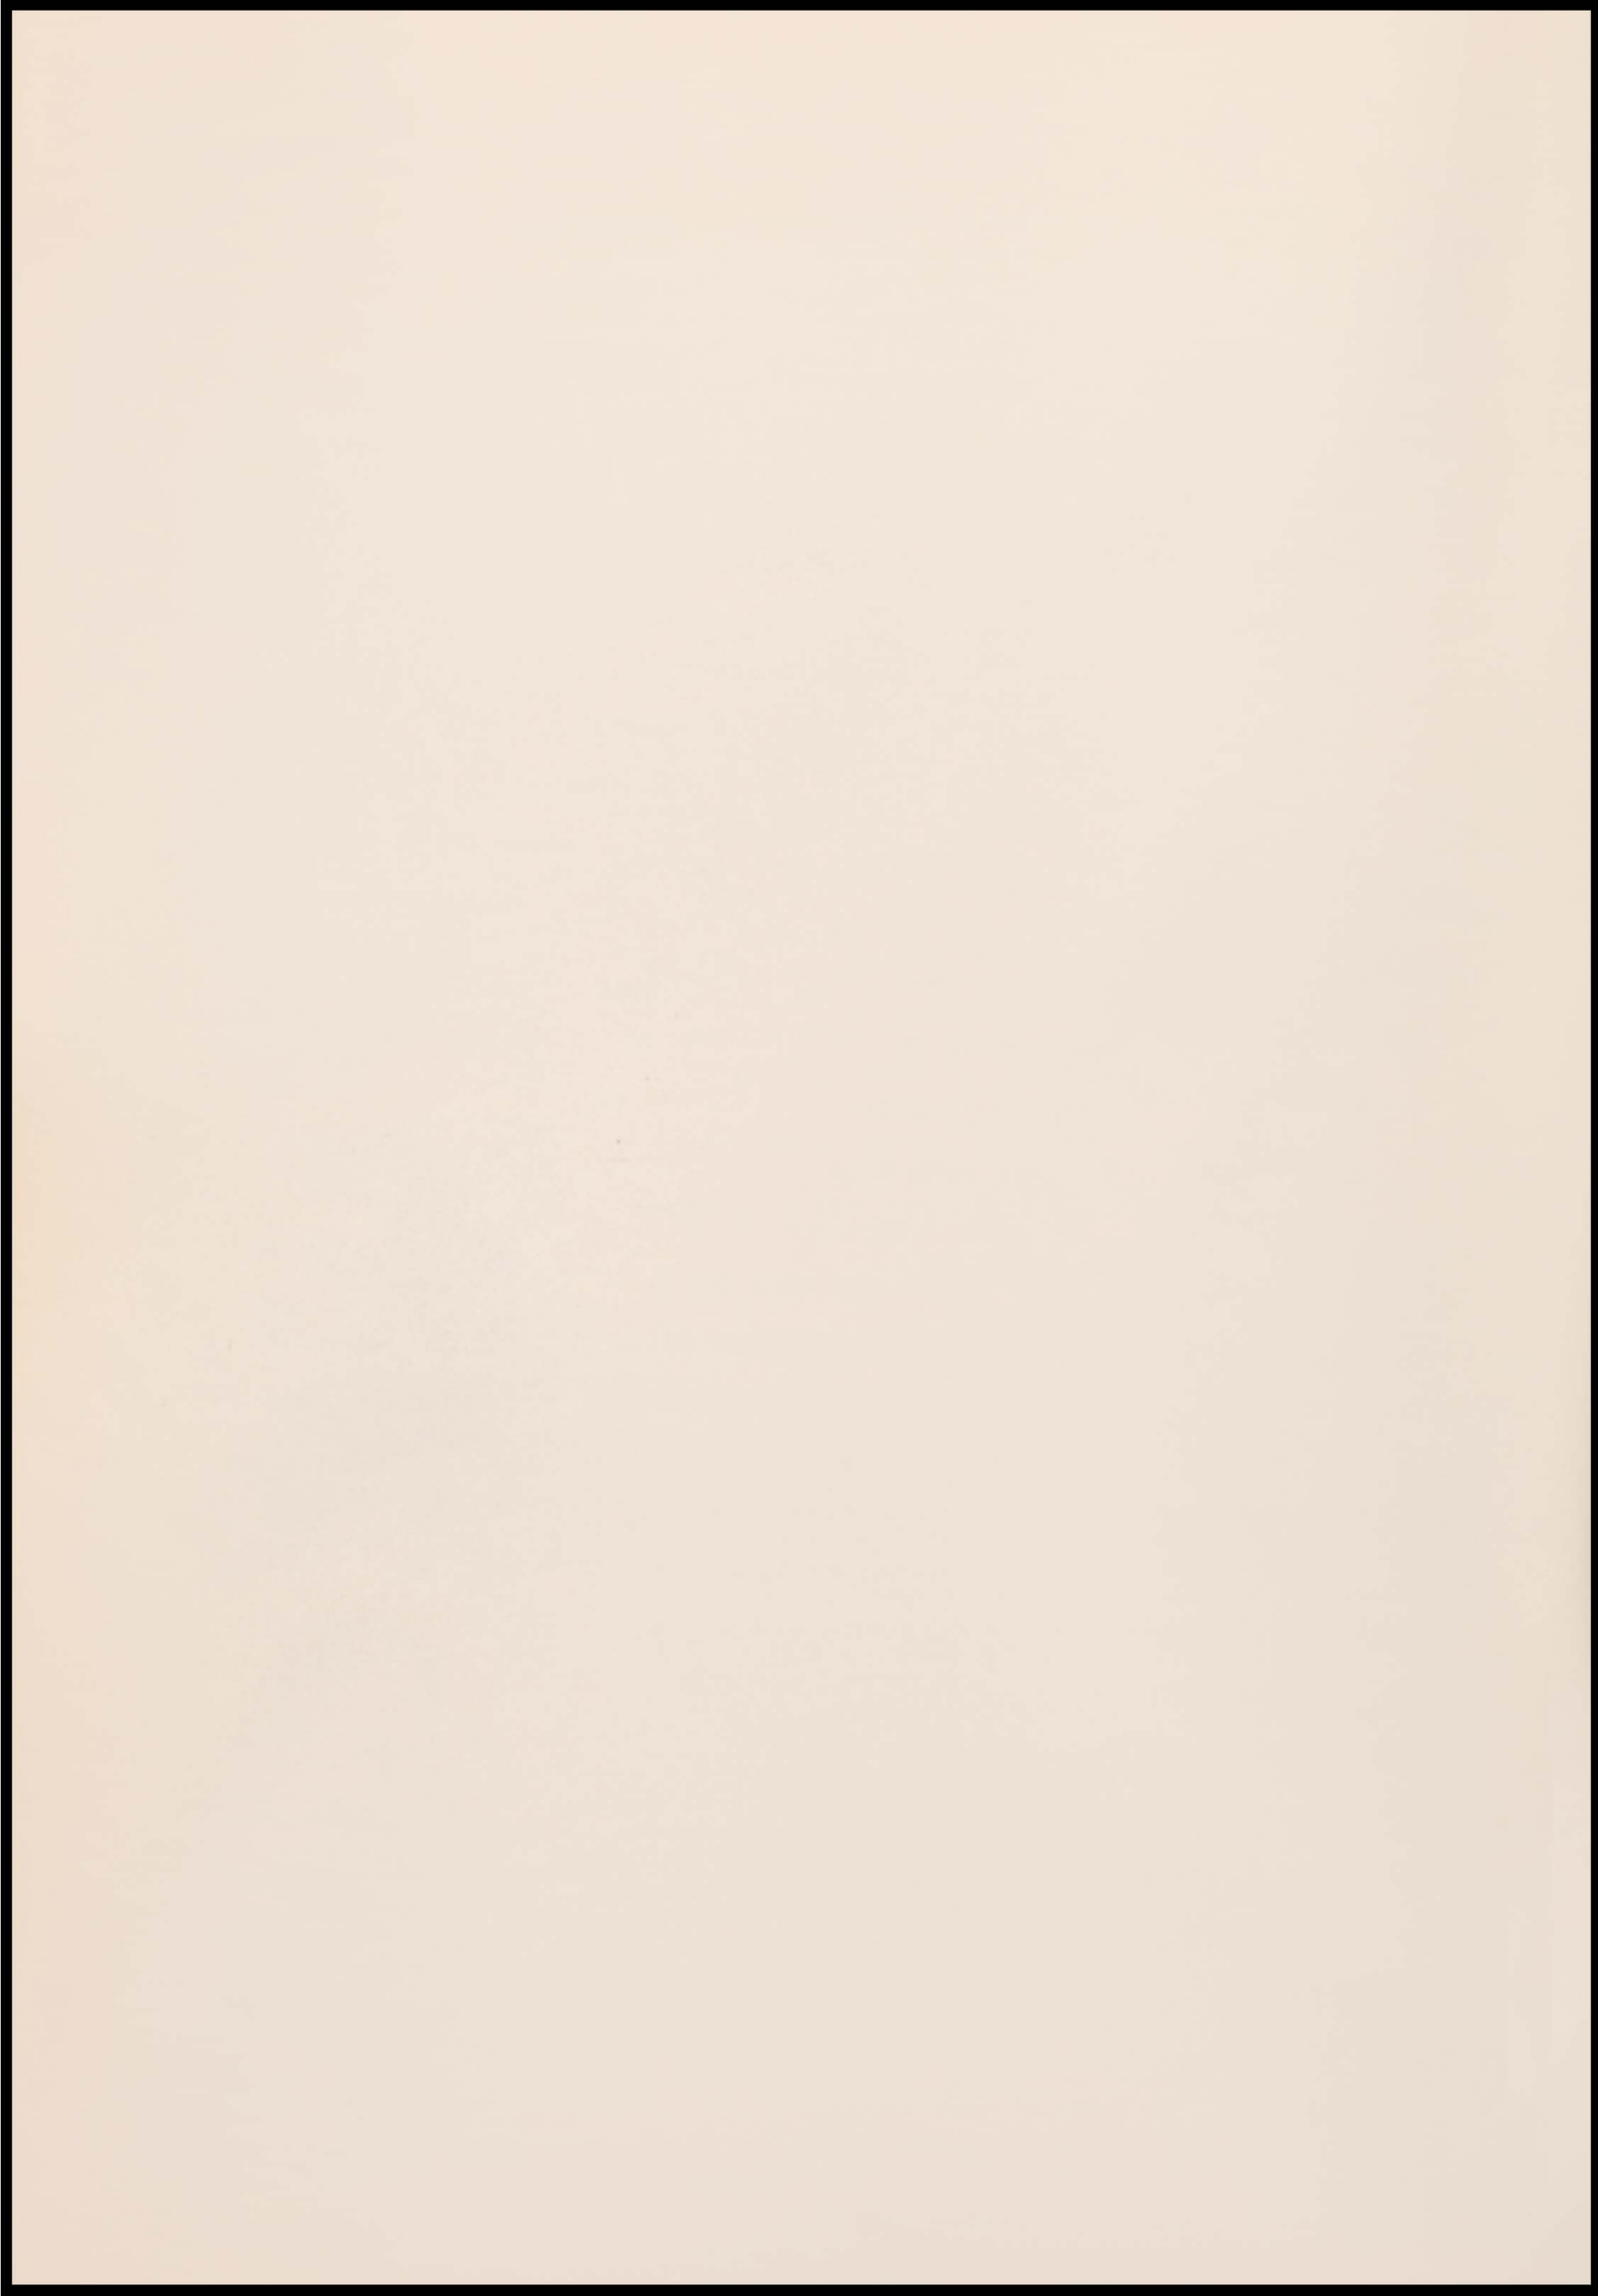

Rich Williams can't decide what to leave--so he'll just leave.

Milo Gaul bequeaths his big feet to Daryl Schlumbohm. Of course, Daryl won't know what to do with them, but Milo thinks they come in handy at times.

Peter Schemmer wills his love life to Bob Batchelder.

Betty Newman wills her diamond to "Pudge" Jones. It seems that Bob can't leave her long enough to buy one.

Janet Carsten wills her ability for safe driving and always stopping at red lights to Fritz Otto Burkhart.

Class Will

CONTINUED

To Don Whitaker goes Jim Morgan's "refreshment" book. Jim says he'll know what to do with it.

Merlyn Newman leaves his ability to stick to one girl to his fellow-farmer, Roger Dimmick, who hasn't found a girl to stick to.

Pat Eidsness wills her ability as a pianist to Barb Johnson. "You, too, can play."

Nema Bertram wills her shy personality to Della Dirks.

Pat Rush leaves her brains to Winetta Hanson. We must keep those in the weaker sex.

Orville Rehder leaves Jim Ericson a bushel of corn--to feed his pigeon toes!

