National News—1965

1 A Wave for Friends—Cuban refugees waved to Cuban exiles on shore as their coast guard cutter approached Key West last fall. Such emotional scenes occurred frequently after Castro announced his "open door" policy, allowing certain groups of Cubans to leave his dictatorship.

2 Pioneer in Space—Astronaut Edward White stepped from his Gemini IV space capsule and into the void of space last June. Maj. James McDivitt, his companion on a 3½-day orbital flight, had to coax White back into the capsule after he had traveled 20 minutes suspended from Gemini IV. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad were the next space twins to orbit the earth. They completed their 8-day flight in Gemini V during August.

3 Medicare Bill Signed—President Johnson signed the Medicare Bill into law July 30 with former President Truman at his side. Witnessing the event that had far-reaching effects on Social Security benefits for the elderly were (left to right) Lady Bird Johnson, Vice President Humphrey and Bess Truman. The ceremony was held in Truman Library in Independence, Mo.

4 Temporary Mood—Dodgers Manager Walter Alston's mood of dejection after the Minnesota Twins won the sixth World Series game did not last long. The Dodgers emerged victorious in the 7th game and captured the pennant.

5 Double Space Spectacular—Astronauts Wally Schirra and Tom Stafford got this view of the Gemini 7 spaceship December 15 while traveling in their Gemini 6 craft for their historic rendezvous adventure. Schirra and Stafford rode their red-hot craft back to earth the following day, but Gemini 7 completed a 14-day mission before its re-entry. Making the longest and most significant voyage in space in Gemini 7 were Frank Borman and James Lovell, Jr.

6 Plea for Peace—Pope Paul VI stood before the United Nations General Assembly in New York on October 4 to deliver his plea for world peace. His unprecedented, one-day visit in the U.S. was the culmination of plans by men of all faiths.

8 Proud Student—Charles Craig, 19-year-old freshman at Iowa university, demonstrated his criticism of draft-card burning incidents by displaying his draft card on his jacket with the note: "I'm a draft card carrying American and proud of it." Our role in the Vietnamese war sparked the incidents.

9 Blackout—The glittering metropolis of New York City was thrust into darkness on November 9 by a massive power failure affecting hundreds of miles along the eastern seaboard. City residents and commuters were stranded in offices, railroad and subway stations for hours before service was restored. The crippling condition was caused by a faulty relay at a Canadian generating station near Niagara Falls.

10 New Ambassador—Arthur Goldberg was named U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations by the President after the death of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson on July 14 in London. Goldberg was secretary of labor under President Kennedy and a U.S. Supreme Court Justice when named to the U.N. post.

11 Startling Fashions—Bold and contrasting blocks of color were the youthful fashion note of 1965. The eye-catching designs even extended the length of campus stockings worn with the costumes.

12 Royalty on Tour—Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, arrived in New York on November 4 for a whirlwind tour of the U.S. During their visit, they took time out for fun-filled activities such as a ride on a cable car in Frisco and gala parties in Hollywood and the nation's capital.

Queen Margene Johnson

The students of West Sioux pride themselves on their fine homecoming tradition. This year was no exception as homecoming week found school spirit and enthusiasm at its peak. The night before the big game the cheerleaders burned a dummy of South Sioux's coach in the huge bonfire and led the students in a rousing pep rally. During the game's half-time, Margene Johnson was crowned homecoming queen, and the four floats were cheered as they rounded the field. Victory was celebrated after the game with the coronation, followed by the annual dance.

Five anxious faces reveal the suspense of the moment.

Tears and smiles break the tension as football captain Steve Kallson crowns the 1966 queen.

Linda and Jill find working on the float amusing.

Happiness is five on a fluffy float.

"Cupid Dance" initiates valentine spirit

The "Cupid Dance", sponsored by the Library Club, was one of the few school dances that came off on schedule. A large crowd came to dance to live music and enjoy the night club atmosphere. A special feature of the evening was the stipulation that girls make the dates for the dance.

