WEST SIOUX HIGH SCHOOL

HAWARDEN, IOWA
PRESENTS

THE FALCON OF 1961

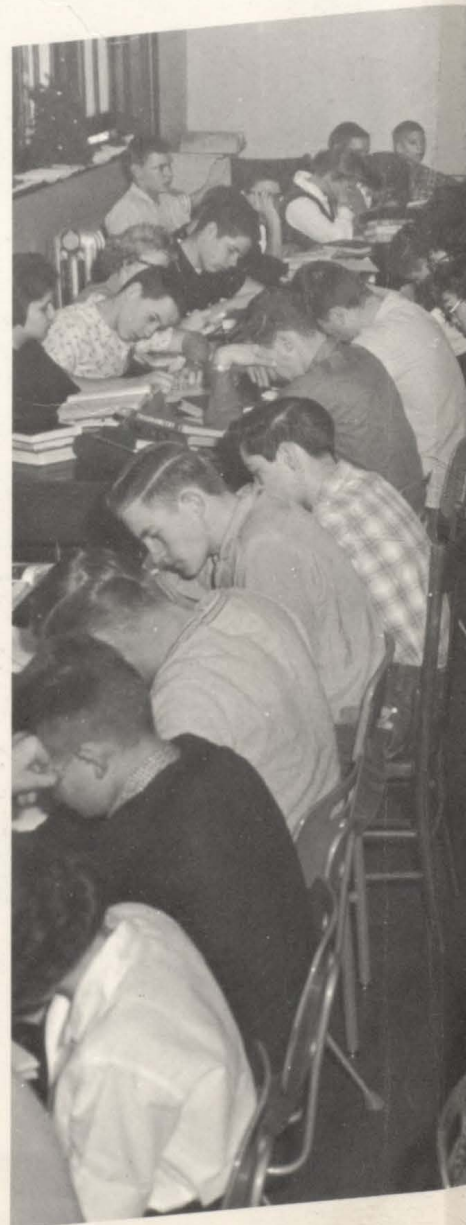

Faculty 5 Seniors 11 Underclassmen 19 Organ

As one year fades away and the next begins, another class has graduated. But high school days will not be forgotten and left behind.

The school year 1960-1961 was an eventful one . . . John Kennedy was elected President of the United States . . . The Pittsburg Pirates won the World Series . . . Russia and the United States orbited their first men into space . . . work began on our new high school building.

The 1961 FALCON was printed in order that we may always be able to look back and recollect the happy, carefree, and yet busy hours we have had in West Sioux High School; to see at a glance our classmates, friends, and teachers, and to keep in our hearts the many fond memories of the days gone by.

We hope that each and every one greatly enjoys the book. May it always remind you of moments you wish to remember.

Dedication

Her determined efforts to make us satisfied and happy will always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories.

In grateful appreciation of all that she has done for us and for her personal interest and impartiality to all the students, we, the seniors, fondly dedicate the FALCON of 1961 to Miss Janet McDiarmid.

Organizations

STUDENT COUNCIL, SEATED: Dennis Jamtgaard, Jim Gaul, Carl Hanson, Bob Rounds, Steph Sauer. STANDING: Kent Schwiesow, Robert Dixon, Elna Juffer, Mr. Roth, Richard Janssen.

The president leads a typical student council meeting.

The student council was formed for the purpose of bettering student-faculty relationships. Every Monday morning the nine members, representatives of each homeroom, met to discuss and to decide the many problems which confronted them, such as planning homecoming activities, electing cheerleaders, and choosing the queen. Officers were elected in the fall by the entire student body after a day of vigorous campaigning. Those elected were: Carl Hanson, president; Elna Juffer, vice-president; Steph Sauer, secretary; and Dennis Jamtgaard, treasurer. Mr. Roth is the council's advisor.

Annual Staff

The year '61 brought many more changes in the FALCON. The use of more pages, pictures, and captions is the most noticeable change. These along with the change of color in the cover have given this year's annual a much more enchanting and desirable appearance.

The annual staff under the direction of Mr. Muilenburg, has worked hard on the FALCON all year and they are sure it is one of the best annuals printed. We sincerely hope that you enjoy it.

Carl Hanson and Rose Mary Bultman are working on the copy for this year's annual.

Future homemakers discuss the plans for the future while enjoying their refreshments.