For a small fee Charles Swanson will leave his mayorship of Frogpond to Honk Liston. Find a checkbook, Honk.

Jim Ney wills his red hair to Norma Patrick...this will give her a little more color.

Jasper De Raad leaves his quiet ways to Joe Dalton, who is never quiet.

Yvonne Vugteveen wills her love of school to Jim Burkhart. No more sleeping in the mornings.

In Testimony Whereof, We have subscribed our name to this, our last Will and Testament, at Hawarden High School, on this twenty-ninth day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

The Senior Class _____ X _____

By the said Senior Class in our presence, as and for their last Will and Testament, at their request and in our presence, and in the presence of each other, we have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses thereto.

1951 FOOTBALL REVIEW

The Hawarden Comets, flashing brilliance some moments and mediocrity others, finished the 1951 gridiron season with a 4 and 4 record.

In the opener against a strong Worthington, Minnesota eleven, who had one game already under their belts, the Blue and Whites trailed only 14-6 at half time, but withered in the last half before a strong Trojan attack and dropped a 26-6 verdict. The game was highlighted by a sparkling 87-yard touch-down run on a kickoff return by Chuck Swanson.

The following week the Tri-State Conference season was opened on a dull note, as the Comets traveled to Sioux City's Leeds and were again defeated. The Lancers, who were rated highly in Northwest Iowa, scored the first time they got their hands on the ball, and from there on it was a runaway. The Comets tried in the first half when they produced their only tally, but it wasn't nearly enough and they dropped their second game 47-6.

Smarting from this defeat, the Comets came back the next week to down the LeMars Bulldogs on the local gridiron 6-0 in a hard-fought affair. The Comets were knocking on the LeMars' goal all evening but couldn't muster a score. However, when only two minutes remained in the game, a blocked punt was uncovered by Jim Ney in the visitors' end zone, resulting in the only score of the evening.

On the following Friday the Blue and Whites took on the South Sioux City Cardinals in another Tri-State league contest on the local field. The Comets had the Nebraska boys on the ropes early in the game when Mick Kelley scored 50 yards on the first play of the game to put the ball deep in Cardinal territory, but a fumble erased their threat. Later in the first period a pass from Beck to Wohlenberg produced a tally, but the conversion failed as South Sioux began to recover from their early game shock, and started to roll. By half time the score was knotted 6-6, and a late game touchdown produced another defeat 12-6.