THE CURIOUS SAVAGE by John Patrick was presented by the junior class under the direction of Miss Wilcox, Sandra Degen, and Michelle Aldrich. The scene is the Cloisters, a peaceful rest home for Hannibal, Florence, Jeff, Mrs. Paddy, and Fairy May. Into this private world of unreality comes eccentric, rich, but quite sane Mrs. Savage. Her greedy stepchildren, Judge, Lily Belle, and Titus attempt to have her committed to the institution to secure the bonds of the Savage estate. But their selfish plans are thwarted thanks to the help of the loyal patients. As the curtain falls, Mrs. Savage leaves the quiet security of the Cloisters to continue helping others fulfill their dreams.

Determined Mrs. Savage clings to her teddy bear as the judge, Lily Belle, and Titus question her.

Each Cloisters' patient builds his own private world.

Mrs. Savage surprises Jeff at the piano.

"twelve angry women"

A hot stuffy jury room sets the scene as twelve tense women assemble to decide the fate of a young boy accused of stabbing his father. The initial ballot finds only one juror voting not guilty. Suspense mounts as the deliberation continues with both flaring tempers and prejudice swaying the verdict. The play reaches its climax when the third juror relents and the women unanimously pronounce the boy innocent. Skillfully directed by Miss Kay Wilcox assisted by Gloria Bottjen, TWELVE ANGRY WOMEN, although not traditional, met with a traditional measure of success.

The jury foreman shows a diagram as evidence.

A reconstruction of the crime becomes a dangerous practical joke.

A single juror, determined to prove the boy's innocence, votes "not guilty."

This year the music department produced Rodgers and Hammerstein's famous musical-- OKLAHOMA! A great deal of unrecognized work went on for approximately three months in preparation for a successful three night production. Record sellout crowds attended the musical, which involved approximately two hundred students from chorus, art classes, shop classes, and backstage activities. The scene is 19th century Oklahoma territory where sociable Curly and grim Jud become rivals for Laurey's hand. Will Parker and Ali Hakim compete for Ado Annie's affection as Aunt Eller observes and advises the entire situation. As the show closes, Curly and Laurey are married, Ali and Gerty Commins, the local hussy, are also wed and Ado Annie and Will are engaged, while Jud lies in the grave. The show was very well received and proved to be a source of fun and experience to all who participated.

The sophomore class presented a colorful array of booths and prizes at their annual carnival on March 12. In addition to the traditional booth such as the basketball throw and the "cage," a professional carnival was hired for the first time. A good attendance at the stage show and dance following the carnival contributed to the record breaking profits.

West Sioux's 1965 football season was one of ups and downs. During the past year the Falcons participated in the newly organized Sioux Empire Conference. The Falcons finished third in the five team race behind the strong Vermillion and Canton squads. Although the Falcons were on the far end of a 13 to 7 score they produced a tremendous effort to scare the highly rated Tanagers. During the past season S. Kallsen and L. Bergdale were elected co-captains for the campaign.

1965-1966, the year of the underdog--this season will certainly go on record as a season of rebuilding. Although lacking in experience, the young Falcons provided stiff competition to the more experienced teams on the schedule, and in some instances pulled upsets over highly favored opponents.

Although often outscored, the Falcons were never outclassed--if class is determined by spirit and aggressive play. The Falcons closed out the 65-66 season with an eye to the future and a promise of better things to come.

Because our superintendent, Mr. R. O. Blake, was president of the ISEA this year, the West Sioux Falconaires were invited to perform before approximately 21,000 Iowa school teachers at the ISEA state convention. The Falconaires, consisting of both a vocal and an instrumental group, rehearsed for over a year in preparation for the event. In mid-October the ensemble spent two worthwhile and fun-filled days in Des Moines entertaining and sightseeing.

Carla's project is an Iowa bulletin board.

Sandra gains experience by conducting a spelling class.

Cadet teaching gives FTA members first-hand knowledge of the teaching profession, and monthly club meetings provide enjoyment and increase this knowledge. Carla Smith and Debby Dawson were this year's recipients of the senior award pin. Highlighted by the annual trip to the state convention in Des Moines, this year's FTA activities proved to be both fun and profitable.

Twenty greenhands were initiated into the West Sioux FFA chapter in October. A farm safety bulletin board was maintained by the chapter which recorded the fatal farm accidents in the area of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, and South Dakota. The officer attended the state convention at Cedar Rapids and developed a community work day at Oak Grove Park for the group's annual community service.