"Toward New Horizons" the FHA motto expresses the purpose of their organization--learning to live better today in order that their lives and those of their families may be better tomorrow.

The theme this year for the state of Iowa was "Better Family Living." The year's program was built around this theme.

The year's events included an old fashioned Christmas party and also a steak dinner. A highlight of the year was the spring trip to Veishea.

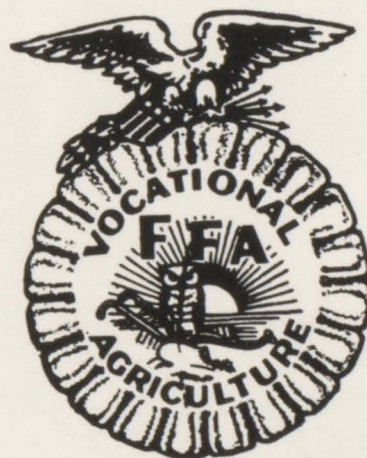

Mrs. Peterson was the sponsor of FHA.

Freshman FFA boys on a field trip.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization for boys who are studying vocational agriculture. This year our FFA judging team under the leadership of Mr. Iverson won first place among nearly 100 entries in the Sioux City Invitational Livestock judging contest. In other activities, a first place rating was gained in the four-state cattle judging contest sponsored by the Sioux City Stock Yard Foundation and second place ratings were gained at the district FFA contest in public speaking and parliamentary procedure.

GAA gives the girls recreational benefits and entertainment, as well as the opportunity to work together as a team. They accomplished this by holding a skating party, the initiation for the freshmen girls, and a Halloween party.

Our GAA sponsored a basketball tournament with six teams participating. They also sponsored a volleyball tournament in which each class had a team to represent them.

Miss McDiarmid was our sponsor.

In the spring the girls turned their attention to softball.

Football

This year, a rebuilding year for the Falcons, saw a marked improvement over previous seasons in the football team. Playing one of the toughest schedules in the school's history, the gridders came out with a 3-6 record.

The Falcons opened the season with a 12-6 victory over arch-rival Akron. Defensive play stood out as Don Abbott recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for the first TD and Jerry Smith intercepted a pass and ran 40 yards for the other TD.

In the second, and perhaps most exciting game of the season, West Sioux defeated Augustana Academy 7-6. West Sioux's lone TD was scored by Jim Tausz on a 10 yard pass from Kallsen. The determined defensive team held the Academy on the 1 yard line until time ran out to end the game.

Bruce Waterman tries to add another touch down for West Sioux.

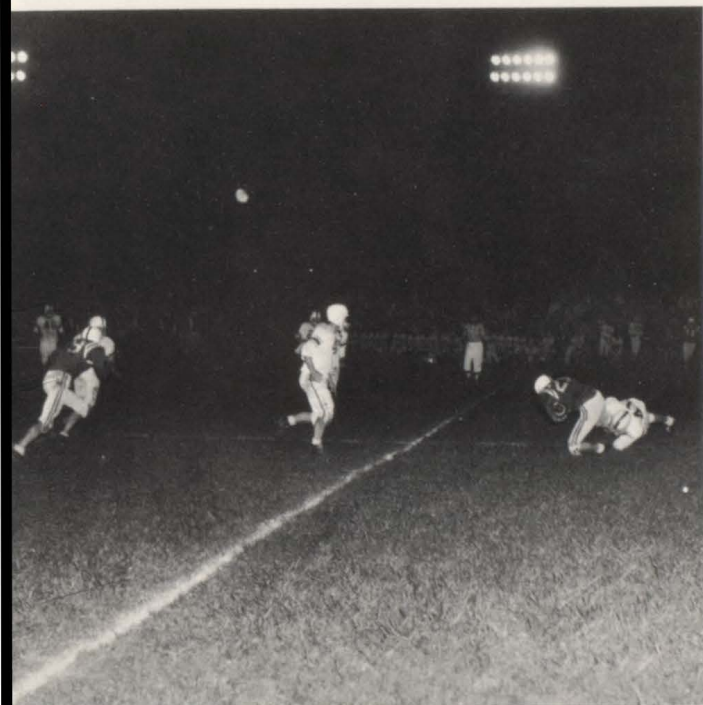

West Sioux defends the goal line.