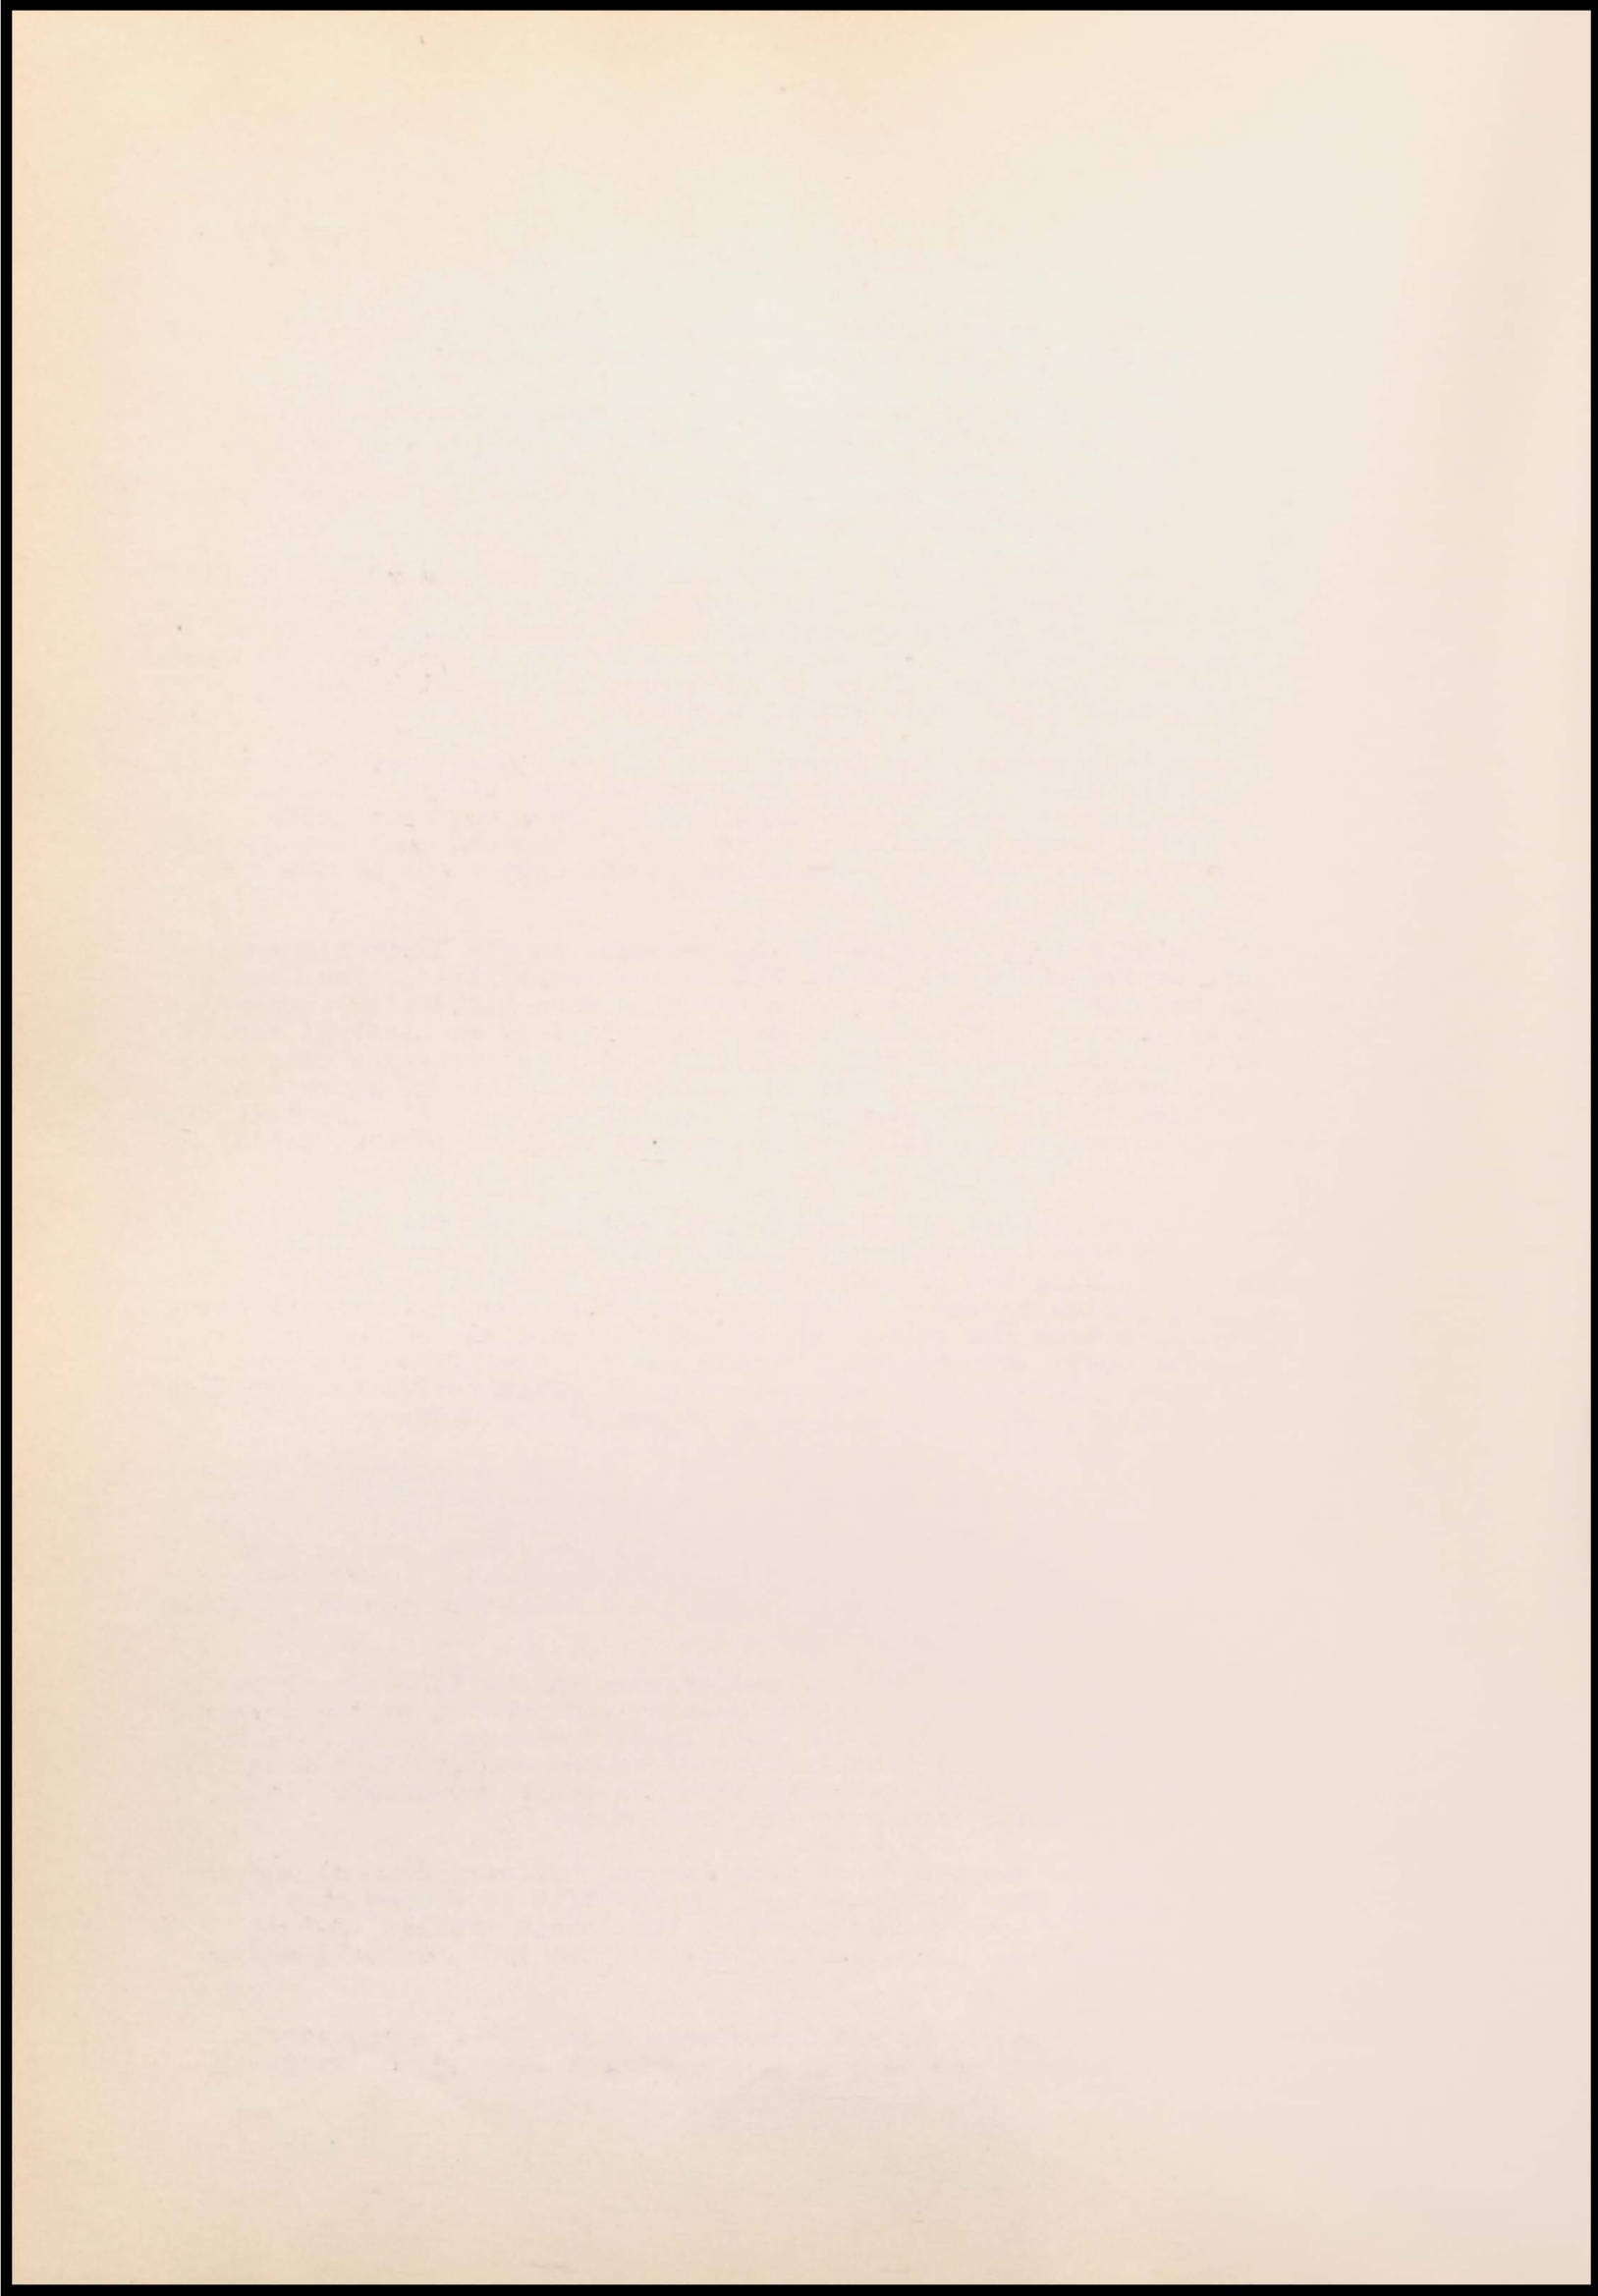

An unusually warm October afternoon touched off the festive Vermillion homecoming activities when Hawarden traveled to that South Dakota town for a league encounter. Trailing 6-0 at half time, Hawarden came back to grab a close 7-6 verdict as Mick Kelley rammed over for the touchdown and game-winning extra point. This seemed to take the starch out of the Tanagers as the Comets were threatening to score again when the ball rested on the Vermillion five-yard line at the final gun. This victory was gained at a price, for Vincent Johnson suffered a broken leg and was lost for the remainder of the season.

A band of Sioux Falls' Cathedral footballers spoiled an otherwise successful Homecoming for the Comets the next Friday when the Blue and Whites gulped a bitter 12-7 loss. Mick Kelley rammed over for the only Comet touchdown of the evening, and Keith Waterman added the extra point in the second period just before Jay Beck interrupted a Green and Gold pass and galloped 55 yards before being forced out on the Cathedral ten-yard line. The half-time gun ended their threat and the Comets could not score again.

