In Review NATIONAL EVENTS

1. On March 9, President Johnson presents the Medal of Honor to Spec. 6 Lawrence Joel, the first medic to win the nation's highest award for military gallantry.

2. In October, thousands of anti-Vietnam-war protesters descended on Washington, D. C. and created scenes like this at the mall entrance of the Pentagon.

3. Astronauts Virgil I. Grissom, Edward H. White II and Roger B. Chaffee died at Cape Kennedy on January 27, 1968, when fire broke out in their Apollo 1 capsule.

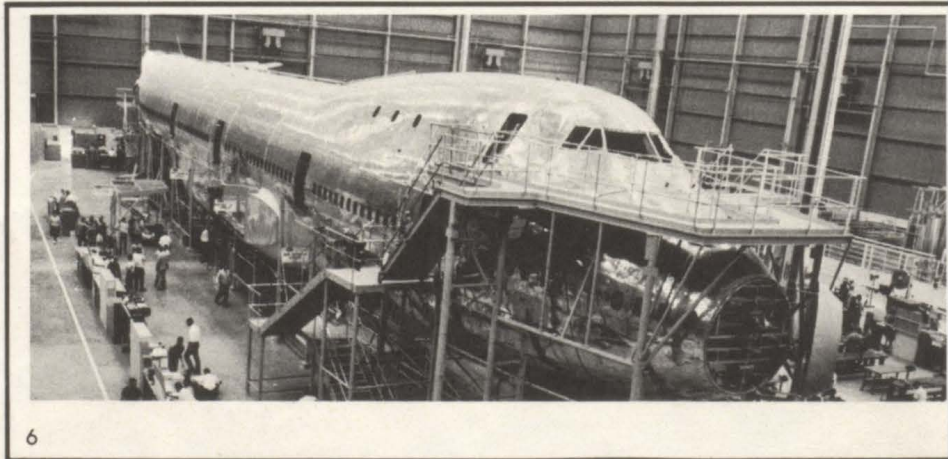

4. On September 9, Debra Dene Barnes, Moran, Kansas, was chosen Miss America 1968. Debra was the second Miss Kansas in a row to win this high honor.

5. This young lady is holding six pieces of high-resolution film, called chips, developed by IBM. All of Shakespeare's works can be recorded on six chips.

6. This aircraft of the future, the 231-foot Boeing 747, will someday carry 490 passengers at 625 m.p.h., thus enabling air fares to be reduced.

7. In August, flood waters of the Chena River in Alaska caused hundreds of millions of dollars in damage. Fifteen thousand residents of Fairbanks were evacuated.

8. In July, 4,700 Federal troops were called in to suppress rioting in Detroit, Michigan. Many other cities experienced similar riots during 1967.

9. On November 9, following years of preparation and the expenditure of billions of dollars, the first giant Saturn rocket was launched from Cape Kennedy.

10. UCLA's basketball team, featuring 7-foot, 2-inch Lew Alcindor, was undefeated in 1967 and could conceivably set an all time win record during 1968.

11. Secretary Robert C. Weaver looks over a possible solution to part of the pollution problem, a minicar which features a small gasoline-electric engine.

12. In January, a record-smashing 26 inches of snow fell in Chicago in 29 hours and brought the entire area to a virtual standstill for more than a week.

After a hard year of planning and working we of the annual staff send another year of West Sioux history to the presses, anxiously awaiting a glimpse of the new FALCON, the product of our efforts. I hope our work will successfully capture the memories, spirits and traditions of a year at West Sioux. My thanks go to the entire staff for their loyal help and especially to Mr. Clark and Mr. Hansen for their patient and helpful guidance.

Sincerely,

Linda Vander Schoor