The following week one of Northwest's powers, the LeMars Bulldogs, visited the West Sioux gridiron. Despite an extremely tough Falcon defense the visitors pulled out a 19-0 win.

Again the Falcons bit off a bigger chunk than they could chew as they traveled to Canton to play the number 2 team in South Dakota. The final score was 40-13. Jerry Smith scored in the second quarter and another Kallsen-to-Tausz pass scored in the final period.

Homecoming! This time the highly vaunted Tanagers from Vermillion played the Falcons before a large and enthusiastic homecoming crowd. Vermillion dumped our team 39-7. Bob Rounds scored on a run of 40 yards.

Back into conference play, the locals met LeMars Gehlen at LeMars. Bob Rounds was the only Falcon to cross Gehlen's goal line, once on a 10 yard scamper and once on a 20 yard jaunt. The Falcons were defeated 31-13.

A shoestring tackle stops Dennis Kallsen.

Our student managers were Jim Gaul and Doug Wasser.

A few words of advice before breaking huddle.

Undefeated and highly rated Maurice-Orange City came to Hawarden the following Friday for what proved to be one of the best games the Falcons played. From the opening minute our team didn't give up, but our mistakes proved costly as the Dutchmen downed West Sioux 39-13. A Kallsen-to-Abbott 75 yard pass scored in the second quarter and Carl Hanson plunged 4 yards for the second T.D. in the third quarter.

The long trip to Rock Rapids proved disastrous as Central Lyon defeated West Sioux 56-14. Kallsen scored on a 2 yard plunge and again on a 28 yard pass from Merle Waggoner.

Closing out the season with a victory, the Falcons dumped Rock Valley 19-7. A Kallsen-to-Abbott 35 yard pass accounted for our first T.D. Rounds scored on a 10 yard sprint and Kallsen scored from 3 yards out to wrap up the game.

Action on the gridiron

Varsity

V formation: Ivan Van Roekel, Dan Buol, Bart Waggoner, Larry Goodmanson, Leland Vander Hamm, Bob Rounds, Dennis Kallsen, Jack Bode, Kelly Stickel, Dennis Popken, Bob Gebbie, Bob Thomspson. BACK: Larry Pearson, Paul Dagle, Doug Herman, Russell Schoeneman.

Basketball

Coach Peterson looks over the result of the previous evening's game.

"B" Squad

Falcons battle for the rebounds.

"Goody" tries to block a shot.

These seniors played their last game for West Sioux:
Kelly Stickel, Larry Goodmanson, Ivan Van Roekel, Dan Buol.

The basketball team had a successful year winning eleven games and only losing eight. Close games were the rule rather than the exception as five games were won or lost by one or two points. One of the most exciting games was when undefeated Maurice-Orange City tipped the Falcons by one point to win the conference championship. West Sioux, due to that loss, placed second in the Siouxland Conference. Dennis Kallsen led the Falcon scoring with an average of above twenty points per game. The "B" team, one of the most promising in recent years, had an 11-7 record.

Track

Once again West Sioux fielded a strong team in track. Although the Falcons slipped to third place in the Siouxland conference they consistently placed high in the major meets of this area.

Individual standouts were Ed Eneboe, who broke the school's and conference's record for the mile run besides taking second place in the state indoor track meet; and Jerry Smith, who tied his own conference record for the low hurdles. Eneboe also broke the school's record for the pole vault. The mile relay and the medley relay teams met with success during the year also.

Jerry Smith clears the hurdles at the conference meet.

West Sioux's 440 relay team was composed of Jerry Smith, Tony Schumacher, Harlan Bruxvoort, and Doug Twedt.

Jerry Smith, Bruce Waterman, Don Abbot, and Russell Schoeneman made up the mile relay team.

Russell Schoeneman takes first place in the 440 yard dash at the conference meet.

Breaking the string for a school record in the mile run is Ed Eneboe.

West Sioux's two-mile relay team consisted of Don Abbot, Rodney Vellinga, Denny Miller, Doug Wasser.

West Sioux pole vaulters for the past year were Bart Waggoner, Ed Eneboe, Tom Robertson.

Merle Waggoner spoils Paul Dagle's attempt to steal second.

Larry Smith catches as Merle Waggoner takes some batting practice during spring practice.