After seeing an SCI production, Jean, Debby, Lesley, and Gayle admire the roses of one of the cast in the backstage makeup room.

Speech Club had few regular meetings and was most active in individual contest work. Conflicts with the senior class play prevented the club from attending state contest although many members qualified through high ratings in the district contest. Several members went on the trip to a contest and drama clinic in Cedar Falls and a visit to Tyrone Guthrie theater in Minneapolis.

Library club attends nwisla convention

This year the West Sioux Library Club became affiliated with the Northwest Iowa Student Librarian Association and attended the association's annual convention at Spencer. An enjoyable day was climaxed by the election of Deanna Den Hartog as district secretary. The club's other activities outside the library included a Mother-Daughter Banquet, a Christmas party, the Cupid dance, and several candy sales that were "too" successful.

One of the many responsibilities of members is to create colorful bulletin boards for the library.

Laura seems to have a knotty problem as she checks out a book for Ron Hamel.

Editor Debby Dawson oversees the work of three "willing" volunteers.

Although the 1966 FALCON had to compete with basketball games, musical rehearsal, wrestling meets, senior class play practice, and other assorted activities, it somehow was finished and showed promise of being the most comprehensive and entertaining yearbook yet. A completely new "college style" cover and extra pages were added features which were planned and carried out during the year by the "small but mighty" annual staff.

World News—1965

1 Humanitarian Dies—Dr. Albert Schweitzer died in September at Lambarene, his primitive hospital at the African jungle outpost of Gabon. The famed physician, who reached his 90th birthday in January, worked most of his life to relieve the suffering of jungle natives.

2 Queen Speaks—Queen Elizabeth II dedicated the John F. Kennedy memorial at Runnymede, England on May 14. Mrs. Kennedy is seated to the left and Prince Philip to the right of the queen. Carolyn Kennedy is seated between the queen and her mother, and Sen. Robert Kennedy stands behind Mrs. Kennedy.

3 Miss Universe—The reigning queen of beauty in the universe during the year was a representative from Thailand.

4 Bosch Returns—Former Dominican Republic President Juan Bosch was vehement in his address at a rally September 25, shortly after his return to Santo Domingo.

5 Wins in Run-Off—Charles deGaulle polled 55.2 per cent of the vote in a run-off election against Francois Mitterrand on December 19. The vote gave DeGaulle the French presidency for another 7 years, but the strength of the Socialist-Communist candidate corroded the popularity of the 71-year-old president.

6 Agrees to Cease-Fire—Pakistani Foreign Minister Zulfikar Bhutto (right) agreed in the U.N. Security Council on September 22 to accept the Council's cease-fire order in the undeclared war between Pakistan and India. Pakistan's announcement came after India had agreed to the order.

7 Abortive Coup Fails—Indonesian President Sukarno was toppled from power for a brief 20 hours last fall. He gestured at a cabinet meeting on October 6 during his first public appearance after the coup, which seriously shook his one-man rule.

8 Soviet Winner—Russian author Mikhail Sholokhov was vacationing in the Ural region on October 18 when he heard he had been awarded the 1965 Nobel Prize for Literature. The December award ceremony was held in Stockholm.

9 Return to Desolation—Hundreds of families returned to the wreckage of their homes, destroyed by eruption of Taal volcano, south of Manila, on September 28. Volcanic ash covered a six-mile-square area. The death toll was estimated at 500.

10 Price of War—The number of casualties increased as the U.S. stepped up its military action in Vietnam. American advisors took part in many helicopter missions, carrying wounded soldiers, both Vietnamese and American, to copters on makeshift litters for evacuation to Saigon.

11 Reason to Celebrate—Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany waved to a cheering crowd in Bonn after his Christian Democrats surged to victory in the September 19 parliamentary elections. Mayor Willy Brandt's Social Democrats suffered defeat in the voting.

12 Colonial Rule Shaken—Rhodesian Premier Ian Smith broadcast a proclamation of sovereign independence for Rhodesia on November 11. The split from Britain was made in an attempt to insure a white minority rule of the African colony. It was the first such move against Britain since the American colonies broke away in 1776. Britain retaliated swiftly and took the problem to the U.N. Security Council, which asked all nations to enforce an oil embargo against the African colony.