Playing Rock Rapids in sub-freezing temperature on the following Friday, the Comets unleashed a brilliant display of passing and running as they overcame a 12-6 Lions' half-time lead to blast the Rock Rapids' eleven, 26-19. Kelley, Morgan, Waterman, and Swanson all contributed one touchdown each to a smashing Comet win in a game that was more one-sided than the score indicated. This victory clinched a third place finish in the Conference.

The following Friday was the final game for ten Hawarden seniors and the Blue and Whites grabbed a fine 26-19 win over Orange City in a game that inaugurated the "Battle for the Wooden Shoes." The Comets trailed 12-0 at first quarter, but fought back fiercely to close out the 1951 football season with their fourth victory.

Four boys were honored on the All-Conference team. They are: Adrain Kool, end; Milo Gaul, tackle; Jim Ney, guard; and Chuck Swanson, quarterback.

Homecoming

DONNA LAPP

H.H.S. Sweetheart

Homecoming this year was a never-to-be forgotten affair. On Thursday night, October 18, festivities began with our traditional bonfire and snake dance. The next day school was dismissed early so that the students could participate in a parade led by the band. Each of the classes and several clubs made floats for the parade. Local businessmen did the judging. Before the game that night the floats encircled the football field and the ratings were announced. First place was won by the Library Club. The F.H.A., Freshman Class, and Lettermen's Club won second, third, and fourth place respectively.

One of the highlights of the game was the presentation of the Homecoming Queen, Donna Lapp, and her attendants during the half. Sophie Groen, senior, Darlene Strong, junior, Barbara Johnson, sophomore, and Beverly Jones, freshman, were chosen by their classes to attend the Queen.

An otherwise perfect Homecoming was marred slightly by a defeat in the game between the Fighting Irish of Sioux Falls' Cathedral and the Comets. The score was 12-7.

To put the final touch on the activities, the seniors sponsored a big Homecoming Dance after the game at which the Queen and her attendants reigned over both Hawarden and Sioux Falls' participants.