Baseball

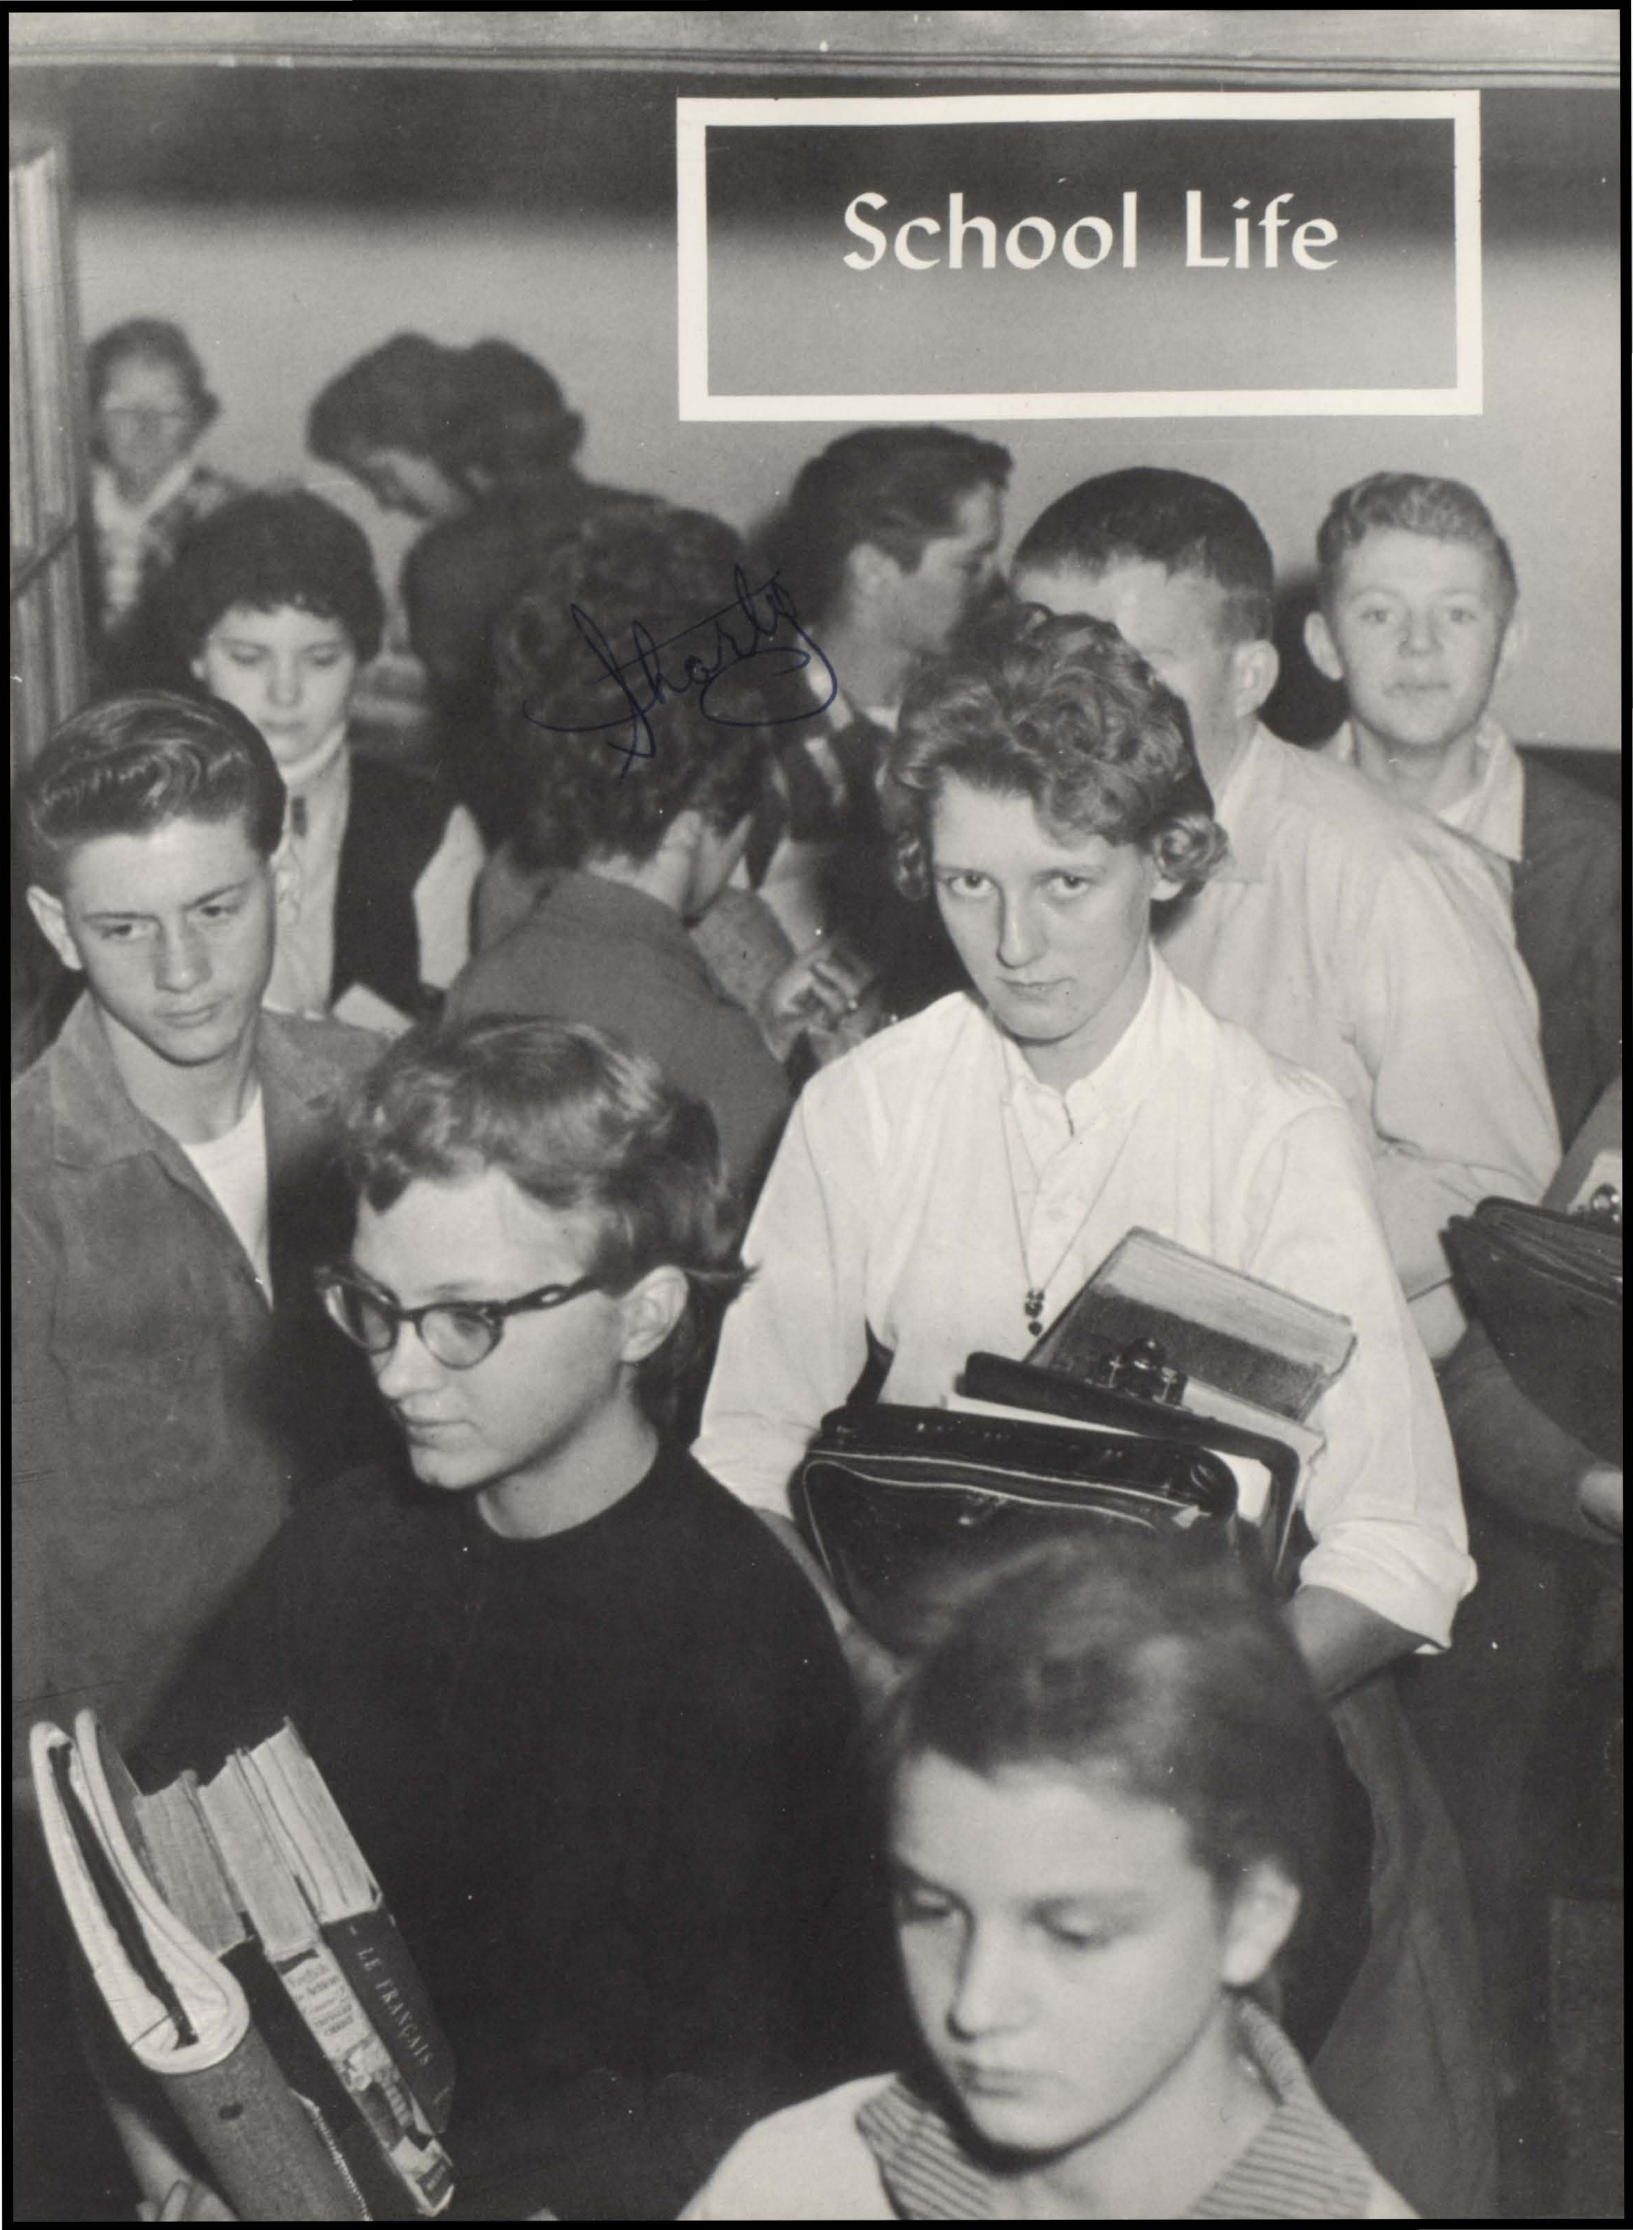

The Falcons appeared to be strong in baseball in winning their first two games of the season with George and Sioux Center. With only one senior on the squad, the team showed evidence of also doing well in the future. A full schedule of summer contests in the Siouxland conference were slated as the FALCON went to press. Sectional action was to begin in July.

School Life

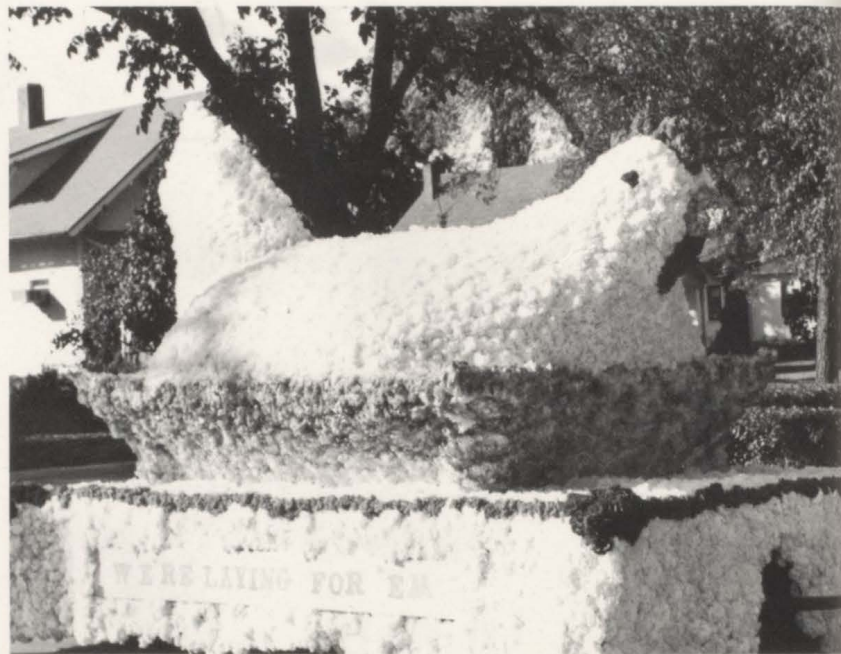

Shirley

The presentation of the royal court to the alumni and students was the highlight of the Homecoming dance.

Capturing first place was the junior high float "We're Laying for 'em."

Homecoming

After the coronation of the queen, a dance was held in her honor.

Second place went to the freshmen with the theme of "Keyed Up for Victory."

Queen Gloria & her attendants on the senior float.

The theme "Up 'N Atom" took third place for the juniors.

The sophomores chose as their theme "Just A Little Bit Better."

The Ireton junior high float "Vermillion Croaks Tonight" took fourth place.

"The Girl Next Door"

The cast of "The Girl Next Door": FIRST ROW: Don Kelhower, Bob Gebbie, Ruth Harmelink, Roberta Den Hartog. SECOND ROW: Donna Wanless, Jack Bode, Becky Pereboom, Randy Rozell.

The banker's daughter presents trouble for Alice.

Alice confesses to her father.

Mrs. Irving discovers measles!

The junior class play, "The Girl Next Door" was a very successful play about an average family in a small town. The characters included Andy Irving, (Don Kelhower), a teenager who suddenly becomes very interested in mowing the lawn while new neighbors are moving in next door. His mother (Ruth Harmelink), can't understand his sudden burst of ambition until she sees June. (Donna Wanless).

Henry Irving, (Bob Gebbie), is annoyed by the flurry his wife is causing in preparing for the homecoming of Alice, (Roberta Den Hartog), their daughter. She has been in New York endeavoring to become a writer.

Andy hasn't much time for his sister after her arrival, because June has promised to go to the dance with him. However tragedy strikes Andy in the form of measles. A rival is waiting to take June to the dance just in case Andy doesn't show up. His troubles are only second important when Alice is forced to confess her book wan't a success. In the midst of her woes, the banker's daughter (Becky Pereboom), whom Clark (Randy Rozell), a boy she gave up for fame, had beendating in Alice's absence, decided to try a few tricks. Everybody ends up in a mess of trouble which all has a way of turning out, despite Uncle Tom's (Jack Bode) practical joking.

"Let Me Out of Here"

Stevie, the elevator boy shows Hazel Miles his lucky chain.

The senior class play, "Let Me Out of Here," was a farce comedy in three acts. The action took place in a two-room apartment occupied by Bona Lynn (Kay Wood) and Eve Boyd (Laraine Popken) two typists who worked together. Eve's wealthy Aunt Angela (Janet Peterson) wanted Eve to marry an eccentric poet Gifford Marton (Doug Schiefen). Eve had led her to believe that she was attending an exclusive girls' school when she was actually earning a salary.

Aunt Angela and Gifford Marton, however, decided to pay Eve a visit. At the same time, Garret Lynn (Jerry Kratochvil) arrived with Victor Ward (Larry Goodmanson) who came to close a business deal for his father. Victor tore his pants while waiting for the girls in Eve's apartment. Garret took the pants to be mended but couldn't find a tailor shop open since it was a holiday.

In the meantime the landlady Bessie Rhodes (Judy Schiefen), Hazel Miles (Gloria Hammond) the maid, and Stevie (Carl Hanson) the elevator boy discovered a "strange man with no trousers" in Eve's apartment. Garret came back and Victor forced him to give up his trousers. Then, to top it off, Victor's father Marshall Ward (Russell Schoeneman) came to the apartment to clean up after changing a tire. Garret stole his clothes leaving him in a tangle that seemed like nothing could straighten out. However, all ended happily in a most amusing way.

Victor laughs at Marshall Wards oversized pants.

A moment of indecision as Bona Lynn and Eve Boyd each try to hide Garret.

Becky Pereboom and Doug Lankhorst are applying chemistry.

"Under the Magnolias"

The waiters and waitresses take on a southern appearance for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Students enjoyed the dance after the banquet.

The seniors solemnly await the invocation given by Rev. Custer.

Baccalaureate

At last our school days fade away. Our four years of study and school work are over. New life lies ahead for the 59 graduates of the class of 1961.

The baccalaureate address was given by Rev. Atwood.

The seniors march in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."

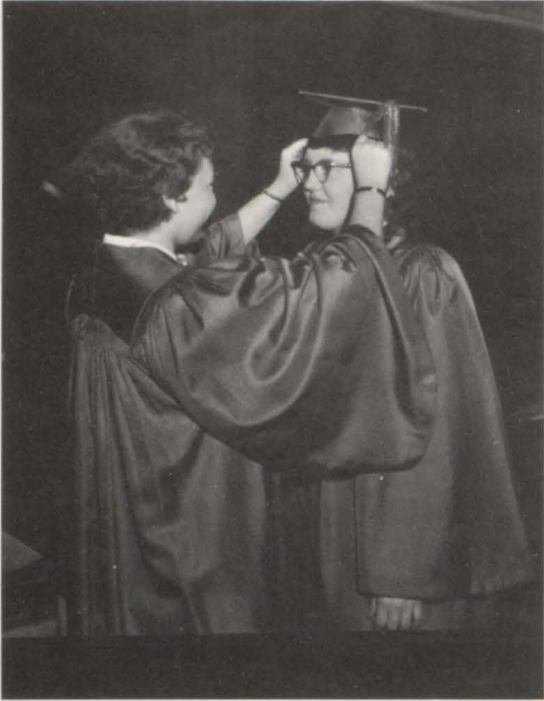

The mixed chorus provided the music for baccalaureate.

Commencement

Recalling memories of the past are Eugene Frerichs, Dennis Liston, Gerald Van Wyk, and Gene Coons.

Marilyn Berg gives Arlene Oltmanns a little assistance at straightening her cap.

Giving a few words of advice to the class of '61 was the commencement speaker, Roy Jennings.

Elna Juffer speaks in behalf of the Senior Class.

D. uey, (Emergency too)

Boy we sure have had alot of fun together this last year, especially this summer. Remember all those Drive - in shows we went too? When Har had to use the defroster (in the middle of summer) I wish Ron and his "cow friends" would shut up about their life insurance, I'm sure you remember "that" time. Boy, Ron's Dad was almost rich and we were almost done for. And then the old bag would follow us all over. Man, was I scared! Boy, I was slumb then. I should have had your mom's glasses and hearing aid. That might have helped. And then the nite when I stayed overnite with you. The picture you took when I was washing my hair, our midnite lunch of strawberries, when you growled like a dog and pinched me in the you know where - Ocht I bet I jumped 10 feet in the air then. All that day in Leicester and then when Ron came over and Har wasn't with him so I had to stay alone at your place. Don't forget our bet! Nap, skip and a dyke! Remember that one! Never another bus with that maly on it. And the picture you took of us! Too bad it wasn't any good! (Ha) I'm still going to get one of you and Ron. You have to stay with me sometime soon too. Don't forget when Ron brought his sling - shot to the drive - in to shot at those lights! It would have been funny if he would have hit one. And tell your mother thanks for that good bread for my birthday. I'll bake her some more cookies sometime. Also the time when we went to Gretchen's crowning of King and Queen. Gerald's house was really nice then. We got Plumling!

 And that zipper of yours. Oh
 Well, I know I could use a lot more but I better quit for now. I hope we can have a lot more fun this year on dates and everything I sure wish I had some classes with you but we'll have to make up for that. Take good care of Ron so we can shoot at more lights next summer. Good luck to a swell girl.
 Love ya
 Ardell
